Dear Karen:

You certainly may have
use any of the Peanuts
in your forthcoming year
I am flattered that you should do so.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely

Charles Schulz
Charles M. Schulz

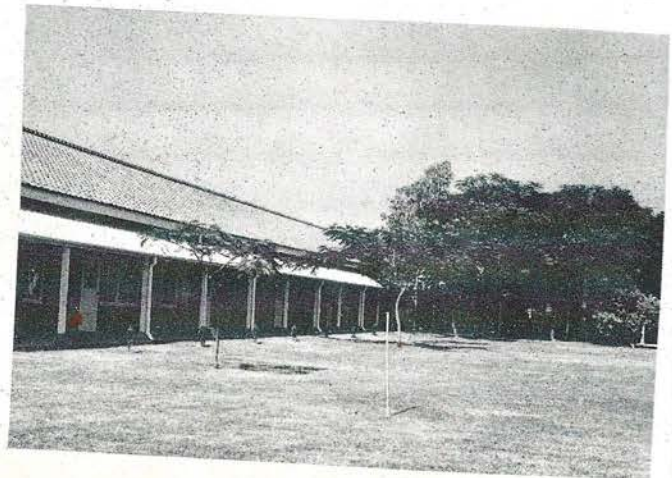

We, the 1967 - 68 Yearbook Staff, Wish to express our appreciation to Charles Schulz whose creations of Charlie Brown, Linus, Snoopy, Lucy, Schroeder, Frieda (with her natural curly hair), Pig-Pen, and all his other characters have given the world a wholesome humor in time of crisis.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Since colonial days when schools were established to teach the three R's, American schools through the years and throughout the world have supported the Jeffersonian principle: an educated people is the surest safeguard for democracy. Never has democracy needed such a safeguard as it does today. Having seen China, you, the students of Jonathan M. Wainwright School, are in a position to compare the immutable mores of the Orient with the dynamic democracy of the Occident. Study; analyze; compare; know what you believe. Dedicate yourself to God, to mankind, to America!
