Doing BIG Things...
For Little People.
Principal Sonny Bertsinger

Little Tales

It was a great year!
As I think back, I hope you remember all the fun and interesting things we did together. From our Orientation Picnic to our Back to School Bash to the 1st grade plays and our Literacy Nights to our Olympic themed Field Day, we learned together. Cherish your memories and cherish your families as we cherish you!
Mr. B.

Extra Curricular Activities

The best way to enhance a students education is to put a little fun into it. This year our children were able to participate in several activities such as Science Club, Musical Monday's, Math Lab, Math Night, Art Club and best of all they celebrated Dr. Seuss' Birthday.

MUSICAL MONDAY

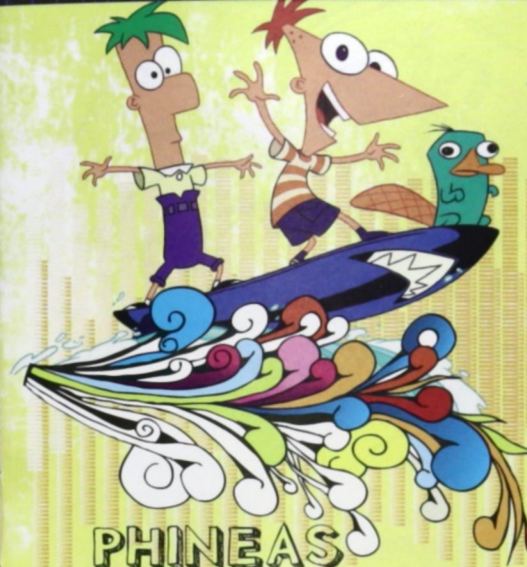

National Read Across America

Students of Sembach Elementary School celebrated Dr. Seuss' Birthday and National Read Across America in style! How many "Cat in the Hat" hats do you see? Can you count them? Ready? Set! One, two three!

Science Club

PHINEAS AND FERB

The popular American animated television comedy series focused on two boys and their projects, which annoyed their controlling sister. The series is also known for its musical numbers and has become popular with adults.

HUNGER GAMES

The first book of Suzanne Collins The Hunger Games trilogy has been number one on several best seller lists in 2011, including Amazon and USA Today. The movie is set to be released in March 2012.

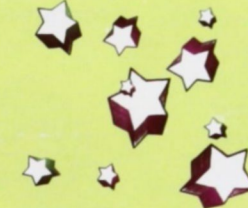

SCOTTY

Scotty McCreery won the 10th season of American Idol on May 25. His debut studio album, Clear as Day, was released in October. McCreery sang the national anthem before Game 1 of the World Series.

YEAR IN REVIEW

Wizards of Waverly Place became the longest - running Disney Channel original series, and also had the most episodes. In November Disney announced the series would end in January 2012.

A devastating EF-5 tornado tore through Joplin, Missouri, May 22 leaving 160 casualties, making it the deadliest single tornado in nearly 60 years. There were 1,151 tornadoes reported in the U.S. in May - more than double the number for the same period in 2010.

Harry Potter And The Deathly Hallows: Part 2 starred Daniel Radcliffe, Rupert Grint and Emma Watson. The eighth and final installment of this film series was released in July and was the highest grossing movie of the year.

Found on all major gaming platforms, this third release in the multimillion dollar Just Dance series allows users to dance to over 40 tracks. Released in October, the game sold over 700,000 copies on Black Friday. This is 48% higher than Just Dance 2.

Pixar released the 3D animated movie Cars 2 on June 24. Lightning McQueen (voiced by Owen Wilson) and Mater (voiced by Larry the Cable Guy) helped the film earn over $550 million worldwide at the box office.

The television series Modern Family won Emmy Awards for Outstanding Comedy Series and Outstanding Supporting Actor and Actress in a Comedy Series.

Transformers 3: Dark of the Moon was one of the most popular movies of the year. This sci-fi action film was based on the popular 1980s toy line. Director Michael Bay used high-tech computer animation to bring the alien robots to life in this summer release.

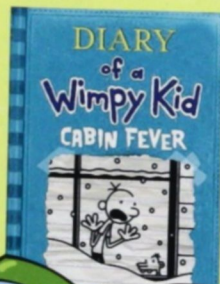

The Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn - Part 1, starring Kristen Stewart, Robert Pattinson and Taylor Lautner was released on Nov. 18. This was the fourth movie in this series and was directed by Bill Condon.

 Taylor Swift
 Nicki Minaj

Canadian pop/R&B singer Justin Bieber released the film Never Say Never, a 3-D part-biopic, part-concert film which had an opening weekend that nearly matched the record for the biggest opening weekend for a concert-film.

WIMPIDY

The highly anticipated sequel, Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Rodrick Rules, was released in March. Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Cabin Fever, the sixth book of the series, was released in November and has been a best seller among children and teenagers.

ADELE

BRUNO MARS

Adele released her second album, 21, in early 2011. She is the first living artist to achieve the feat of two top-five hits in both the UK Official Singles Chart and the Official Albums Chart simultaneously since the Beatles in 1964. Bruno Mars won a Grammy in February for Just the Way You Are in the Best Male Pop Vocal category. He also scored the lead single (It Will Rain) for the latest Twilight movie.

year in tech

With the release this year of the Kindle Fire and Nook Tablet, e-Readers continue to gain popularity.

Holding a 49 percent share of the overall current-generation console market, Xbox 360 sold 1.7 million units in November, maintaining the number-one console spot in the U.S. for 2011.

NOOK

After almost nine years, the war in Iraq came to an official end Dec. 15. In October, President Obama announced that all troops would be out of Iraq by the end of 2011.

WILLIAM AND KATE

An estimated two billion people around the world witnessed Britain's royal wedding of Prince William to Kate Middleton on April 29.

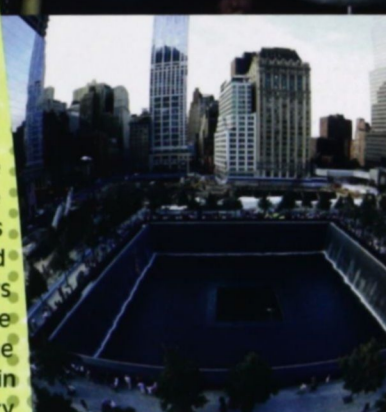

Steve Jobs, the mastermind behind Apple's iPhone, iPad, iPod, iMac and iTunes, died Oct. 5 at age 56 from pancreatic cancer. Days before his death the iPhone 4S was released for purchase, featuring an "intelligent assistant" called Siri.

One year after suffering from a gunshot wound to the head during a meeting with constituents in Tucson, AZ, in January, Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords is well on her way down the long road of recovery. In August she surprised the House by walking onto the floor for a vote.

America marked the 10th anniversary of the September 11 attacks with a day of tributes and memorials. Family members of the victims visited the memorial fountains at the new 9/11 Memorial Plaza in New York City.

On May 2 members of the elite U.S. military unit SEAL Team 6 performed a daring nighttime raid in Pakistan, killing Osama bin Laden, the leader of the terrorist group responsible for the 9/11 attacks.

Fukushima 50 is the name given to the 200 workers who volunteered to stay behind at the Fukushima nuclear plants after the crippling earthquake and tsunami hit Japan in March. Their heroic mission was to prevent the plants from melting down while others were sent miles away to safety.

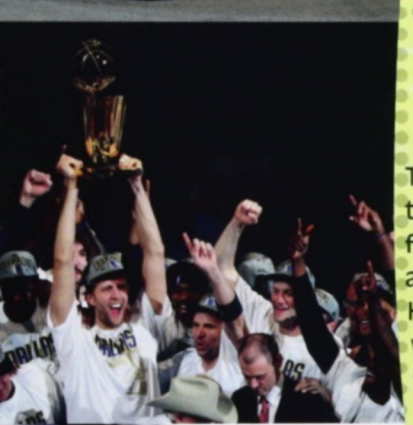

St. Louis Cardinals Jason Motte (L) was jumped on by catcher Yadier Molina as the Cardinals celebrated winning game 7 of the World Series at Busch Stadium on Oct. 28 in St. Louis. The Cardinals are world champions after defeating the Rangers 6-2.

Tony Stewart won the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series Ford 400 Nov. 20 at Homestead-Miami Speedway in Homestead, Fla., by the closest margin ever over runner up Carl Edwards. It was his third series championship.

The Dallas Mavericks won their first NBA title in franchise history in June after beating the Miami Heat 105-95. The Mavericks won four of the series' last five games to claim the championship.

The LA Galaxy, featuring David Beckham, defeated the Houston Dynamo 1-0 to win the 2011 MLS Cup on Nov. 20.
