The Tiger

Sembach JHS

Sembach, Germany

1978-79

Time goes slowly
And sometimes
All too quickly.
Too soon we leave
And forget
Times filled
. . . with smiles . . .

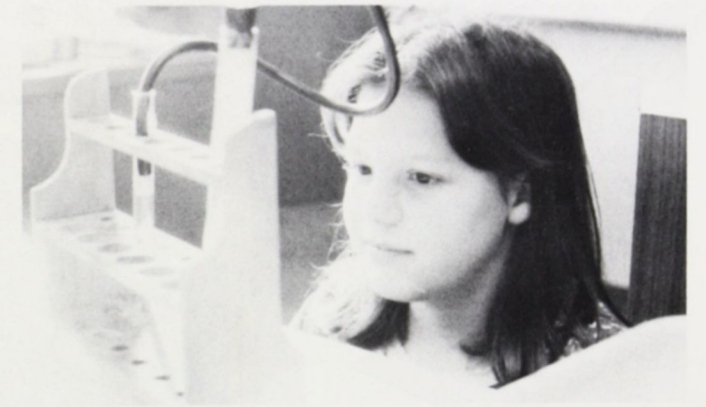

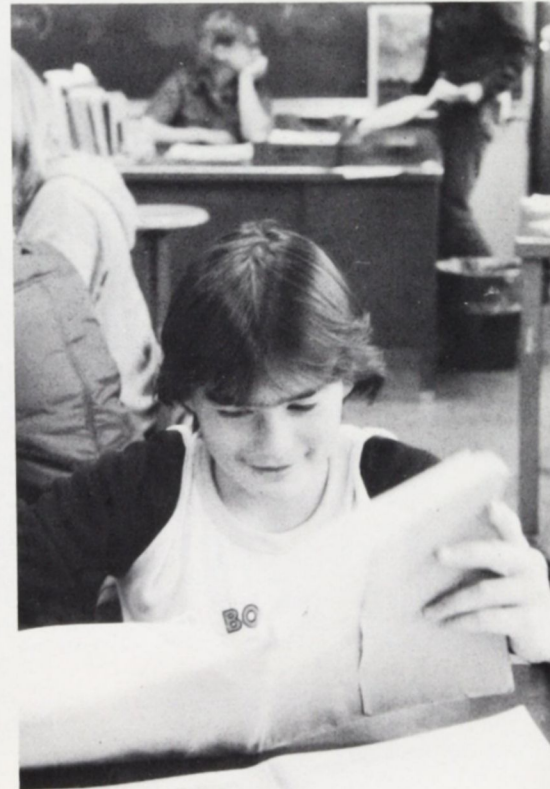

. . . with
listening,
studying asking questions

Above and going clockwise:
Wolfgang Kermer, Marty
Busby and Denise Becker listen to records; Bill Alie studies science; lots of questions in
Ms. Grant's class; Mr. Donahue gives a talk on rockets;
Chandra Harris working hard.

with experiments,

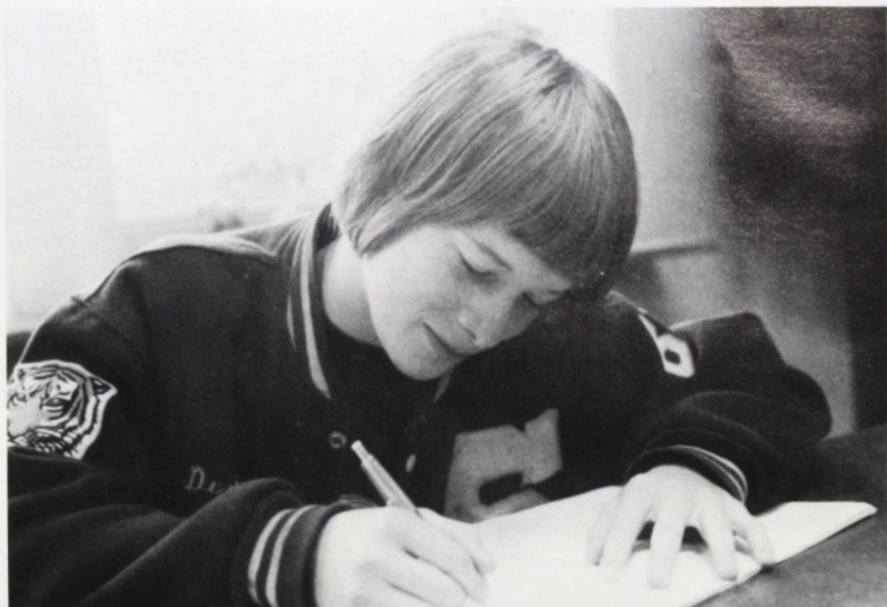

There was lots of time for experiments in science class (and other places!) Shown left and going clockwise: Harry Lockwood and Robert Colantonio work with the textbook; Patter Schwenke sets up an experiment; Carrie Patton watches for a chemical reaction; Richard McWilliams and Robert Gabler set up an experiment in chemical reactions.

... with classes

Classwork took up alot of time this year. Clockwise, beginning right: Dennis Brookie keeps up on notebook; Mary Calabro, Tim Chandler and Tim Day get a laugh in English; Eric Wolfram, Tom McClard, Robert Colantonio and Harry Lockwood seem absorbed in English; Mike Magoon must love math—he's smiling!

... with typing, artwork

... with music, dancing

... with lots of lunchtime activity

Lunchtime was filled with lots of activity. Clockwise, beginning above, left: Kelly McDonald, Marvin Booker and Kent Fahey were regulars on the basketball court; Mr. Castle helps Billy Shaw at a meeting of the Rocket Club; Steve Hinds and Teresa Davis hang out by the gym; Natalie Hughes, Lillian Hughes and Angie Thomas spending time in the library; Mr. T's room was a lunchtime favorite—shown left to right, Angie Thomas, Kristen Gerard, Debbie Dortch, Todd Drake, and Mr. T (with sandwich).

... with bake sales, collecting for M.A.S.T.

... with chess, soccer hockey, running

... with working together

Pat Biancotti and Alan Bowman work on a shield for the base gym; Tammie Crumley, Cindy Ogden, Laura Bangs and Lori MacConaugh discuss a problem in algebra; Denise Backer, Laurie Writer, Marlene Michaels and Michelle Reed catch up on homework during lunchtime.

... and laughter.

Activities and Organizations

Calculator Club

The Calculator Club is a group of students who meet twice a week to learn to "communicate" with their calculators as they solve mathematical problems. The purpose of the club's activities is two-fold: first, students are introduced to the amazing problem-solving capabilities of the electronic calculator, and, second, students are aided in building computational skills. Right: Cheryl Bents is all smiles; bottom (left to right): Gavin Peterson, Ricky McWilliams, Mike Persinger, Christine Smith, Dee Ann Tracy, Cheryl Bents and Karen Riggs are involved in a math game.

French Club

The French Club meets five days a week. In addition to studying the language itself, they take trips to France to partake of the rich culture. Some of their outings have included viewing WWI battlefields, eating in restaurants and trips to Orleans and Reims, and for the more rugged members, a bike trip from Lyon to Marseilles.

National Junior Honor Society

The Sembach Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society was chartered on April 4, 1973 to recognize outstanding individuals in the combined areas of scholarship, citizenship, leadership, character and service. The Chapter members strive for continual excellence in each of these areas once inducted into the Society. Activities during the 1978-79 school year included the sponsorship of the Thanksgiving Canned Goods Drive to benefit members of the local community and "Elf Letters" sent to elementary school children.

Chess Club

The Chess Club meets on every Monday and Wednesday at noon in the LRC. Students practice and improve their chess skills over the guidance of Ms. Valenta. During each semester, students participate in an open chess tournament. Right: Mike Thompson and Albert Telfeian clash; right, bottom: another library attraction is the Guest Speaker Program. Mr. Jim Coles III of the Stars and Stripes talks about journalism.

Bowling Club

The Bowling Club meets once a week for sanctioned bowling. At the end of the school year they participate in an area bowling tournament, competing with schools from Frankfurt, Bitburg, Hanau and the Kaiserslautern area. Pictured left is Darren Walls (top) and Kristine Chetelat (bottom).

German Club

The German Club meets nearly every day. They help out teachers who need something translated from German to English or vice-versa and have put on plays for the school and the PTSA.

Frau Schindler's first period class won top honors in the Student Council sponsored Christmas Bulletin Board Contest with a triple board complete with Santa and colored lights. Shown left to right, front are: Kevin Bender, Bruce Lyman, Jimmy Payne, Julie Keeling, Robin Falkenstein, Amy Ledbetter, Jane Stroebel, Heidi Mueller, Debra Walters, Tammy Slack, Barbara Connor, Denise Becker, Suzanne Sciora, Beverly Neel and Sandra Alpert; (back) Billy Shaw, Brian Harmon, James Cook, David Kennedy, Michelle Reed, Sharon Caviness, Tammy Giron, Eve Shonts and Frank Owens.

Creative Bulletin Boards Win Honors in Christmas Contest

Ms. Rowell's first period class came in second in the Christmas Bulletin Board Contest. Class members are: (seated, left to right) John Michael, Shannon Maloney, Colleen Carmen, Maria Murphy, Kirsten Thomas, and Tina Tatro; (second row) Robert Thibodeaux, Kevin Sharp, Mark Dinsmore, Larry Pennett, Harry Lockwood, Bev Barna, Nathalie Klaus, Stephanie Hledic, Dee Ann Tracy, Doug Cox, Albert Telfeian, Pam (PJ) Archer, K. K. Lemon, David Manos and Anita Douglas; (standing) Ms. Rowell, Don Bailey, Jackie Bornhoff, Mike Persinger and Chuck Trimpey.

The Sembach Student Council has had a busy schedule this year, with the sponsorship of dances, contests and bake sales, making them one of the most active organizations at SJHS.

Student Council

Dancin' On Dreams

Rocket Club

SUBJECT: Aerospace Club, Sembach JHS. DATA: The Aerospace (Rocket) Club meets five days a week at lunch, with official meetings on Tuesday and Thursday and the other days reserved for construction. Meetings include discussions, films and guest speakers covering all types of flight vehicles. Pictured above (left to right, front to back) are: Mario Colantonio, Glenn Comeaux and Ronnie Jones; Michelle Waylett, Pam Anderson, Mike Ellis, Vincent Gavin, Chris Tankauska, David Andrews, Joe Flynn, Gary Dietz, Patricia Magoon, Kevin Corrigan, Ted Deitz and Richard Combs; Billy Maples, Tony Cook, David Smith, Billy Shaw and sponsor Al Castle. CONCLUSION: The SJHS Club poses no threat to the Universe (or the Empire); suggest more publicity to let more earthlings know of the opportunities available.

Creative Writing Club

The Creative Writing Club meet every Monday and Thursday at noon. Members spend time discussing, analysing and writing poems and short stories. They are also mainly responsible for the school's newspaper the HI-LITES. Shown above (left to right, front to back) are: Karen Riggs, Lesley Willmeth, Denise Becker, Ms. Isringhaus, Tammie Crumley, Mary Calabro and Kim Corrigan; (back) Cheryl Bents, Cheryl Arbuckle, Cindy Ogden, Richard Rois, Xavier Vanderploeg.
