Tigers' Pride 1993

Tiger's Pride '93 Sembach Middle School

This book is dedicated to peacekeepers everywhere.

Ya gotta have...

the world can be a confusing place not amusing but abusing where people only race..

you don't have to go anywhere that's planned just arriving with a striving you don't even have to land

no one waits very long to ponder their fate it's abating what's awaiting will come at any rate

it's the future where we want to leave our mark make it brightly filled with riches please avoid the dark.

that's the stuff of which dreams are made having many lots of plenty until the real hand is played but one thing is enduring til the end of time the world makes a satisfying home...
earth....gotta love me!

love...

*your yearbook committee: Mr.
Bertschinger, Mr. Krauter, Billy
Kraft, Casey MacFarlane,
Christine Abrenica, Shilo
Monteagudo, Tina Thompson,
Robin Wisser, Seth
Fletcher...and the rest.*

Special thanks to Mrs. Fletcher.

Teen Creed submitted by Beverly Person

Don't let your parents down they brought you up.
Be humble enough to obey,
you may give orders some day.
Choose companions with care,
you become what they are.
guard your thoughts what you think is what you are Choose only a date
who would make a good mate
Be master of your habits or they will master you Don't be a show off when you drive drive with safety and arrive Don't let the crowd pressure you stand for something or you'll fall for anything

The Beach

By Mike Montegudo

The soft sand covers the isle catching a glimpse of the white whirs of clouds. The gentle blue waves softly splash against the shore. Washing away all the traces of humans. And as the palm trees silently sway in the wind they watch the animals in the sea play.

Fall

By Amber Brockney,
German Immersion

Fall is pretty,
chilly too.
To feel chilly winds,
to watch leaves fall,
down way from the trees.
Fall has many,
wonderful leaves,
with beautiful colors.
To watch animals get ready is a wonderful thing.
Squirrels,
patching nuts away for winter.
Rabbits,
looking for shelter.
The first snowflake, means a new winter wonderland on it's way....

Death By Amanda

Reinstatler, German
Immersion

There stands Death's door, ready to devour my soul.
Drained my soul out of my body.
And the sky turns black as coal.
You think about Post, and all the sadness and strife.
As you walk among the flowers, in the garden of your life.
You touch a rose's thorns,
you feel the forever lasting Pains, and even though your life is over,
your spirit will remain.

English Poem

A-English

By Bill Qualls,
German Immersion

Paper airplanes are cool,
I make them during school.
I like the way they glide
through the air,
But all my teachers couldn't care.
It messes up their crummy
class,
Now no one could possibly pass.
I hate this pitiful place, where I'm just a student, not an Ace.

By Timmy Bertschinger,
German Immersion

Tom was angry.
Tom was mad.
When he walked in the door
he hit his dad.
He ran to his room.

He hadn't gotten to talk to Ted about that Egyptian tomb.

Ted Bennett: I leave the class colors.
Kevin Burke: I leave the eighth graders to you seventh graders coming up so you can get into trouble with them.

Steven Clawson: I leave my homework for Eric to do .

Danyelle
Edwards: To Candice Triche I leave all of depressed moods so for a change I can be happy and you can be depressed.
Stay
smoov and cheerful.
Josh
Fandry:
My notes

from math ,I leave to Joe Romano, so he won't have to take so many .

Jennifer Fischer: I leave my flute to Ms. Morelli for helping me to play better.

Anthony Guisbert: I leave my chair,
my locker, and my pen to David Hardin.

Matt Herhusky: To all future eighth graders I leave the teachers cuz I'm through with them.

Sam Hinson: I leave everyone all the lunch food they want. I don't want it.

Shawn Holt: I leave to my eighth grade teachers the knowledge that they knew me before I became famous.

 Melissa Hopson: To Cathy Lusker I leave my wonderful personality (J/J). You tell them all off babes. To Renee Jimenez I leave my great locker. Use it well! To Tekea Simmons I leave all my teachers> HA HA, Study hard! Bye Bye and have a great year.
 Bobby Johnson : I leave my trombone
 Jeremy Johnson: I leave my lunch

tickets to anyone brave enough to use them.

Billy Kraft: To all of my teachers I leave the desks I used, because who wants to lug them around K-Town.
 Terrance Little: I give the nice eighth grade teachers to Candice Triche. Be nice to them Candy!!
 Faye Louder: To Sarah Herhusky I leave my bad language and witty charm.
 Heather Louder: I leave my locker and the school in the hands of you seventh graders. Take care of it ya'll.
 Jennifer Lusker: To all the future eighth graders, I leave the sorry school lunches and all of my good grades.
 Leiha Medders: I leave the teachers to my sister.

Sacora McNair: I leave my allergies to anyone that doesn't have them.
 Kirsten Miller: To the next eighth grade class I leave all the books and teachers you can handle ENJOY!
 Jennifer Mitchell: To Derrick M. I leave my locker. I won't be needing it anymore.

Jason Morales: I leave my locker to whoever wants to use it. I won't be here next year.

Tyler Pankonien: I leave my science chair to a lucky seventh grader.

Ryan Peck: I leave Shane all of my paper for all of Ms. Cahoon's writing assignments.

Beverly Person: I leave to Kathy Person and Kelly O'Conner my lucky listening skills because they will be needed in seventh grade.

Andrew Pfannes: To all the seventh grade students I leave my advice and wisdom.

Remember to listen to your elders, such as us, the eighth grade class. And, always give them what they want; because, if you don't, we'll be back for you.

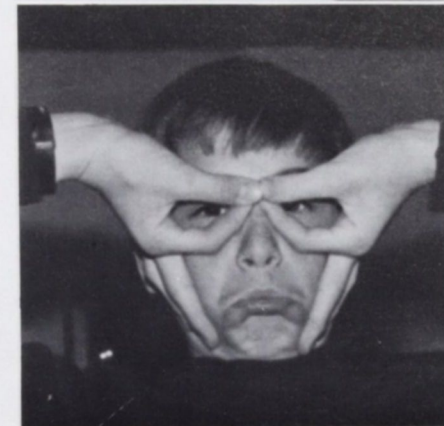

Danelle Preston: I leave all the teachers .

Kelly Reinstatler: I leave all my books, my locker, and my knowledge to Christine Abrenica because she is a great friend.

Kenny Roberts: To the future eighth graders my permission to steal "Dahl" pencils.

Sabrina Roemer: I leave my books to the teachers because they need them and I don't want them.

Bobby Ruesuello: I leave the

Some Special Advice

Susan Ahrendt: Don't make Mr. Ed mad, try to figure out Ms. Dahl, and don't tease Ms. Cahoon or Ms. Dahl about their height.

Lorenzo Belk: Stay in school and be cool!!! But remember me when you get a chance!!

Ted Bennett: Don't play around.

Kevin Burke: Chew your gum softly in class.

Danyelle Edwards: Get the teachers in a good mood. Study for Ms. Neisler's tests and a little for Mr. Edwards.

Do at least half of your homework to make it where we are going. C-Y'all.

Josh Fandry: Remember to be the teachers' nightmare.

Anthony Guisbert: You might think eighth grade is hard, but it's easy if you learn.

Sam Hinson: Don't eat the food.

Sherard Holt: Beg Ms. Cahoon to bring in baked goods every day. Don't tease

Ms. Dahl about her height. Don't wear any hair spray, perfume, etc.... into Ms. Neisler's class. Don't ask Mr. Edwards any questions.
 Melissa Hopson: Don't be loud in class, always study everything in Ms. Neisler's class because you never know what's in store for you. Listen and get good grades Bobby Johnson: Always bring three lunches: one for lunch, one for startime, and one for the bus.
 Jeremy Johnson: Don't eat lunch in history!!
 Sabrina Jones: Do your homework, don't lay behind, be serious, that's all folks. I like imitating my favorite pig!!
 Billy Kraft: Don't fall in love with people who leave in a week.

Terrance Little: Don't fight or get in trouble, it doesn't pay. If you want your teachers mad make them give you an A.
 Faye Louder: Don't let anyone walk all over you. {HINT HINT!!} Keep your head up and remember everyone's a critic. Don't sweat it babe!!

Heather Louder: Study hard and do your homework and have fun if you can.

Jennifer Lusker: Never change for anyone. Don't get into too much trouble. Stay cool like me, and worship Robin always!
 Rudy Martinez: Don't make Mr. Ed mad!

Kirsten Miller: Try your best at everything and never give up. Our teachers expect a lot, so be prepared. It's worth it.
 Jennifer Mitchell: Don't talk in History and don't chew gum.

Tyler Pankonien: Don't put things off til the last minute.

Kristin Parker: I don't have much to say becuz I crossed it all off.

Beverly Person: Listen, do, and don't argue with the teachers' way to do something. You'll get by just fine.

Andrew Pfannes: Remember us, the 8th grade class, because we are the greatest and always respect your teachers.

Bobby Pruneda: Don't be fat and lazy! Don't ask Mr. Edwards a question, because homework and remember the significant letters PCS. and PMS at SMS!!

Kenneth Roberts: Watch out when you flush the toilet.

John Stahl: Keep away from the stank food.

Carmen Steele: Act like ya know.

Dana Wilson: Listen closely, Ms. Neisler goes over every test question.

Cynthia Wiseman: Pay attention and work hard but still try to have fun.

Robin Wissner: Take a shower before you go into Ms. Neisler's so as not to bring in germs. Humor Mr. Edwards and he will like you all year, especially if you are a girl. ALWAYS do your homework in Ms. Dahl's so you don't fall behind, and, treat Ms. Cahoon like you would treat your mother. More power to you, class of '98! We're outa' here!

he'll give you the whole historical history.

Kelly Reinstatler: Watch out for the eighth grade teachers, they are a little wierd, have fun but do well, and work hard towards the Paris trip.
 Robert Resuello: Do

Hold these times forever close for they are a part of who you are.

Ya gotta have... love
to reach for your dreams.
