DYNASTY

JONATHAN M. WAINWRIGHT
SCHOOL TAINAN
U. S. AIR FORCE

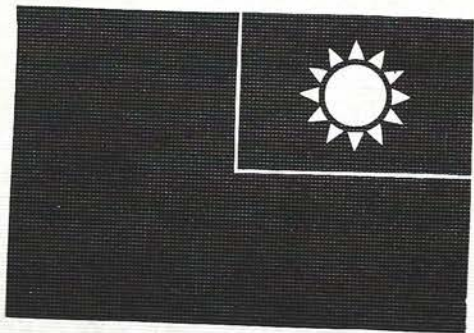

DEDICATION TO THE SPIRIT OF JMW

When Jonathan Mayhew Wainwright, after whom our school is named, was granted the Congressional Medal of Honor, our nation's highest award, part of his citation read, "for intrepid and determined leadership against greatly superior enemy forces."

We of the "Dynasty" staff feel the spirit of our school follows in this tradition, for we know our teachers have attempted to prepare us to assume positions of "intrepid (fearless, dauntless, courageous, very brave) and determined leadership against greatly superior enemy forces" of fear, ignorance, want, prejudice, poverty, and pollution so prevalent in our world today.

We are the last students of Jonathan M. Wainwright School, Tainan, Taiwan, Republic of China. Although our school will soon be only a memory, may we cherish and live by its spirit, preserve it, and pass it on to succeeding generations.

May we leave, too, our gratitude to Mrs. Lucy Chao, faithful secretary at JMW almost its whole life. We feel she well represents the spirit of our school—always amiable, dependable, loyal, steadfast, and trustworthy, her smiling self has been the bridge between our races and cultures. When we remember her, as we always will, it shall be as proof of 'one world' in which 'all men are brothers'.

IN MEMORIAM

b. 1953 - d. 1975

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE CAREER OF JMW SCHOOL

- 1953 - First military-sponsored school in Tainan, the Tainan MAAG School, at various locations around the city. Transportation provided by 3/4 ton truck.
- 1955 - First building constructed for school (now Rooms 26-29), renamed Tainan American Elementary School, under U. S. Navy management. High school by correspondence.

1957 - Lucy (and a battered 20-year-old second-hand typewriter) arrives to begin the office. School now named Jonathan M. Wainwright School.

1958 - First high school building--no more correspondence courses. Class of '58: 1 graduate.

1961 - Construction of present buildings completed. High school and elementary under the same roofs and breezeways.

1967 - The 3 Bevers arrive at JMW. Scott, then Grade 1, has never known any other school! JMW now is under

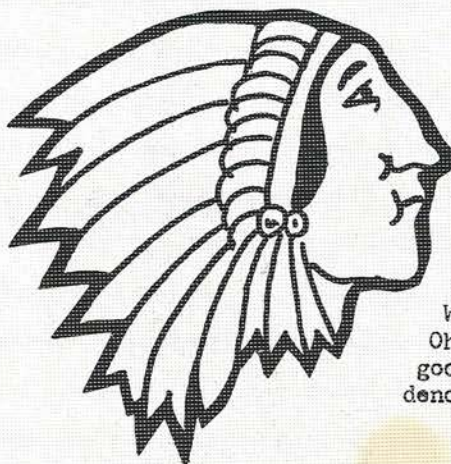

U. S. Air Force administration. High school receives NCA (North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools) accreditation.

1968 - Miss Hellman arrives. (So does air-conditioning.)

1972 - Largest class in the history of the high school: 27 graduates.

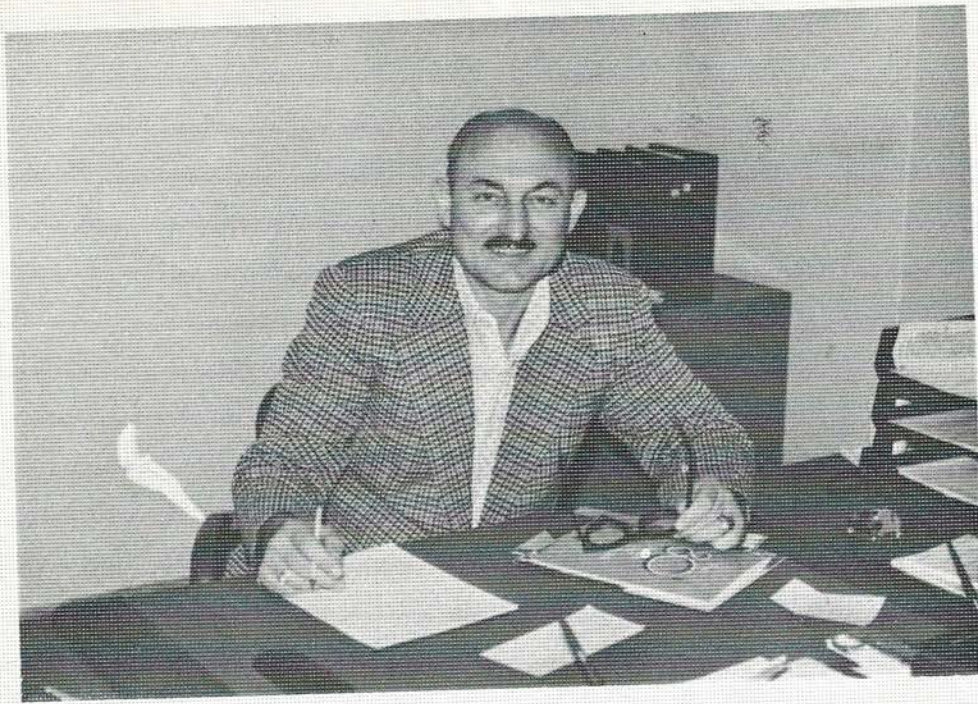

1970 - The module arrives--6 new classrooms for elementary.

WARRIORS

1975 - The module goes-- as do most of us. The demise of Jonathan M. Wainwright School. Oh, well. Back to good old correspondence courses!
