LAST BUT STILL THE BEST

JHSCA officers: Jiovanna Bruce (7), Christine Rini (7), Claudia Clabo (8), and Jamie Byun (8).

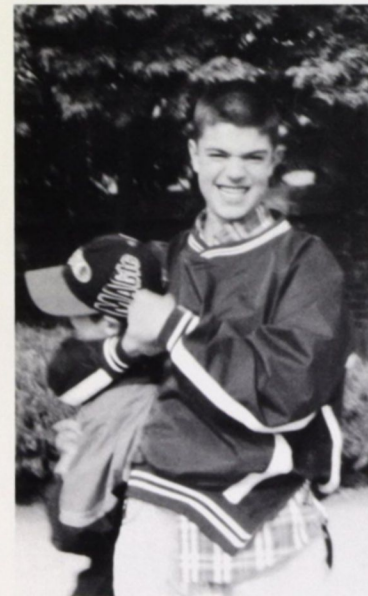

Smile! Keyuna Jackson, Alecia Clark, and Yvonne Stringfellow (9) do not hesitate to show some teeth.

The 8th grade boys take a break from their delicious and "healthy" lunch to look at the beautiful girl behind the camera.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

I didn't do it because...

- I left my project at home
- My computer broke
- My locker is jammed
- I couldn't get to my locker
- My computer erased my essay
- It's in my locker
- I forgot
- You never said we had homework!
- My parents went on TDY so I couldn't get it signed.

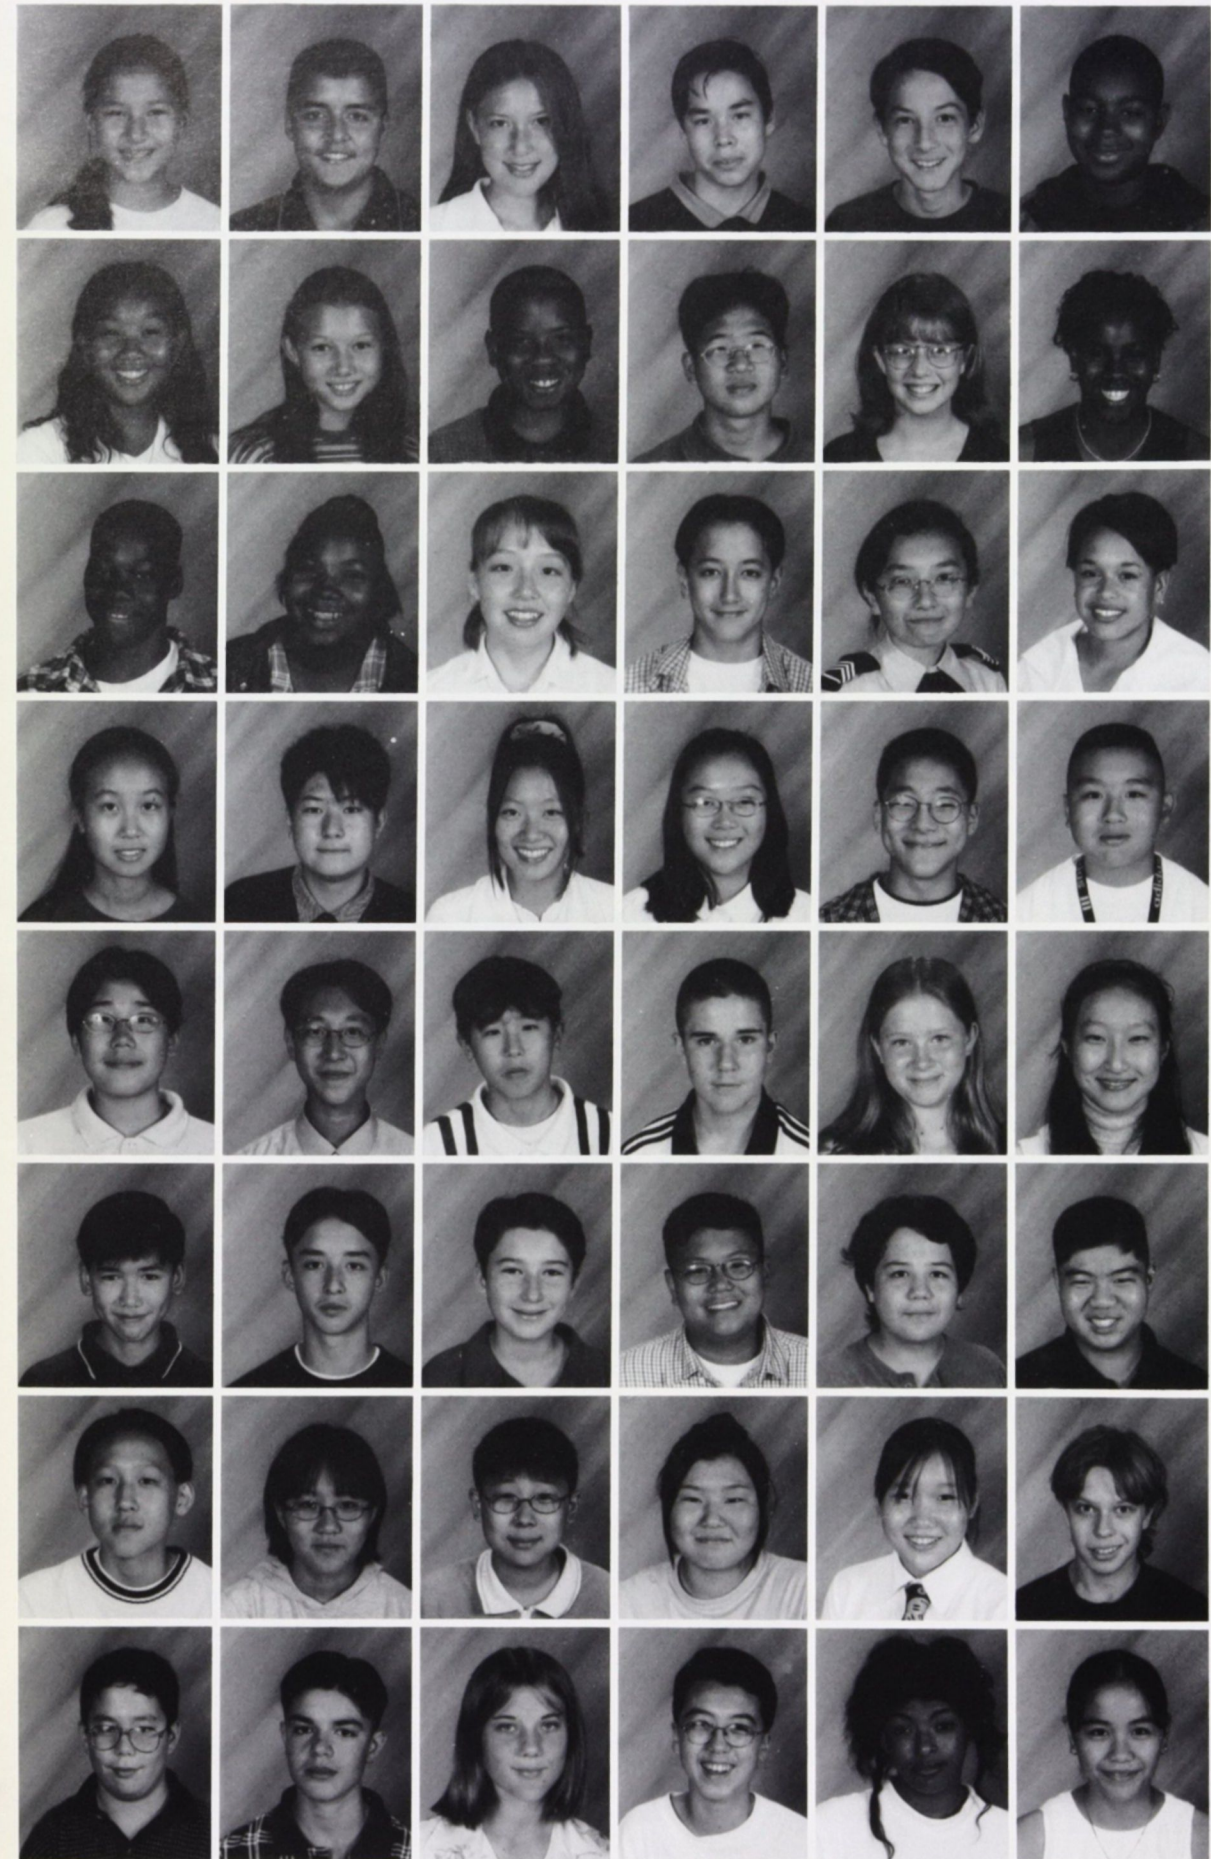

I was late because...

- (In the beginning of the year) I couldn't find my classes
- I thought it was an A/B day
- I slept in
- My class was in the huts
- The teacher let me out late
- I was in the bathroom
- The bus was late
- I got into a fight
- Your clocks are too fast

A Night of Romance...

Love was in the air at the middle school Valentine's dance. Everyone was excited as they danced the night away. With cool contests and fun prizes, the students had a blast.

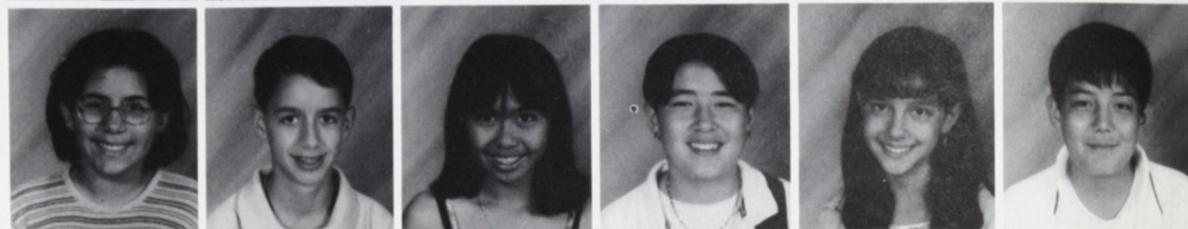

During the dance there was a limbo and pie-eating contest. The limbo contest was competitive as the 7th and 8th graders almost broke their backs trying to win. In the pie-eating contest, four middle-schoolers dug their way through a pie to find the candy. The Valentine's dance was a huge success and it provided the middle-schoolers with a night of fun and romance.

Memories...

- When it rained so much that we came back all wet from Ms. Helm's field trip.
- Mr. Paulson in S.S. class.
- When Kimberly ALWAYS cried.
- When Walter always tried to act like a homie.
- Leo and his bright yellow
- Harold Oertwig and his "Jay Leno" chin
- Mr. Harden and his "No pain, no gain." And "Oh yeah," "Shoot...Bang!"
- Ms. Helm and the "slanting."
- When Gwen Cox tripped at the Renaissance assembly.
- Ms. Bull and her Anne Frank theory.

Dr. Pepper in hand, Shannon Hall (8) and Debbie Ismay (7) take time to pose before their after-noon class.

During the bubble gum competition in the pep rally, the 7th & 8th graders display their pride.

Between classes, a group of 8th grade girls try to escape from the hardships of school.

MAKE THE BEST OF THE LAST

To the 7th and 8th graders,

Your childhood is almost over, make the best of it. You're between high school and elementary, and you feel ignored, you feel unacknowledged, you feel like you're in the middle. You got a great past behind you, a fantastic future facing you. But the middle, the present, is best. Don't be in a hurry to grow up,. Don't hesitate to step away from your childhood. You're a young teenager; you've got the best of both worlds. so make the best of the last of your childhood.

From someone who's been there
