AURORA
BOREALIS

Volume II

Foreword

This book has been put together by the staff in hopes that it brings back pleasant memories to the students of Pepperrell, both Seniors and underclassmen, as well. It has been fun doing this and we want everyone to remember, happily, their stay at Pepperrell A. F. B., St. John's, Nfld.

We of the yearbook staff dedicate this, our 1958 Aurora Borealis, to the men who so faithfully serve on the Northern Bases, and who, like the Aurora Borealis, or northern lights, look out over the world from the north, showing the way to peace in all nations.

Dedication

Principal's Message

The world is shrinking, we are often told. And it is so. With each improvement in the means of transportation and communication we find ourselves living at closer quarters. But as the world becomes smaller, your world becomes bigger, because you will be under stronger temptation to feel dwarfed, without individual significance or power of personal action — a stranger and afraid, in a world you didn't make. How can you learn to be a person of significance? First, by striving in the earlier stages of growing up, to arm yourself with the best education possible. Second, by learning the elements of living through religious teachings. It follows as a third requirement, that you take action on your convictions in your home, community and nation.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

St. Matthew, 7:7

Prophecy

On June 4, 1970, we find the Class of '58 scattered all over this old world and elsewhere

JAYNE BURKE is the head criminologist at the FBI in Washington, D. C.

ANN CLINKSCALES is married to a millionaire Duke graduate and has homes in New York City, Maine, Nassua, and Pasadena, California.

DEBBIE CRAUN is a nurse in the Psychiatric Ward at John Hopkins Hospital and goes home each night to her husband and two children and the stock reports from the Yearbook House in which she has controlling stock.

TRUDY GARDNER dances with the Rockettes at Radio City Music Hall in New York City.

CLEM LYONS is Dean of Engineering at Memorial University in St. John's, Newfoundland.

GAIL MASON is that famous illustrator of Vogue Magazine.

PRUE MASON is in New York City as an interpreter for the United Nations.

LARRY HARMON is a major in the USAF and is piloting the first rocket to the moon. Bye — — — — —

DAVE NEFF is a nuclear scientist at White Sands, New Mexico.

We know that these are pretty high goals for these kids but we are sure that they can all make it if they try.

Class Will

We, the SENIOR CLASS, of Pepperrell Air Force Base High School, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under fraud, duress, menace or the undue influence of any person whatsoever, do make, publish and declare this our Last Will and Testament, in the manner following, that is to say:

I, Jayne Burke, do give and bequeath my brown eyes to Mr. Cormack; my long fingernails to Martha Weidman; all my geometry marks to Richard Dickerson; and my dark hair to Sandy French.

I, Ann Clinkscales, do give and bequeath my broken fingernails to Linda Starkey and Carl Jamison (5 for each); my Monday-itis to Gary New; and my superior ability to be slow to Bob Joyce.

I, Debbie Craun, do give and bequeath my blue eyes to Joe Austin; my correspondence physics course to Mr. Brownlee for the use of some other unsuspecting soul; my yearbook editorship and a bottle of aspirin to some poor junior; and my place in the Trig class to my sister, Donna.

I, Trudy Gardner, do give and bequeath my hair to Suzy Rhodes; my Civics book to Lorrie Welly; my western pants to Judy Russell; and my Brownie camera to Joe Austin.

I, Larry Harmon, do give and bequeath my driver's license to Joe Austin; my Student Council presidency to any fool who will take it; my frisky feet to Gary New; my ivy-league shoes to Blaine Leidy; and my build to Judy Russell.

I, Clem Lyons, do give and bequeath my natural ability to drive a car to Blaine Leidy; my American History grades to Henry Morton; and the pin-ups Fred Stai gave me to Joe Austin.

I, Gail Mason, do give and bequeath my cheerleading position to Cathy Rochford; my ducktail to Joe Austin; my chewed-up cheeks to Martha Weidman; and my messy locker to Carl Jamison.

I, Prue Mason, do give and bequeath my speed in typing to Sandy French; my height to Lorrie Welly; any extra weight to Martha Weidman; and my lipstick to Linda Grashoff.

I, Dave Neff, do give and bequeath "Duffo" to Leonard Osmond; my center position to Joe Austin; my detentions to Bob Tope; and my calypso shirt to Cliff Yetter.

GAIL MASON, QUEEN

The Annual Snowball Dance was held on January 18, 1958, and was sponsored by the Older Teen Club. It was made more enjoyable by the invitation of 21 teenagers from Argentina. Gail Mason was elected Queen and Linda Starkey and Suzy Rhodes were her attendants.

JOE AUSTIN, KING

T.W.I.R.P. Week, February 10-14, saw the females of P.H.S. doing the things the boys supposedly do all year! Friday night the T.W.I.R.P. Dance was held and the Court punished offenders of T.W.I.R.P. regs. The "Trinidad Trio," a bunch of high school boys, did the extra entertainment and Joe Austin was elected T.W.I.R.P. King by the girls.

THE FALCON'S LAIR

Every Saturday morning at 10:30, set your radio dial at 1480 for The Falcon's Lair, the radio program for Pepperrell High School. Cliff Yetter, the D.J., is assisted in his work by Mike Wilson and Danny Cromer.

Also, on Friday night, from 9:30 to 10:00 P.M., you can hear the evening show, "Cliff's Caboose." This, too, is done by the three boys from P.H.S.

Bus Cadets

WHAT THE BUS CADETS MEAN TO US—

- B Business they do.
- U Utter mess they get into.
- S Snowy Days they must work hard on.

- C Conduct they maintain.
- A Attitude they take in their work.
- D Drivers they keep sane.
- E Efficiency of their work.
- T Teachers that put up with the excuse "our bus was late!"
- S So we thank you BUS CADETS!!

And I missed
