America is a good country. President Reagan is a good president. He stops wars so that nobody will die. When I grow up I want to be a race car driver. In America, you can do lots of different things.

Shane Hernandez

The U.S. is a good country. They have parks. When I grow up I want to be an ice-skater and skier. I can show others how to skate and ski if they don't know how to do it. I'm proud to be an American.

Hope Ludwick

I'm a good American. A good American doesn't fight, does what his mother tells him to, plays with people and does things by himself. I like my friends, school, and house back in the States.

Christmas Program

Kindergarten sang "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" and had their own rendition of "Twas the Night Before Christmas".

The 2nd Grader's play, "That Spells Christmas", was well received.

The 4th and 5th Graders did a variety of Christmas Poems. Damian Venturi stole the show with his Clean-up act.

The First Grade classes did a musical skit about the toys in Santa's Workshop.

The 3rd Graders sang some Christmas Carols.

The 6th Graders did the play, "The Santa Strike". The Elves and the Reindeer decided to go on strike on Christmas Eve. David and Loreen helped work things out and Santa gave them their Christmas wish, their family was all together again for Christmas.

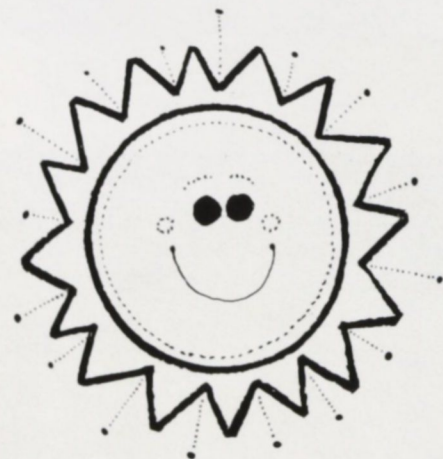

Assemblies

Mrs. Hinckley's 1st Graders did a Thanksgiving play.

Twelve students competed for the Spelling Bee. It was a close race. First Place went to Jennifer Bauri and Michelle LaRocca took Second Place. Congratulations!

Our school enjoyed the magic act presented by Jeff Moore. He used magic to teach us some valuable lessons.

Mr. Martinez came and shared with us during National Weather Week. We learned that there is a lot to predicting the weather.

The Trier Men's Choir came and sang some German Christmas Carols for our Christmas Tree Lighting.

Dan Crow delighted all ages with his folk songs. He had songs that taught sounds and English skills. Even now, the children sing his songs and remember his visit.

Wayne Dean taught the children the importance of drawing what you see.

The students enjoyed the Rose Monday parade. The kids came back and shared their experience by doing some beautiful drawings.

The Bitburg Middle School Concert Band came and played for us.

Captain Wesley came and danced for the 2nd thru 6th Grade.

The dentist came and gave all the children a healthy snack as well as checked all their teeth.

We had a visitor for Fire Prevention Week.

SEASONS

The seasons bring the funniest thing:
There's fall, summer, winter and spring.
Sometimes I like them, sometimes I don't
Sometimes I'll go out in them, sometimes
I won't.

In Spring they're many fun things.
I enjoy almost everything that it brings.
Flowers blossom; trees bud;
Rain fills the streets with mud.

The scorching summer sun
Wilts what spring has done.
So farmers need to irrigate their lands.
It's a hard job without helping hands.

In fall you can jump in the leaves;
The corn is harvested and gathered in sheaves.
Then when school begins;
You can make new friends,

Winter's when it snows and snows!
Why do I always get a cold in my nose?
Winter's my favorite season of all!
I like it much better than Spring, Summer, or Fall!

Trier

Trier claims to be the oldest city in Germany. It is believed to have existed 1300 years before Rome. It has an interesting history. The Romans left behind many landmarks. The amphitheatre is being restored at this point. Trier has many beautiful churches throughout the city.

St. Peter's Fountain on the Market Place, from 1595

The Porta Nigra with the Simeon monastery is the gateway into the more than 2,000 year old history. It demonstrates the power and extension of the Roman Empire.

McDonald's! Our favorite dining spot. Reminds us of home.

The Three King's House, built around 1230, originally had no door in the first two stories. The front door could only be reached by a retractable ladder.

The Organ Grinder and his monkey

The Red House, on which is written in Latin a boast: Trier is older than Rome by 1300 years.

The Amphitheater is the oldest Roman structure in Trier. There was room for 20,000 spectators to view bloody gladiatorial contests. Still visible are the oval ring, 24 rows of seats, entrance portals, 12 animal cages, and a cellar under the arena which may have been a grave trap.

The Rococo Palace of the Electors with a stately garden and figures.

Amphitheater

Ruins of the Roman Baths, begun in Constantine's time, but never finished.

One of two old cranes on the Moselle River.

The Imperial Baths of Emperor Constantine were never completed. A visit of the passages is a special experience. It has a complicated passage system.

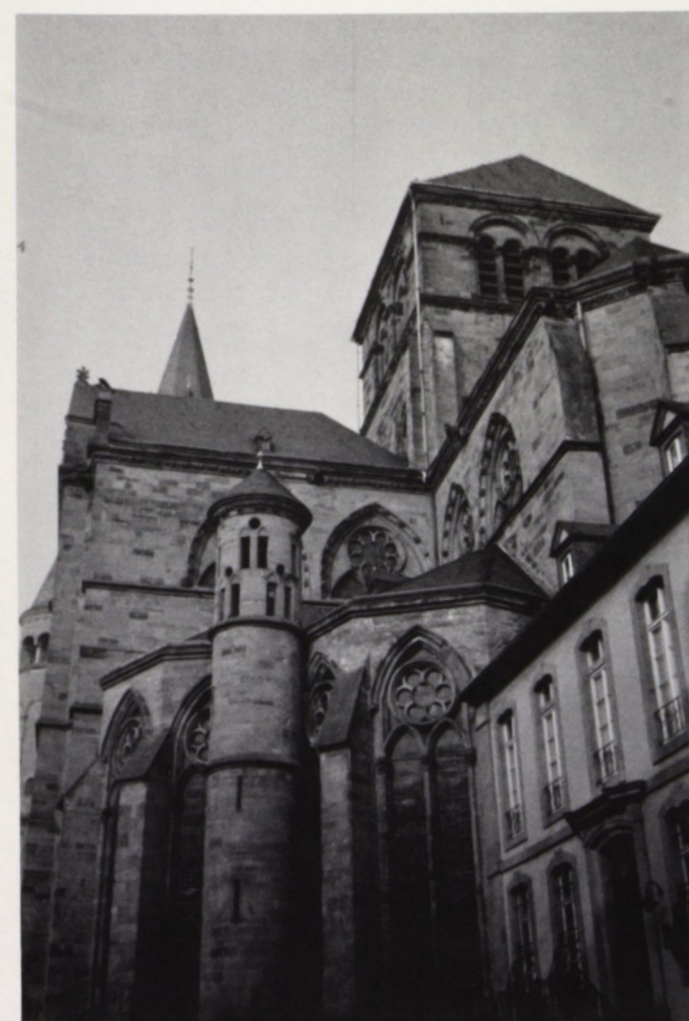

Roman Mosaic

The Market Cross standing since 958

Constantine's Basilica, now a Protestant Church.

The Abbey of St. Matthias claims to contain the only grave of an apostle in Germany. It was built in 1127.

In 325 Constantine built a mighty double church. The episcopal church was in the north, the parish church in the south, and a baptistery in between.

Best of Luck
to all the Trier students.
Marge Flynn

To my 4th and 5th graders:
We shuffled between the library and the Kindergarten room for the first three weeks of this school year. You were great
"Kiddos" during this time and the whole year. I hope you remember this year as one of your best. I know I will.
Mrs. Boutelle

To the Trier Students
"Spangdahlem's Best."

To the 2nd Grade,

I have never had a class that was so much fun to work with. You have worked hard all year and have learned so much. We had a lot of fun times and I will miss you next year. I wish you the best.

Miss Gilbert

Have a great year!
