Diapers 2 Diploma

Are we having fun yet?

The big "1".

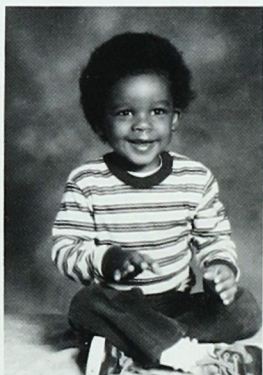

I'm loaded.

Where's the beach?

My very first Harley.

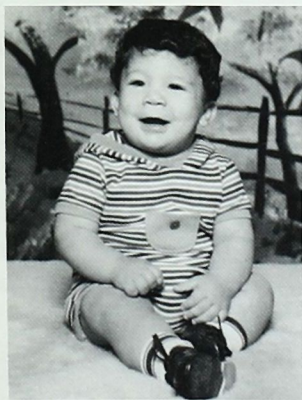

Let me tell you what happened!

Ugghh! My feet hurt!

That's funny.

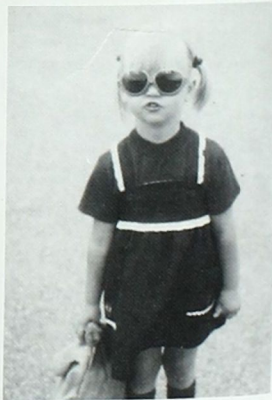

Say cheese.

Say what?

Look, Mom, no cavities!

Hollywood, or bust!

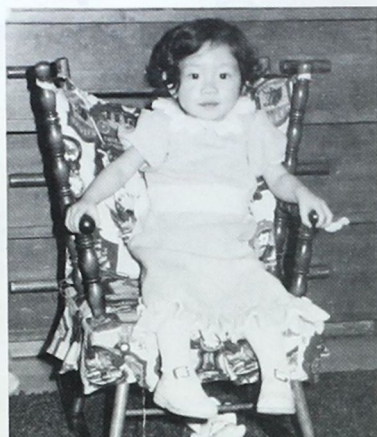

I'm a wild thing.

Blondes have more fun.

Ready and waiting.

I know I'm cute!

I want my mommy!

Three generations.

Let's get this over with.

Touchdown!

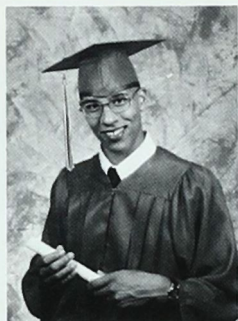

ZZZZZZ

I'm not a basket case.

DUES PAID
MADE the GRADE
I'M GONE

Senior Wills

I, George Allen, leave Brian Watson the memories of how I played #1, #2, #3, #4, #5, etc. (Oh, don't forget sports trip #1, #2, and so on!) I also leave you the ability to carry on the tradition (you don't have to play messenger anymore!) To all the seniors who are cool: (ya'll know who I'm talking to) OUR CLASS WAS THE BOMB!! Ladies: try and get on with your lives. And to the people who know I have mad flow: here's one more rap:

Peace out Sigonella, I've gotta leave this town, Much respect to all the homies and the ladies that were down, I hope you'll remember all the times that we've had, And keep them close to heart, both the good and the bad. We've got to keep moving-only sometimes look back, Keep our mind on the future, and not where we were at, We've got to make the most that we can of our life, We've got to keep our heads up in good times and in strife. As we pick a branch of the road to our future, Each picking the road that you think might suit ya, We hope the future's pleasant, we hope the future is boomin', So we can tell each other at the first class reunion. Exposed to the "real world", right after graduation, It'll be like twelve years of school was only a vacation, Just like a famous legend told to me, About going out and finding a j-o-b. Bills, taxes, responsibilities, Couches, beds, sofas, and of course TVs, Throughout all of this it might seem like you're alone, But you can't forget the people who are there for you at home, You also can't forget where you graduated at, Stephen Decatur School, home of the famous cat. Jaguars: the name that we cheered at the games, We're #1, Jaguars can't be tamed, The seniors left a chunk, we've all played a part, Always and forever we will be in their hearts. And for the underclassmen-no doubt, no qualms, That THE Class of '96 was the straight up bomb!

I, Daniel Colee, of functional mind and able body do hereby bequeath the following. To DJ, I leave all our memories, my extensive music collection, and my most attractive award. To Zack, I leave my friendship and my Lemonheads CDs. I leave my guitar, distortion pedals, job, and memories to Steve. To James, I leave my facial hair. To Chris I leave my brain and not-so-violent personality. To Mandy, I leave all my love. To Chris and Steve, I leave the punctuality and memories of the "0720" crew. To anyone else not specifically mentioned (I didn't forget, but I just can't take up ten pages), I leave my memory and anything else you might want that's left over. Last, but not least, I leave to my mom, dad, and brother my love.

I, Alicia Elaine Steele, do hereby bequeath the following to my friends and family. To my brother, Joseph Steele, I leave my outspokenness and all my love! To Mary Lynn Ballard, I leave good advice and a kiss on the cheek. To Christopher M. Dindo, I leave my little brother for him to watch over. To Cheryl Johnson, I leave all my papers to be typed and best wishes for the future. To Mary Pannell, I leave best wishes and ... Nathan Vickers! To my "girlie girl" Summer, I leave my love. To Jasmine Coulter, I leave lots of luck at PSU. Be good. Najah Kai Jackson, stay sweet as always. Ha-ha! Heather Pratt, stay sane (at least try) and good luck with whatever you choose to do. Jessica Stevenson, stay true to yourself. And to the rest of the class of '96, good luck and best wishes. I'll miss you all! Stevie, I'll never forget you! Take care. Last but not least, Pauly ... all I can say is "NO!" and you're a cutie.

I, Star Fransisco, do hereby leave the following to friends and family. To my brother, James (Gianluca), I leave my artistic talent in school and all my chores! To Erica Ritter, I leave my thoughts and love. Girl, I wish you well. To Mike Coulter, I leave all the crazy times in chorus. To Mia Evans, I leave lots of my best wishes. You're a great friend. To Mrs. Evans, I leave you all my tears of joy and pain. Thanks for being there through all the good and bad times. To Mrs. Furgiuele, I leave the wish that all your problems could change. You are one terrific teacher and a great person. I really enjoyed your class and I will never forget you. I still believe "ain't" is a word. Thank you. To all those I missed, I wish you the best of luck. Ciao tutti. Ci vediamo!

I, Chad Hurt, will to all who exist the right to be yourself, to live your life as you see fit, to become the echo of your inner self. Like the echo itself, you may remain for some time, but you will eventually fade to nothing. The records have already been set. The greatest man in the world remains for very little time on its own accord in the minds of all who exist. There will come a time when all who exist doesn't include you. After this time comes, your existence will mean very little to very many. So live your life for yourself. After all, it's your life.

I, Charissa May Coralde, with content mind and petite body do hereby bequeath the following. To my loving, supporting, sometimes irritating mother and father, I leave my love, my appreciation for everything you have given me, and my dirty laundry. Again, thank you for always being there when I needed to talk, to ask advice, and to be given hope. I love you Mom and dad! Don't forget to do that laundry! To my sister, Summer, I leave my old clothes, my shoes, and whatever else I don't want! I will always love you no matter what! I also leave you my stubbornness to carry on with Mom and Dad. To my brother, Philip Jordan, I leave nothing because he is too young to read. Remember I love you because you are my little brother. Be good to Mom, Dad, and especially Summer. To Cecille, my friend, I leave my Keroppi doll only if I die! I also leave my love, thanks, friendship, and makeup. Thank you for all the advice about the boys. To Ellaine, my sister, I leave my word "Darn" and all the other words you want that are mine. Take care and remember you are my sister. To Ms. Wallenberg, I leave my wonderful, homemade, delicious Rice Krispie bars. Thanks for your help in Calculus, your patience, your goodness, and advice about JoJo. I love you Ms. Walley! To John-Paul, I leave my love, friendship, and thanks for being there. I love you my brother. To my dearest JoJo, I leave my trust, happiness, love, and stubbornness. Thanks for putting up with me. I told you I was a handful. I will always care for you. Remember, don't be too loud ... shhh ... shhh. To the Jaguar Wrestling team, I leave my sweat and my wrestling combos. To Stacy, I leave the flower dress you always borrowed during volleyball season. I love you my friend. Last, to the senior class of 1996, I leave my thanks and my wishes to you all as you take your first step into the real world.

I, Galen Crawford, leave to the senior class the best for all upcoming years. I want to say to Mike Stroy, "What's up, kid?" You of all people know you need luck, so keep in touch, dog. To Cel, I thank you for being there when all went bad and for being there when I needed you. Always keep my secret within your soul. Daisey, I will never forget you and Cel. You helped me realize a major default in a person. Brian, our #1 class clown, I have to wonder if you'll still be crazy 10 years from now. George, it was nice playing sports with you. Najah, I'll miss you. How long do you plan on trying to be the class mother. To Mia, Kelly, Jerome, and all the juniors it's your turn. Make 1997 the best it can be.

I, Alison Tschaekofske, being of weird self and constantly misspelled last name do hereby leave the following. To my best friend, Chadwick, I leave my thanks for being there in many times of need, my memories of our lunches (fries in the wind ...) and the title, King of the Philosophical Bumper Stickers. To my friend, Amber, I leave the rest of our quota to fill, mine and Chadwick's old lockers (may it never grow messy) and Scout. Good luck with him. To my Normal Boy, I leave my jacket. You look better in it than I do. I also leave my thoughts, dreams, and a jar full of Halloween M&Ms. To Travii, I leave all the stick people I can draw. Use them to write captions. Kim, I would have left Marco to you, but he's a senior. To the rest of the gang, I leave flowers and coloring books to distribute at the airport after I leave.

I, Jasmine Coulter, do hereby leave the following things behind in remembrance of me as I leave Stephen Decatur School for the college of my choice. To my family, I leave my brain, because I haven't found a use for it yet. To my younger brother, Mike, I leave all the change on my floor so he can continue his career as a lost funds retriever. To Mrs. Furgiuele, I leave my pencils which I use to do all my writings. To the choir, I leave my voice. May you use it to express yourself through music. To Mr. Caro, I leave my guard whistle. It's really loud and gets everyone's attention. Last, but not least, I leave my respect to the students attending SDS. Living in this closed society takes strength.

I, Jessica Stevenson, do hereby leave the following. To Carrie Kerr, I leave the Little Italy Player's and our beloved Allen Sanders. To my sister, Anita, I leave my best wishes in her life. Always remember to be yourself and try your hardest in all that you do. Then you will truly be the best in what you do. To Brian Watson, I leave the scars of my heart and hope one day he can forgive me. To Heather Pratt, I leave my address and the knowledge that I will always be there for her, no matter where the Air Force takes me. I also leave her my favorite handcuffs. Use them wisely. To Nick, I leave my trusty leather. Treat it well. To Alison T., I leave all the colorful markers in the world. Have fun! To Chad, I leave a broom for his janitor job at Harvard. Do well my friend. To my parents, I leave a happy and quiet life to live. I also leave my love and thanks for being there when I needed you. To the rest of my classmates at Stephen Decatur School I leave nothing except good luck.

I, Kelly Lander, will the following to friends and family. To all the future heavyweight wrestlers, I leave all my extra weight. To all future NJROTC cadets I leave the ability to march in step. To Philip R., I leave my scuba experience. To the office, I leave the ability to run smoothly without me. To Hillary, I leave the combination to Philip's locker. To my sister, Shana, I leave the ability to stay out of trouble. To Emily, I leave a house in Mississippi. To Emily and Kelly, I leave the ability to beat Brian and me in a game of Livorno basketball. To all future scuba divers, I leave the fun Chris, Greg, and I have on dives. To Paul, I leave the ability to do Algebra II. I thank Chris D. for being my friend when I needed one. Most of all, I leave my thanks to my family for the love and support that got me through these long hard years. I will the ability to succeed to anybody who is willing to reach out and grab it.

I, Najah Jackson, hereby bequeath the following to friends and family. To the class of '97, I leave my hope that your senior year goes as quick as mine. I also leave my work from English 12 and Government. Sike! To Gene, I leave my locker since you seem to have taken it over anyway. To Jerome and Mike, I leave my love and friendship. We've been good friends on this forgotten island for the last three years. I'll never forget you! To Galen, Pretty Boy Chief, I'll never forget you either. To Alonzo and David, you are the little brothers I never had. I'll miss you much. Alonzo, I will you a quarter, so you can call me when you get older! To Bridgette, Huanani, and Tiffany I leave all the candy that I buy. I'll send you some good looking guys from stateside to get you through the pressures of Sig! To Erika, even though you messed up a good friendship, "dat's" all right. USB! You know what it means. To Mia, I leave the question, "How long will it take you to realize who you are?" To Alicia and Summer, I leave giggle control pills. To Steve, I leave a good swift kick to the forehead. Love ya! To Mike, Gene, and Akim, I leave CC coupons. Let's do it again before I leave Sig! To all my friends left unmentioned, I'll miss ya much. I have a message for others: Always be a leader and not a follower. Take care of your own business!" To the class of '96, we're finally out of here! To all my teachers, thanks for the education!

I, Heather Pratt, will the following to friends and students of SDS. To the student body of Stephen Decatur School, old and new, I leave my advice. May you all learn to control your tongues and stand firmly in that which you deem worthwhile. May you seek your own dreams and not become a member of the cloned society. Personal identity and security are the most important aspects of any one being and separate us from the norm. Learn to keep friendships and build a trusting atmosphere among your peers. I also leave an apology to anyone I may have hurt with words or gossip. To Jessica, I leave you nothing other than memories and a promise that our paths will continue to cross. George, I leave you Wendy's and forgotten good times shared. Brian, I leave you an unsaid goodbye to a friendship greatly missed. Najah, I leave you nails! Daniel, I'll miss and remember you. Kimberly, I leave you a lot of love and a huge thanks for being there. I also leave you a phone number, so we don't miss out on each other's daydreams. Nick, I leave you my dog. May his looks continue to amuse you. Jeremy, I leave you whatever woods you can find and hope you accomplish all that you wish to achieve. Alicia, I leave you a smile and laugh for all the fun we had and an address to keep in touch.

I, Brian J. Watson, do hereby bequeath the following to my friends. To Heather Pratt, I leave our good friendship. To my brother, Craig, I leave one last beat-down. To George Allen, I leave the memories of all the good times we've had. I also leave the manager keys to our homeboy shopping network. To James Beauchamp, I leave the mightiest of all dunks, the 360, reverse, double, pump, white by dunk. To the rest of the senior class, I leave all the times I made you laugh. I leave one of my favorite sayings to make people laugh ... "No, I don't want to see naked pictures of your father!"

I, Cecille C. Cornejo, being of sound mind (?) and no body hereby bequeath the following. To my loving but strict parents, I leave my love, thanks, my stubborn ways and attitude to get through this next year. To my dearest best friend, Charissa, I leave all my love, my thanks for everything, happiness, our camera moments, and my stuffed animals. To my love, Danny, I leave all my unending love. From you I learned the meaning of love. To my dear Cindy, Kelly, Stacy, Mia, Erica, Mary, Najah, and all my girls, I leave my love, my thanks for being here, and my hope that you will succeed in what you choose to become. To Cindy, I also leave my CD player so you can return Danny's. To my anak, JoJo, I leave all my happiness, thanks, and our conversations in fourth. To Galen, George, Brian W., Philip R., Nathan V., James B., John C., and all my boys, I leave all my advice for girl problems and my thanks for being here. To the seniors of '96, I leave all my hope and our moments in Government class.

I, Steve Ballard, leave the following. To my little sister, I leave the ability to get in good with the teachers so you can skip school whenever you want and not have top worry about getting in trouble. To all the underclassmen, I leave all the teachers that were a pain. To Daniel, I leave my guitar and amps. To Paul, I leave many more good times. To Chris Dindo, my very best friend, I leave all my love and all my clothes, especially my boxers. You can have everything in my room. Hopefully Chris and I will die together since we've done just about everything else together (11/9/95). I love Chris Dindo like a brother and no, we're not gay!!! I leave Cheryl a bottle of stain stick for whatever reasons. To Summer, I leave batteries for her portable phone. To Jerome, I leave the responsibility of keeping everybody out of fights. To Chris and D.J., I leave all my jokes. Last, but not least I leave to Alicia all the good times and memories. I leave her all my money so she can pay for her phone bills.

I, Stacy Lyn Vasiljevich, bequeath the following to my friends and family. I leave my parents with my love and appreciation for always being there for me. I leave 10 more years of school, all my old toys, and my love to my brother, Ben. Cel and Sasa, my friends forever, I leave y'all my never ending friendship and good memories. Cindy, I leave you my late reactions and the secret. Shh-hhh! I luv ya, girl. To Mia I leave all those swope-a-dope-dope sayings like "Boooo!" and "That's low budget!" Erica, go on with you' froggystyle. I leave you all my little stuffed animals. To Philip R. I leave all the fried lumpia he can eat. I leave a happy life together to Brian W. and G.A. I leave all the closets in the school to Galen and Kelly. I leave a plane ticket back to the States for my hula girl, Emily. Yasmin, mi amiga, stay sweet. Cheryl, roll your body! John C., you're my homeboy!!!! David, you can do what you want to, in Livin' Color! Josh B., mi casa es tu casa. And to the rest of the underclassmen, remember the class of '96 rules!

I, Joshua Clayton Marr, being of sound mind and body bequeath the following to friends and family. To my parents, I leave my everlasting thanks for raising me to the best of their ability. To my little sister, I leave my unrelenting ability to talk our parents into doing just about anything. To my good friend, Christopher Dindo, I leave the faucets in all the bathrooms. To my close friend, Jeremy Adams, I pass on the Government Report Tradition that was handed down to me by a senior from a past year. To my good friend, Shana Landers, I leave my ability to look innocent while being very guilty. And to all those not mentioned I leave any memories we might have shared.

I, Paul Williams, hereby leave in this senior will the House, the Hut, and the Hill and all of my toys to my bro, Chris Dindo. To Steve Ballard, I leave Chris and all of the toys I gave to Chris. I also leave Steve and Chris my purple monkey keys. To my little sisters, Tiffany, Adina, and Monique, I leave my love and best wishes. I also leave them Mom and Dad to take care of while I'm away at college. To Alicia Steele, I leave my hope that our friendship can last forever no matter what happens between us. I also hope for the best for you in college and life. I leave Gene R. the Super Mario and a $2 Bic razor. I leave David Taylor some extensions. I leave George Allen some toilet tissue.

GOOD, CLEAN FUN!

The Stephen Decatur Yearbook staff would like to thank the PTSA
for its support!
