Corythosaur

My dinosaur was little. He ate water plants. For protection he swam in the water. My dinosaur was gentle and a good swimmer. He had webbed feet.

by Matt Bednar

Brachiosaurus

My dinosaur is big and long. He ate plants. For protection he hid in the water. My dinosaur was gentle. He did not like to fight. He was the biggest of all. He had a nose on the top of his head.

by Misty Buchanan

Matt: why try harder?
I'm already #1.

Strithiomus

My dinosaur was little. He ate eggs. For protection he ran fast. My dinosaur was about the size of a man. My dinosaur was gentle. He did not like to fight.

by Tina Kosanke

Tina: be nice to me;
I'm irreplaceable!

Jason: You're looking at a winner!

This page was donated by New Dimensions.

Triceratops

My dinosaur was big. He ate plants. For protection he had three horns. My dinosaur was usually gentle. He did not like to fight, but was the only one that could beat Tryannosaurus.

by Jason Martinez

Stegosaurus

My dinosaur was middle-sized. He ate plants. For protection he had spikes on his tail. My dinosaur was gentle. He did not like to fight. He was hard for Tyrannosaurus to grab because he had plates on his back.

by Elaine Lowery

Melissa: a hug will make my day.

Dimetrodon

My dinosaur was middle-sized. He ate animals. For protection he had a fin and sharp teeth and claws. My dinosaur was mean. He liked to fight. My dinosaur had a small brain.

by Melissa Eberts

Allosaurus

My dinosaur was big and long. He ate animals. For protection he used his teeth and claws. My dinosaur was mean. He liked to fight.

by Jennifer Comeau

Jason: Be nice to me;
I had a hard day!

Tyrannosaurus Rex

My dinosaur was tall. He ate animals. For protection he used sharp teeth. My dinosaur was mean. He liked to fight. He was the meanest of all and one of the biggest. He was able to use sharp claws.

by Jason Fajardo

Richie: I'm back by popular demand.

Elementary School P.T.A.

Brontosaurus

My dinosaur was big and tall. He ate plants. For protection he hid in the water. My dinosaur was gentle. He did not like to fight. He was one of the biggest.

by Kristie Berkley

Parasaurolophus

My dinosaur was middle-sized. He ate plants. For protection he hid in the water. He had a hollow horn. He filled it with air. Then he could stay under the water a long time.

A Trip to Atlantis

One afternoon while I was playing Atari's Atlantis game I looked behind me and saw the people from Atlantis. The people took me along to Atlantis and it was like New York. The people looked like this: they had pure white clothes on, with sun, moon, and a rainbow over them on a patch. Their faces were light green with dark green lips. Their feet were extra large and webbed like a duck. I asked them why they brought me here. The leader said, "To save us from the Gorgens. We will take you back if you promise to pull the plug."

One Christmas Morning

One Christmas morning I found a horse under the tree. It was a toy. It was white and brown. I got a doll. My doll came to life, and my toy horse came to life too. We went to Spain, and we saw the King and Queen, and then we went to the zoo. I was about to feed the skunk when someone yelled, "The ape is loose." When I turned around I was grabbed from the back. I screamed, "The ape's got me," but then I heard my mom calling, "Wake up. It's time for school." It was all a dream.

by Faithann Spor

The Museum

I would like to tell you what we saw in the museum when we were taking pictures. We saw a real mummy. We could see its skull. We saw old time money and old pots and pans. They had peoples' bones. They had rings people used to wear and necklaces.

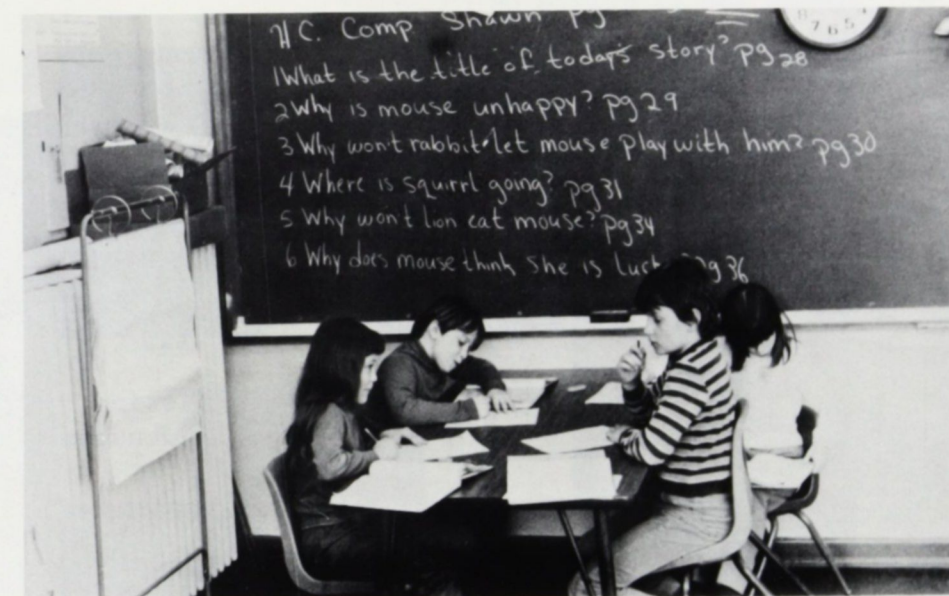

by Heather Berkley

Owl and Raccoon

A long time ago there was an old owl. He was wise because he used extra time to think about important things. His best friend was raccoon. They both liked the night better than the bright day. The owl and the raccoon would talk most of the night. They helped each other find food and warned each other when danger was near. One night the owl was not there and the raccoon was shot. Now Owl is alone and asks, "Who? Who? Who?"

Fun in the Snow

My sister and Dad and I went sledding. We had fun. Then we went in for some hot chocolate. We went back out and made snowmen. Then Wendy came over and we had a snowball fight.

by Karen Finucan

A Good Leader

George Washington was in the Revolutionary War. He was a good leader. When he returned to Mount Vernon, he hung his sword upon a piece of wood. He was the first President of the United States of America.

by Jeremy Eberts

I Had a Little Doggy

I had a little doggy who Used to sit and beg:
But doggy tumbled down the Stairs and broke his little leg.
Oh! Doggy, I will nurse you and Try to make you well, And you Shall have a collar with a Little silver bell.

Thad hates school.
He hates his math
And reading.
Do you?

Bednar is the End of my name.
Do you like it?
No? I hope not,
And I also hope you
Really don't like my first name.

Thad: sincere,
whether he means it or not.

Gia: sometimes she sits and thinks and sometimes she just sits.

Gia is nice.
I love myself.
And I am pretty.

Greene is my last name.
Reading is my favorite subject.
Everyone likes me.
Eggs are my favorite food.
No one knows me as I do.
Even William doesn't know me.

Christy is nice.
Her art is pretty.
Roses are easy for her to draw.
Is art easy for you?
She has a friend named Briand.
Two good friends they are.
Yes, very good friends.

Johnston is Christy's last name.
Oh, I almost forgot. Christy likes sports.
Her favorite sport is baseball.
No person is her enemy.
She has lots of friends.
Two good friends she likes very much.
One person she likes very much is Heather.
No person is her enemy.

"We need more people like us and fewer like them."

Shelly is good.
Her hair is almost long.
Every day she goes home and eats a shake.
Like a mouse, she reads a book.
Like her friends, she likes to play.
You think so?

Keeping her hands to herself
On the table she writes
Some poems
And reads them, but Not to her sister. She Keeps her secrets to herself
Every time.

Pam is a nice person,
And she is nice.
My brother is Mike.

Smith is my last name,
My brother's last name too.
I am a Girl Scout.
The color I like best is blue.
"Hi," my teacher said.

Those who think they know everything bug us who do.

Ricky is at Germany.
Is he having fun?
Cut out that nonsense.
Keep on, please.
Yes, we will.

Liar! Why did you say that?
Oh. Because we thought that Was right.
Everybody's thinking
Right.
Young people are smart.

Wendy is nice.
Even though she eats a lot,
No one hates her.
Do you hate her?
You do not.

How do you know her?
Even if you do she is nice.
Reading is her favorite subject.
Math is her worst subject,
And division is yucky!
No one knows her the way I do.

Someone Special. . .

I know him, a very special person.
He is kind, but strict, yet fair.
I know him well.

He's gone a lot, but that doesn't matter, because when he's home he makes our time special. I know him well. . .

My Dad!

Leaves

In Spring the new leaves are light green.
In Summer the leaves grow
and become dark green.
In Fall the leaves become red, brown, tan and crumble and fall.
In Winter all the leaves are gone.

The Wind

The wind is draft that blows through your house.
The wind is a breeze that makes you cold.
The wind can be mad and knock down things.
The wind can be gentle and make a warm day.

by Robert Craig

I like to see the sunbeam on the stream
And the leaves on the trees
And the little squirrels with their nuts
And then nightfall comes and I hear the crickets
And the wolf off into the night.

by Chris Lauze

You mean it's only 1:15?
