Downtown Trier

Trier claims to be the oldest city in Germany. It is believed to have existed 1300 years before Rome. The Romans left behind many landmarks. The Porta Nigra is the most famous.

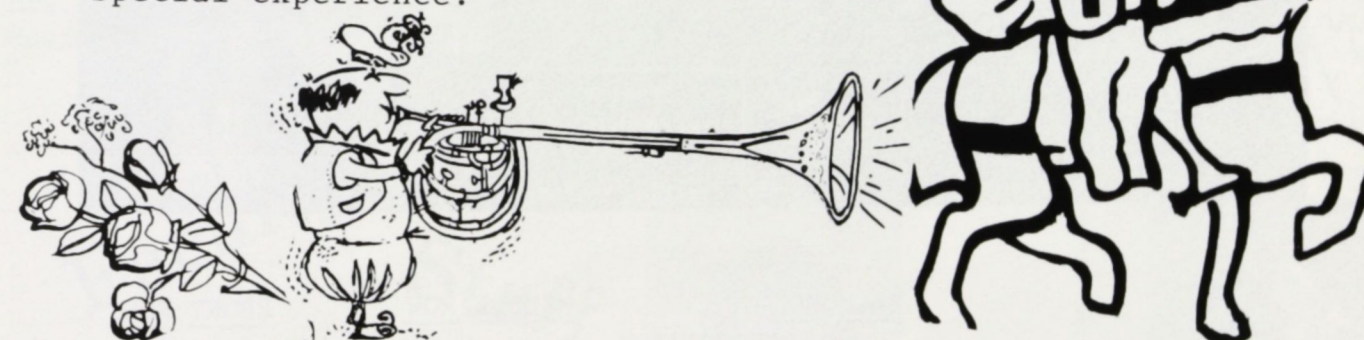

Rococo Palace of the Electors.

Romans

The Imperial Baths of Emperor Constantine were never completed. A visit of the passages is a special experience.

View of the Cathedral in winter.

Mrs. Boutelle

Third Grade

There was a girl named Julie who liked to act fully.
She liked to eat a pickle half because it made her laugh;
even though Julie truly wasn't fooly.
by Julie Benedetto

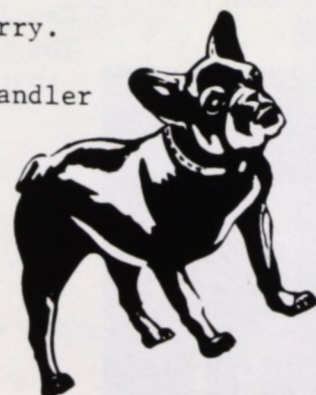

Melissa was the name of a girl
Who had to have a pearl
With a golden string
And a silver ring
But she never had a curl.

by Melissa Hopson

There once was a girl named Carrie
She had a pet that was hairy
It liked to jog
And it was a hog Carrie had named it Larry.

by Carrie Chandler

Joey is the name of a boy
He doesn't like to play with a toy
He has a blue shirt
But doesn't like to flirt
And he really like to annoy.

by Joseph LaRocca

Centoria was a girl
Who liked pretty curls
Her grades were very good
She liked to play Red Riding Hood
And she can really twirl!

by Centoria Wright

There once was a boy named Shawn Who had a friend named John.
Skateboards they would ride
From their parents they would hide
And they would stay up until dawn.

By Shawn Robinson

Sara was a girl with blonde hair
She always would eat a pear
The next day her dad bought her a pup
And a valentine's cup
And then she became friends with Glaire.

by Sara Zinsser

Fourth Grade

Mrs. Boutelle

There once was a boy named Carino
Who cut off his very own toe
Then he said with "amaze"
I've been waiting for days
To see if a new one would grow!

by Carino Bauri

There once was a boy with three sisters Who couldn't wait to be a mister
He would ride his skateboard
To get away from the hoard
And thought of his sisters as blisters.

by Jason Benedetto

Lauren was a girl with a cast
And she wished she could walk fast
Her knee was sore
She didn't want it anymore
But she knew that the pain couldn't last.

by Lauren Bickel

Curtis is a boy with blonde hair
And he likes to give people a scare Until one day he said,
"Dear me, am I dead?"
Then he sat there and ate a big pear.

by Curtis Chandler

There once was a boy named Eric
His parents wanted him to be a cleric
Until he saw a dead man
He said, "He's sick as a dog food can,"
And, "Well, at least I'm not an hysteric!"

by Eric Galura

Margie Doyle

There once was a boy named Denny
He had a friend named Lenny
They went to the store
But they thought it was a bore Because neither one of them had a penny.

by Dennis Griffey

There once was a girl named Monica
She never learned to play her harmonica Her aunt tried to teach her But she still couldn't reach her So instead she sang a song for Hanukkah.

by Monica Jennings

Selena Griffey

Justin Marshall

There once was a girl named Michelle Her teacher was Mrs. Boutelle
The girl's hair was long
She sang a song
While her teacher rang the bell.

by Michelle Lawley

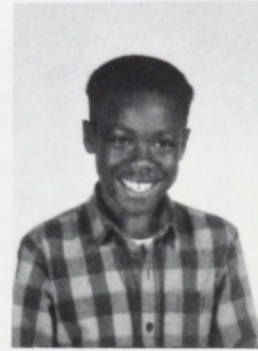

Adam was a boy with spiked hair
He tried to sit on a chair
He sits on his knees
The teacher said, "Adam, please?" Please sit down right there."

by Adam Mardis

Joseph was the name of a boy
 He had a friend named Roy
 He was really nice
 Because he ate rice
 And he had alot of joy.

by Joseph Multunas

Quincy was a boy who was "BAD"
 People really thought that he was mad
 So he decided to go away
 He is not here today
 And no one is very glad.

by Qunicy Ross

Aumia was the name of a girl
 Who loved to Twirl and twirl
 She played with flags
 And messed with bags
 While the wind would whirl.

by Aumia Salas

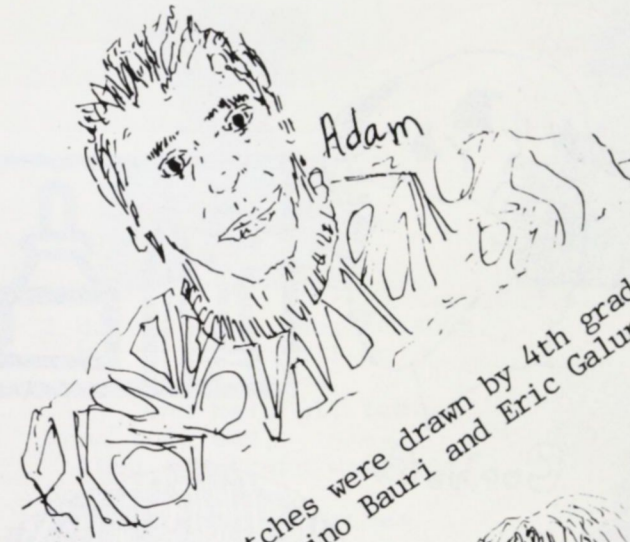

There once was a girl named Mary
 She wasn't quite contrary
 She hadn't a lamb
 But one day she went BAM
 And then all she saw was a canary.

by Mary Smith

There once was a girl named Brooke
 Who really loved to cook
 Her chocolate cake
 Was never baked
 Because she ate all of the mix before it was fixed.

by Brooke Spridgen

Friends are really neat:
'cause if you're in trouble,
They'll be there on the double,
and that's why friends are neat.
--Josh Bernsdorf

My friend said it was cool to swim in a hot pool, but I said, "Right, you fool!"
He said it was even a school rule, and I said, "Right, you fool!"

--Kevin Campbell

I do not have many friends, but those that I do
are very kind,
and helpful, too.
When I am sad,
they are there with me.
So sometimes
I can depend on them, you see.

--Wakysa Bruce

Friends passing notes
--kind of fun,
Together, forgetting things
--on the run,
Sharing work with someone
--helping them, to get it done!

--Susan Gellert

Gary Griffey

Ronald Mack

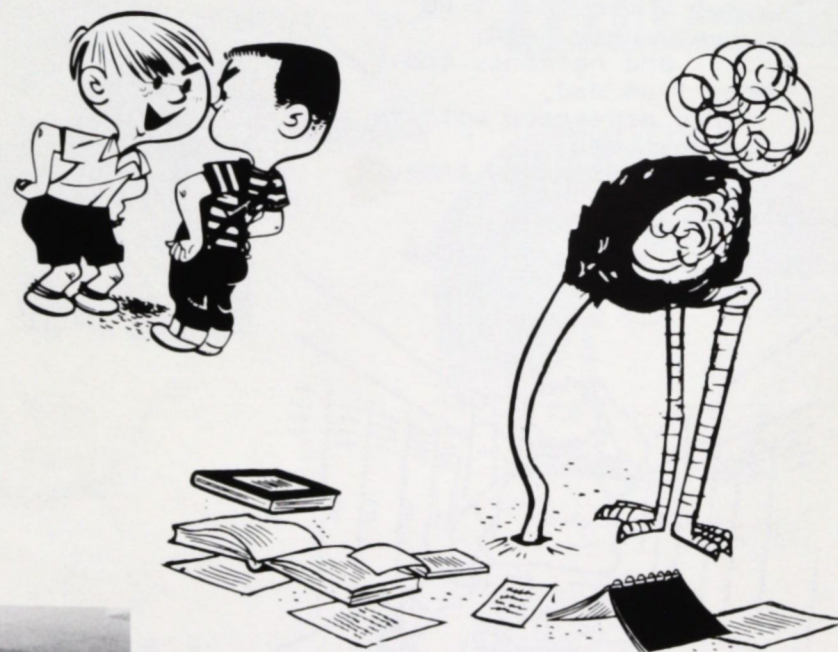

Friends can have so much fun...
Running, jumping, and swinging high.
But people don't have as much fun as I,
'cause I have 3 new special friends:
Me, Myself, and I!

--Michelle LaRocca

Terrific things are what we are.
We do some terrific stuff!!!
So lets's do some more terrific stuff!!!
Isn't that what friends are for?!

Shana Sutton-Bolling

Winter

Although winter feels--seems-- so close, it is very far away from now

--Mike Tajalle

Friends are great,
and very bright,
but I don't know
if they have good sight
What I want to say, is that they're great in any way!

--Shawn Turner

Friends are nice,
helpful, and sweet.
When you have trouble,
they're right at your feet.
Although they come and go,
you'll see them again,
at home or school.

--Robyne White

When a friend is near I do not have to fear.
'Though when it's time to go,
I go home to laugh or moan!

--Nicole Vasquez

Friends care for you and share, too.
Friends help you when you're in the dumps, Even when you have bumps... on your finger.

--Darren White

Friends are there when you need them;
They talk...they play...
They laugh the night away!

--Keith Wooldridge
