Band for two years has certainly been an...
INTERESTING experience. Just kidding, I've really enjoyed being in your classes, hope the feeling's mutual. Good luck in another (sigh) year, try to keep your hair in your head and your coffee mugs in one piece. Don't worry about me staying with my instruments, just look for letters in your mailbox and a recording with my name on it. I'll miss you a whole lot?

Thank 4 being a

Summer Olympics

The 1996 Summer Olympics took off with sparks and flames, lighting up the Atlanta stadium for more than eleven million spectators to witness. Dominique Moceanu, Keri Strugg, Dominique Dawes and a few more talented teenagers assisted the American women's team in achieving victory for the U.S. With an ankle sprain and a critical landing, Keri Strugg managed to place her team in first place. Another highlight for an American athlete was the vigorous Michael Johnson. He was raised in Dallas, Texas and wasn't interested much in sports. Although he placed first in track and field, that's not what he counted on! Tragedy struck when a forcible bomb shook up the bright spirits. Two people died and many innocent victims were injured. Even though evil lurked at the Summer Olympics, it did not prevail. Many nations remained united through sports and the Olympic spirit.

Macarena Madness!!!!

A dance and song duo called the Macarena (ma - ca - RAY - na) swept the world by surprise with its swaying of the hips and fancy footwork. Last summer, U.S. fans bought more than one million copies of the bubbly beat album. Many versions of the Macarena have been made, including some with Los Del Rio and the Bayside Boys. The Spanish version of the song was recorded by Los Del Rio and the English version with the Bayside Boys. There has even been a Christmas Macarena! What makes the Macarena so hot? Whatever it is, this song has the whole world on the dance floor!

Election '96

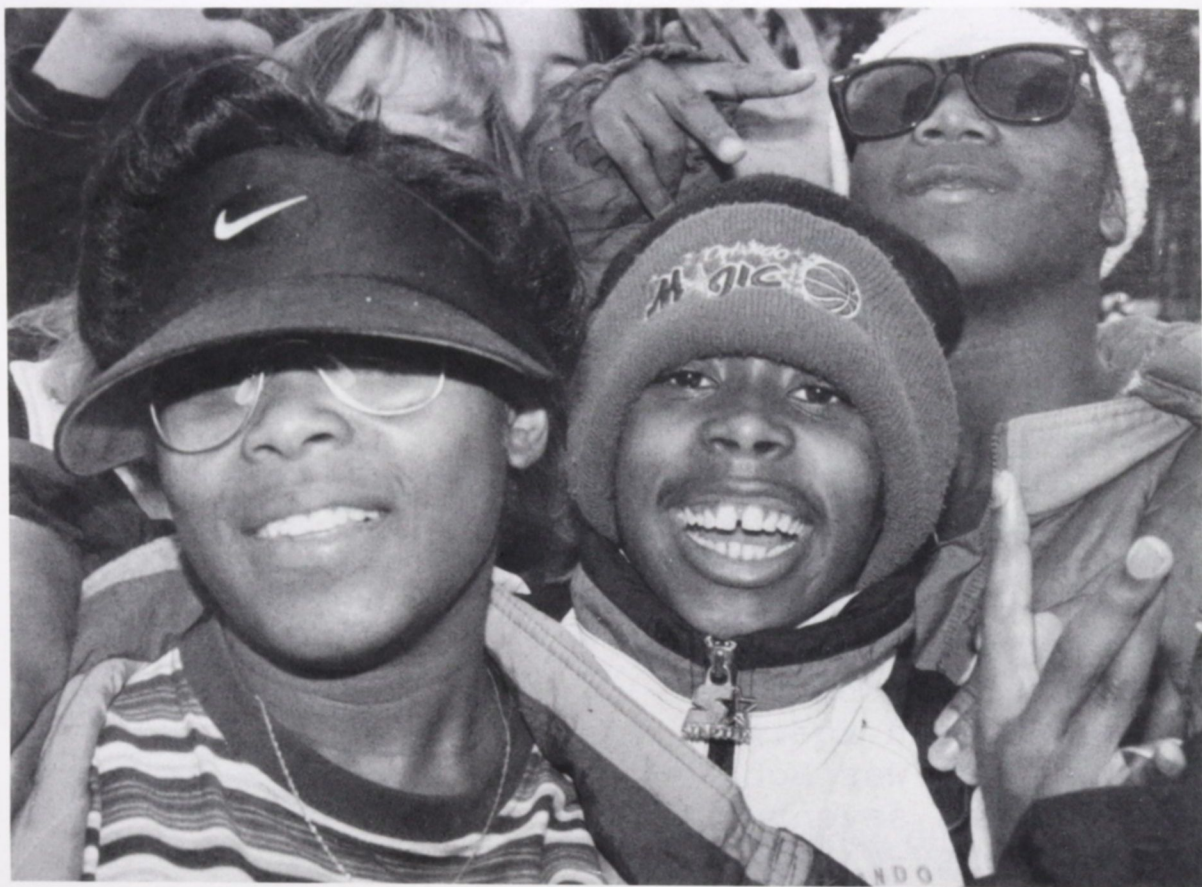

This fall Bill Clinton, Bob Dole, and Ross Perot ran for president. The previous leader of the United States of America, President Clinton decided to run again. His opponent was Bob Dole who was seventy-three--twenty-three years older than President Clinton. In November Americans elected the candidate they preferred to take charge. The results were announced November 5, 1996. Obviously, President William Jefferson Clinton won by the majority's vote and made headlines everywhere with, "FOUR MORE YEARS". Continuing to lead his country and his people, President Bill Clinton is making a difference.

Ennis Cosby's Death

One of the U.S.'s best known actors and comedians, Bill Cosby, had his life greatly interrupted on January 16, around 1 a.m. Ennis Cosby, Bill Cosby's twenty-seven-year-old and only son, was heading north to visit a female friend when he got a flat tire. Stopping to fix it, he called her with his cellular phone. She came to his rescue, her headlights aiding him in the dark night. A man with a gun tapped on the window and threatened to kill her. Terrified, she sped away only to return some minutes later, finding Ennis Cosby lying in a pool of blood with a bullet shot in his head. Police contacted his father at his studio where his show is taped and he rushed home to comfort his wife. The main thing Bill Cosby had on his mind after the funeral was throwing himself into his work and trying to focus on the happier things in life.

Our Thoughts

Friends

Forever

What are the most important things in your life? School? Sports? Money? How would things change without a best friend? Angel Guillory, a seventh grader said, "I have a numerous amount of best friends for different things." In agreement with Angel, Shannon McCray said, "I don't really have a best friend because all of my friends have different qualities and can be judged differently." Brenda Menjivar had something else to add, "I don't really have a best friend because I like all my friends the same." What's your say on the matter?

More Thoughts

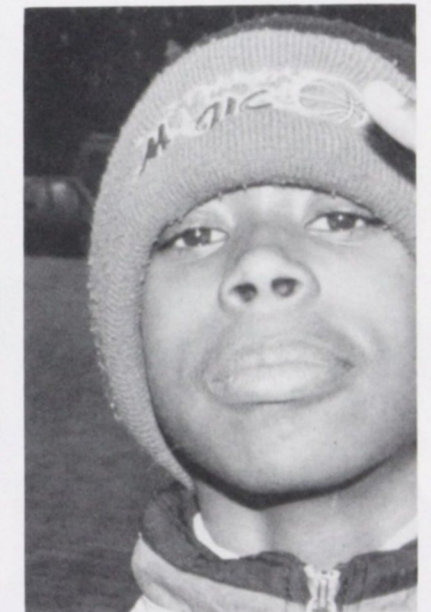

One Small Change

Students at Sembach Middle School were asked if they wanted to change anything about themselves and all of them seemed to have at least one thing; a smaller nose, less frizzy hair, getting in shape, or keeping quiet--where do you stand? Brenda Menjivar told a yearbook reporter, "I would like to change my hair." Chandra Jenkins, a seventh grader, said, "My nose and hair." Some people didn't want a self change; they gave responses such as Jack Catton, "I want more money!" Others said they didn't have much to change, "I would like to change nothing. I like the way I am," said Karen Cain. Jessie Corley said, "I agree with Karen, you should be happy with the way you are." Everyone is different and looks different; obviously distributing their answers on various places on a scale.

Curfew Control

Parental time limits are devastating! Here's some other students' opinions. Twelve-year-old Shannon McCray replied, "Me, personally, I feel my curfew is too early. Whenever I go out, I have to be back inside in three hours while my friends stay outside until 7:00 and later." Sherita Johnson, a seventh grader told a yearbook reporter, "I think curfew should be raised because I don't get to stay out long enough." Another student, Jessie Corley, had similar feelings with Sherita, "I also feel that curfew should be raised. I'm always in before my friends." How flexible are your parents?

Tigers Through Time

Ms. Morelli,

Hey! Well - I've had the best two years with you inband & in English! You have taught me a lot and now I love music, thanks to you! You're a very special teacher & will always have a special place in my heart. We'll need to keep in touch especially when I move.

Take Care and have a great summer.

Love,
Jaska Dombirski

Ms. Morelli,

I guess I'm not a musical person, and it's a real bummer, because I missed having the best teacher! I enjoyed your ^{bright} personality. You always seem to come up to me and throw me a sweet "hello" at the perfect time. I appreciate your teaching, and I know you have touched the hearts of many! Who knows, maybe one day someone will do something for you like what happened to Mr. Opos! Love, God Bless! ♡
Cara

Ms. Morelli,

Sup? Now, I guess it is good bye. I will really miss you when I move. You have taught me all about music and ~~now~~ now music is a big part of my life. I have had a wonderful 4 years with you! I really miss the choir class we had last year. We did real good now I can get up on stage and do almost anything without being scared, because nothing is more embarrassing than playing a wrong note or say the wrong words. You are a great teacher and you will always be in my heart. At my next school I won't listen to how he taught me to play, I will remember how you taught me. I love you like a teacher, all ways mile and don't

Love,

Randi

Ms. Morelli,

I have to say I truly love you! Your spark and personality really inspired me! You've taught me so much! You taught me to play the clarinet. Although we've had trouble times. You're my favorite teacher.

When I first came here, I had a attitude and now you really straightened me out. Maybe one day everyone you have made a special, unique person out of, will come BACK! I can't describe how much you have done for me.
Well, I'll leave space for more people,

Pig Out Palace

We all experience stress and frustration. What "pig out" foods do you eat during this time? "I eat mostly chocolate when I'm down to get some energy back in me," says Lovell Davis. Chad Rosalez simply said his favorite "pig out" food is "chocolate". "I eat those Iced Animal cookies, man, they're 'da bomb'," said seventh grader Jack Catton. Although food may be the tastiest way out of stress, it may not be the healthiest!

Eat! Eat! Eat!
