SPIRIT WEEK

SUCCESSFUL WEEK OF CELEBRATION

The week of the 15th of October was a busy week for everyone. It meant a week full of crazy costumes and loads of spirit in preparation for our Homecoming game and the dance following it.

The week started with Grubby

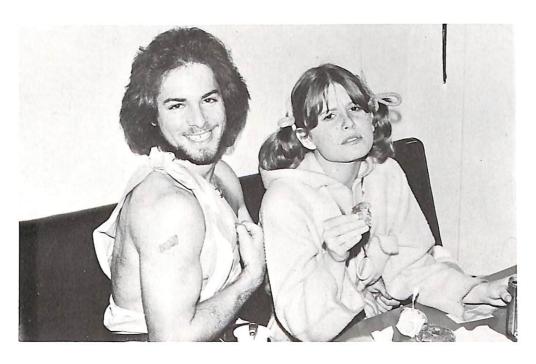

The week started with Grubby
Day on Monday, a reelation of our true selves, perhaps? Tuesday was Costume Day, Wednesday was Switch Day (hopefully everyone switched back), Thursday was combination Baby and Toga Day, and Friday was Maroon and White
Day.

The game on Friday showed the spirit of our school by the large attendance. We know the team put out a great effort and every bit of the spirit that was shown this week was well worth it!!

"There is nothing either good or bad but thinking makes it so."

Another school year ends. For the members of the Senior Class this will mean, in most cases, leaving the restricting yet supporting atmosphere of home and family and setting out on the long road towards maturity and independence. It is hoped that the Upper Heyford High School has helped them to be prepared for that journey and that the school has also provided memories which will provide retrospective pleasure as they travel.

Underclassmen still must look forward to spending more time in high school. For some this will mean returning to the Upper Heyford High school while others will attend schools in many different areas of the world. All of them are encouraged to work diligently, to learn eagerly, and to enjoy greatly during their remaining high school years with the full knowledge that the high school years set much of the pattern for the years to come.

The world revolves, time passes, and people change. The values, in terms of self fulfillment and happiness, of education remains constant. The quest for education then, whether within the formal setting of a school or not, is the one from which much is to be gained and is the one towards which all are directed.

Good luck.
