ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1996-97 yearbook would not have been completed without the help of some very special people. To these helpers and to all who purchase this yearbook, a sincere "Thank You"!!

A special Thank You to the following:

- PTSO Board members, who supported, helped with photos, and generously funded the project:
- UES teachers, who helped distribute order forms and uncomplainingly collected all the forms:
- Ms. Terri Johns, who created publicity papers, and who helped with the layout of several pages:
- Ms. Phyllis Ennals, who did lots of work on the layout and the finishing.
 - Two students, Megan Lusk and Allison McCormick, did most of the picture taking. They never tired of going out with camera in hand to find those "good shots."
- Thanks also to parents and students who show such enthusiasm and interest in our yearbook.

Your purchases allow us to continue.
