Elaine - may you have the best of luck
in everything you do. Don't let me to smile! You're really a sweet person - stay just like you are.

Give Love up,

LOUISE ADAMS

To live is to dance;
To dance is to live.

PATRICIA ANDREWS

As the sun colours
flowers so does art colour life.

DENNIS BAYLES

Man is born unto trouble
as the sparks fly upward.

BENJAMIN BERNALES

He has wit that can call forth smiles even from mourning.

OSCAR CARRASOULLO

I am tired of four walls
and a ceiling;
I have need of the grass.

ROLFE CLARK

The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure,
and pleasure my business.

RUTH CLIFTON

She is found on roads of laughter.

*They left

RUTH ANN CRAWFORD

Beautiful faces are those that wear whole-souled honesty printed there.

Claine, you're a very quiet and sweet and kind girl. Please stay that way and make the best in life wherever you are. Especially next year.

What is lovely never dies, but passes into other loveliness.

Scolers ...
 The year is gone,
 We've left a little of ourselves behind
 In those empty halls and darkened rooms;
 But we are not cheated,
 For in return we've taken myriads
 of memories,
 A lump swells in our throats, but we'll not look back -
 Ahead lies the challenge --- Life.

Last Will and Testament

I, PATTY ANDREWS, of scattered mind and bow-legged body, do hereby leave to Deldre Delbold two bottles of Tyedrin for those #29, 43, 62, etc. headaches achieved in Art Class.

I, BENJAMIN FORD BERNALDES, of sound mind and body, do hereby bestow upon Coach my title of "Whimpie" since he started this mean.

I, OZZIE CARLASQUILLO, being of stoned mind and "later for my body," leave to Kindley High School all my absent notes for future reference.

I, ROLFE CLARK, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to take a book home only on windy days to weigh down the Pan Am bag on my bike and still pass with good grades.

OKAY I, ORRY CUPTON, being ... would leave to Elvis Simen my faithful Kindley jacket if I could part with it, but since this seems impossible I leave Katy Lamb my tailor-made gym suit and two of the three safety pins that hold it together.

I, RUTH ANN CRAWFORD, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my brother Mark my ability to stay out of trouble (or at least not to get caught).

Witness all ye by these presents: I, RONALD DEAN GARROW, having an A-1 physique (by Navy Standards) and in possession of almost all my faculties, do hereby bequeath the ownership of my basketball skills to Don Wound and my habits to Coach Belmean to any future senior the ability to get locked out of Mrs. Bates' room with her chair; and finally to Mr. Townky, the hopes of a better 8th grade class and one Arkansas Razorback hog.

I, PAUL EDWARD CILLEN II, being of sound literate mind hereby leave Miss Elizabeth Tierney my complete and unprecedented English class notes, revealing the plain truth of our world of tomorrow.

I, JULIE GRAY, being of sound mind and healthy body (?), do leave my ability to find a friendly cop - who's on your own side, to anyone who needs it.

I, LISA HASSENPLUG, of a rather occult mind and unwilling body do hereby leave my P.E. ability (which may not be much, but every little bit helps) to Jimmy Graziano, and all my doctor's excuses and natural means and groans to Mark Crawford so that he may not have to dress out for P.E. (legally).

Penny I, PENNY HULT, being of a thinkable mind and somewhat tall female body, do hereby and forever leave my title of "Madame President" and the handcuffs and whipping post that go along with that office to whoever feel that their mind and body have sufficient strength; my title of "Most Likely to Succeed" to Joe DeSoto; my title of "Most Versatile" to next year's new students and administration; my temper to all future redheads of Kindley to keep our image.

I, CATHY HUMPHREY, being of sound mind and mumble body, do hereby leave Debbie Gordon my pair of unmatched gym socks which she loved so much and to Carole Cahovic all the post office patterns her heart so desires - but only on Sundays.

I, STEVE MORRIS, being of sound mind and body, leave my automatic Cyrus to Mojan for racing out at Southampton and my ability to watch Ruffe Clark bounce off roundabouts to anyone who is crazy enough to venture out to Somerset with a wild Canadian.

I, LESLIE RANDOLPH, having raised the roof considerably with my deep and booming voice, do now leave it to the boys in the class of 1976. It should lower the level of theirs considerably.

I, PHOENIX ROSEMARIE BEDNICKS, of excellent, admirable, choice grade-A, sound mind and body, will to the future 5th and 6th grade study with a lot of lockjaw silence! To the school I will that there be less littering and complaints, and more cheerful smiles.

Kam
I, KAM SCHAEFER, of tired mind and body, do hereby leave to Miss Tee all her library books with hopes that she can get along without me and to Debbie Stowe I leave my straight hair.

I, HOWART STAMPER, of sound Demude mind, do hereby leave the American Department School.

I, HOMER STOTTS, being of a cloud nine mind, and body, leave Melvin Mahoney my ability to be late to P. O. D. and to Coach the saying "spoon it and fork it" and the memories of Earl's parties.

I, SANJIA LEVIS, being of sound mind and delectable body, do hereby leave to a future qualified senior my position at NASA - I didn't exactly put a man on the moon but she might - and to my sister, Claudette, my happy days at Kinckley.

I, DAVE THOMPSON, leave my ability to get along with Miss Forchey to Jill Denado and Doc Detbold.

I, CAROL TODD, being of sound mind and questionable body, do hereby bequeath my fantastic physics grades to any girl who is brave enough to face Mr. Towaley next year and to Jill Rubinczak I leave my excellent memory.

I, DAE TUCKER, being, here and now, of sound mind and body, much improved, leave firstly to Jack Meadows my basketball ability so that he may with luck take over my place on the "A" team next year. Secondly, I leave my sneakers to their greatest admirer, Mr. Cahill. Lastly, I leave to Mike Stanfill my "never-used" title of Pillsbury.

I, RAMONA WINTER, being of quiet mind and sound body, do hereby bequeath to Bert Smith the ability to carry on my role as beautiful blusher and to Jane Tucker I give my shy, quiet personality to put to good use.
