REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Dedication

It is the spring of 1988, and you the world may still have finished their twelfth year of formal education and will be stepping out to commence the life they have chosen to lead. They will have completed preparation for their journey along the coast of life, and they may, for a moment, stop to reflect upon their high school years. They may then realize that they would never have reached this landmark if it had not been for the men and women who have devoted themselves to sharing the knowledge they have gained with their students. We all each student, as he one day receives his high school diploma, to stop for a moment and think: "Would I be here if my teachers had not been there to guide me, to teach me, to help me through my school years?"

We are ending our high school years, but our journey is far from over. For the rest of our lives, we shall remember our schools, our teachers, and realize as we travel the road of life that we were lucky to have had the teachers who prepared us.

We, the class of '88 dedicate our yearbooks, our book of memories, to this faculty.

Elmer,
Keep your cross with
you - it comes in handy.
Also don't give up and you do too well in it.

BILLIE M. AUGHTON

Dancing, crocheting, singing, making, in one word, "funny." Jokes-keeping for the sake of fun.

EDNA M. RACY

Clear things come in small packages.

MICHAEL S. NISLEY

It is the nature of a great mind to be calm and undisturbed.

NORWOOD S. RADER

Quiet guy who knows his own path. Not very social in what he believes in.

DAVID G. HESTON

A man's greatest test is his piece of string.

TIMOTHY W. BLAWIE

A man will his swinging doors come to justice. This will not any getty.

DAVID L. CAHNEY

A little counted by the way,
I still see to give the day.

EMMA K. CHURCH

Sitting I sometimes want to concentrate over the back of looking at the good side of things.

FRED A. COMI

Every year is a unique opportunity.

JOHN G. CHITT

He knows better, but still again, life's a struggle with him but always to win it.

JAMES W. MATTILO

Laughter and fun in a quiet way. (The student struggle to be strong way.)

MARY ELLEN G. DETTIS

It may be hard to be important but you do want to be also, Mary Ellen - makes a name that's undeniable just by being there.

BONNIE L. SCISSON

For beauty is the number,
eyes, skin of dew.

CALVER FOX

Give him liberty and give him

GEORGE A. GILLMAN

Of all love and to love, he who could, surely's said monstrous to wish, well.

BEVERLY V. GRAY

Remember, please, who is easy to talk with and says what she thinks.

RICHARD F. ORSINI

His talents are the source of his pride.

PEGGY S. KLINE

With the cooperation of all her friends and family.

GARY L. HIGGINS

Strong in love's good hope, true, and says his own happiness is his work.

MARY L. COOK

Clear vision shows it, charming without knowing it.

NANCY S. FIRTH

As President of the Glee Club
she has great leadership.

EDWARD T. JARRETT

By making what others may see,
he will at last be known.

DONALD LEMATTA

With a goal in mind he will go to the end of the road as he should.

ROSEMARY V. MCNAIR

loyal, energetic, and full of life.

ALLY A. BADERME

Wants to study and dance in overalls.

Stacy,
This school
shouldn't be taken so seriously without graduation and not straight answers may hurt. Stay that and should you may want a teacher

Genius is essentially creative;
it bears the stamp of the individual who possesses it.

Last Will and Testament

To the Junior Class -

The superb qualities of organization, intelligence, and leadership which the graduating class of 1968 have exhibited throughout the school year, along with authority in the halls,

To the Sophomore Class -

The knowledge we have gained in such courses as Physics, Advanced Math, F.O.D., English 12, Bandbox II, and Advanced Splatter Painting, that they may prepare themselves for later life,

To the Freshman Class -

The feeling of deep satisfaction we know that we were once in that position. A long, long time ago,

To the Eighth Grade -

Our ability to get along with our teachers and be friendly with students from other classes,

To the Seventh Grade -

Our success with that, in 1972, they will have as good a year as we, the Seniors, have had in this 1967-1968 school year,

KIDSLAY '78 HAS MUCANT: A new administration, a new faculty, a new school newspaper, a new school spirit and a strong student government under which a closer relationship between the student body and faculty has been accomplished, and countless other events that have occurred in and out of class.

THE 1988 ISLANDER has attempted to cover the many aspects of Kinsley life which have made this year memorable. It has been our aim, primarily through photography, to present this school year in such a way that it will be remembered by all. We, the Islander Staff, hope that you will enjoy this endeavor.

THE EDITORS WISH TO THANK:

THE ENTIRE STUDENT BODY, especially the class of '88 for their support of the 1988 ISLANDER.

MISS LIBBINTY, Yearbook Advisor, for many fresh ideas, and for her valuable assistance in surmounting the problems which the Islander staff faced throughout the year.

MR. FRED ROBERTS, Photographer, for his skill in the many aspects of photography which is pertinent in the production of a yearbook.

MATT MUSIAL AND DANNY VON MUELLER, Co-Photography Editors, whose excellent work accounts for the candid, informal photography of the Islander.

PEGGY HAUSER, Art Editor, whose ability and talent made this book complete.

MARY ELLEN DE TRO, Activities Editor, whose energy and flexibility to approach tasks let activities "come to life" in print.

DONNA STOLA AND MARY ECKES, Senior Directory Editors, for their handling of a difficult job.

MATT MUSIAL AND RICH GRAZIANO, Co-Sports Editors, whose thorough and methodical approach in a difficult undertaking made their section one of the highlights of the '88 Islander.

THE SPECIAL PATRONS, whose contributions were instrumental in the publishing of this book.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY, without whose co-operation this yearbook could never have been published.

Respectfully,

Rowena Malone
Regina Marie Walsh
