

NOSTRA ITALIA XIX

NOSTRA

ITALIA

1978-79

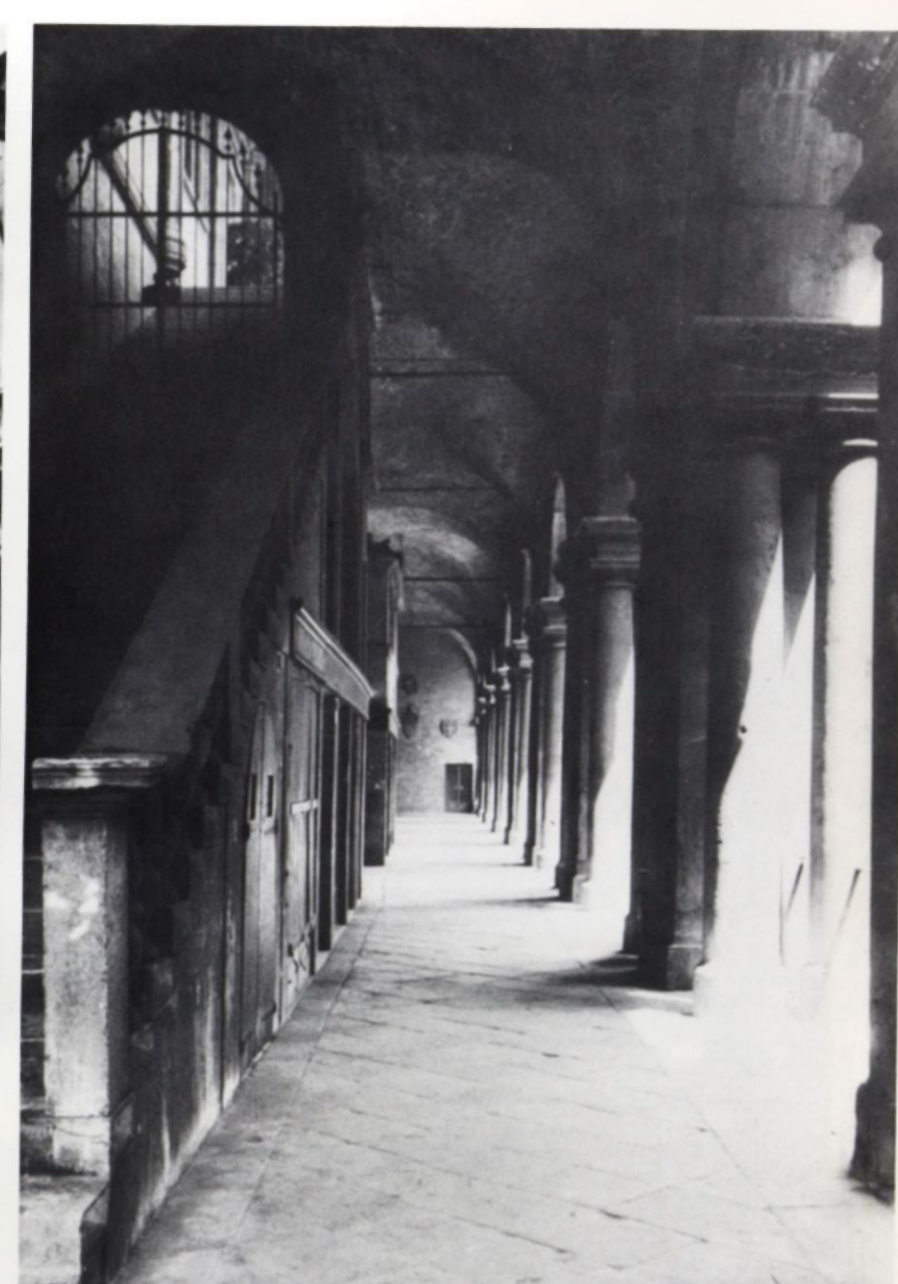

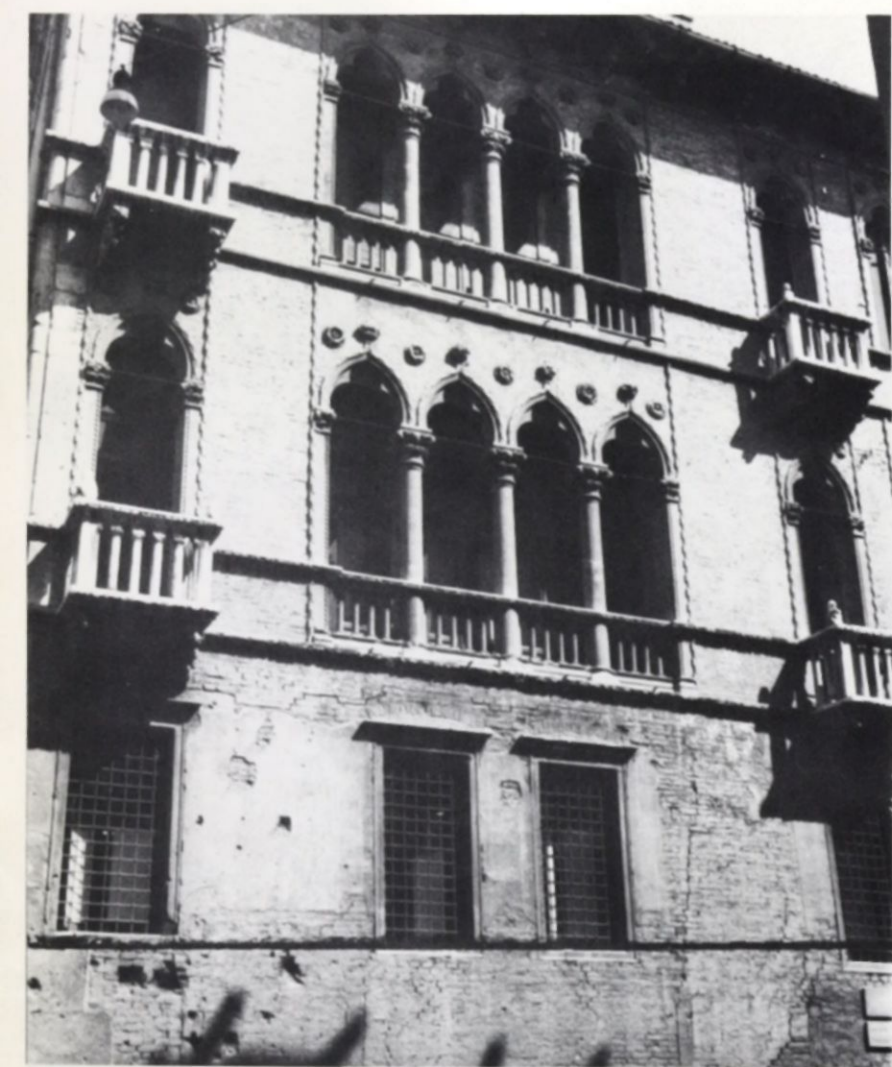

In this yearbook, we attempt to describe a year spent in an American school, in a foreign country. The country is Italy - our section is the very special region called the "Veneto".

Here - for you - is a remembrance of some of the more special sections of the Veneto. More importantly, we hope to have captured memories of your school life - and the friends you made here - in our own Vicenza High School.

ALMA MATER

Far across Atlantic Waters 'neath Italian skies,
Here We found our Alma Mater in Vicenza
High.
Ne'er our memories be forgotten when we all must part
But we'll keep each treasured moment safe within our hearts.

Hinterbrand Lodge
Berchtesgaden
Sept. 17-23 1978

"With screaming muscles and heart attacks brewing, the walk up to the lodge Sunday night started many minds wondering "What am I DOING here!" Struggling up the run and dip hill was enough for most of us and you must admit . . . the dip pool does a job on your sensitive flesh. The first day was spent solving group initiatives. Considering it only took us 3 hours and 42 minutes to cross the peanut butter gorge - anyway, we did a good job. Ah, we were poetry in motion. We are lions among sheep." Becci Robbins

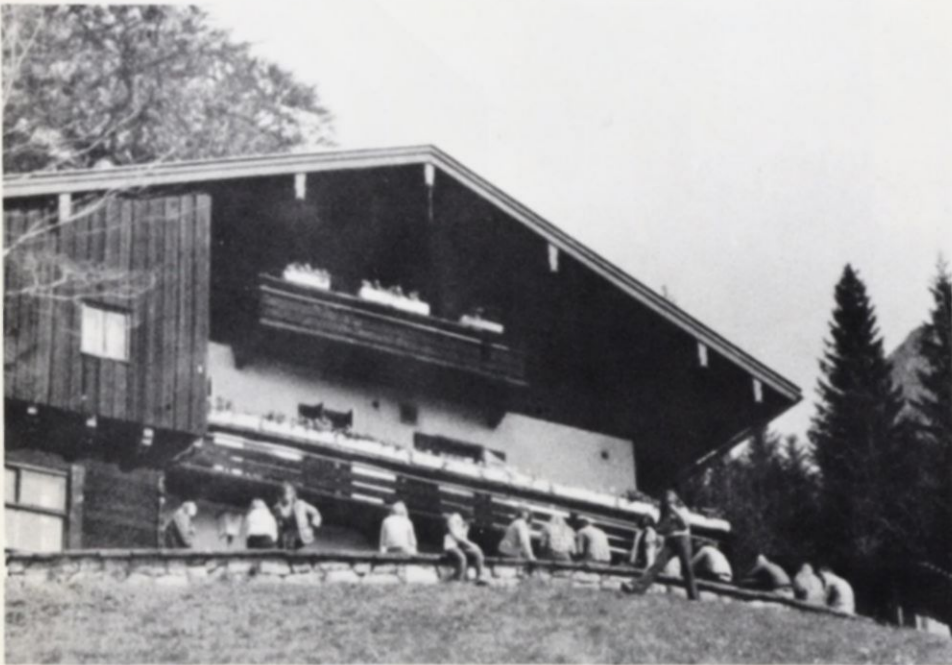

I've come to the conclusion that the only way to get myself up a mountain is to turn my inner voice into a cheerleader. My legs refuse to function unless they feel they're heroes and with a few enthusiastic cheers they can do anything. Becci Robbins

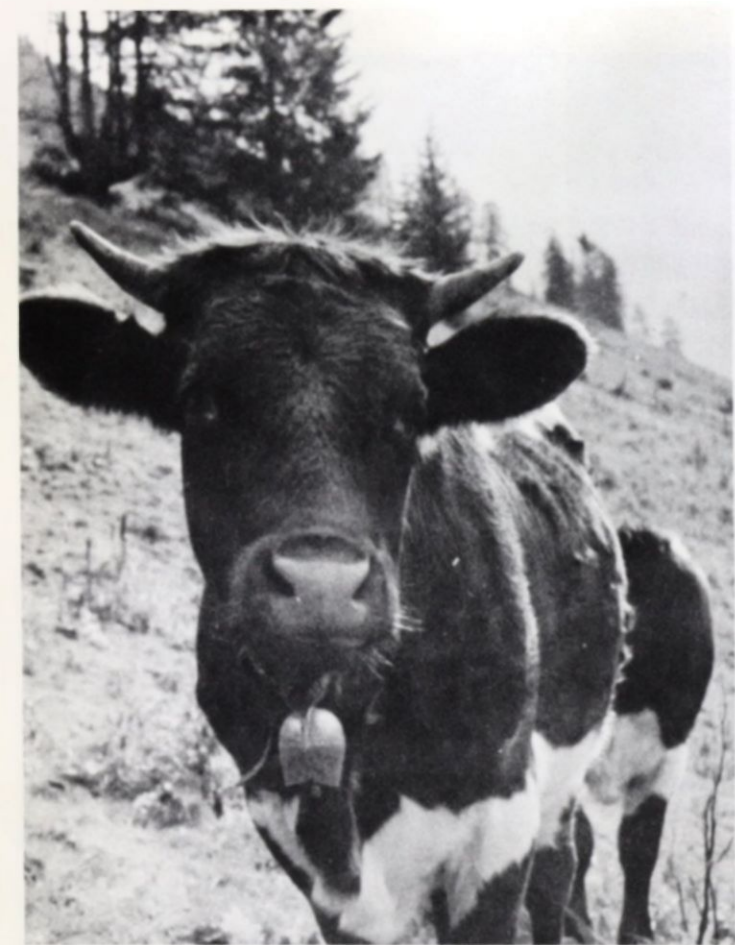

"I personally didn't think I'd enjoy climbing and rappelling the mountain, but it was fun and I'd enjoy doing it again." Danette Anderson

"Incredible, I found that I could actually subsist in an environment of getting up early, running and dipping completely underwater in near-freezing mountain stream water." Chris Kobza

"A nifty night in the Stahlhaus Hutte and then a trudge through falling snow to the top of the Jenner! Thrills and Chills. Sort of cold in the Hutte but it was still a spiffy experience." Lee Robbins Quiet cows pause in grazing And watch with liquid brown eyes As we plod up the paths they've posed with their personal signs. And when I, unhappily, leave my print In one of their calling cards, I'm sure I see one of them smile.

Lee Robbins

"I had a fun week and I learned that I could do things I wasn't aware of before. Like the Rope Course yesterday, I was determined not to even try. When I tried, I did it. Something I thought I couldn't do." Dawn Holzer

"It's below me to feel down in an environment so high!" John Sylvia

"Why do men climb mountains? Think you know now . . . The light comes shining through and maybe, just maybe, we know why." Jeanette Seymour

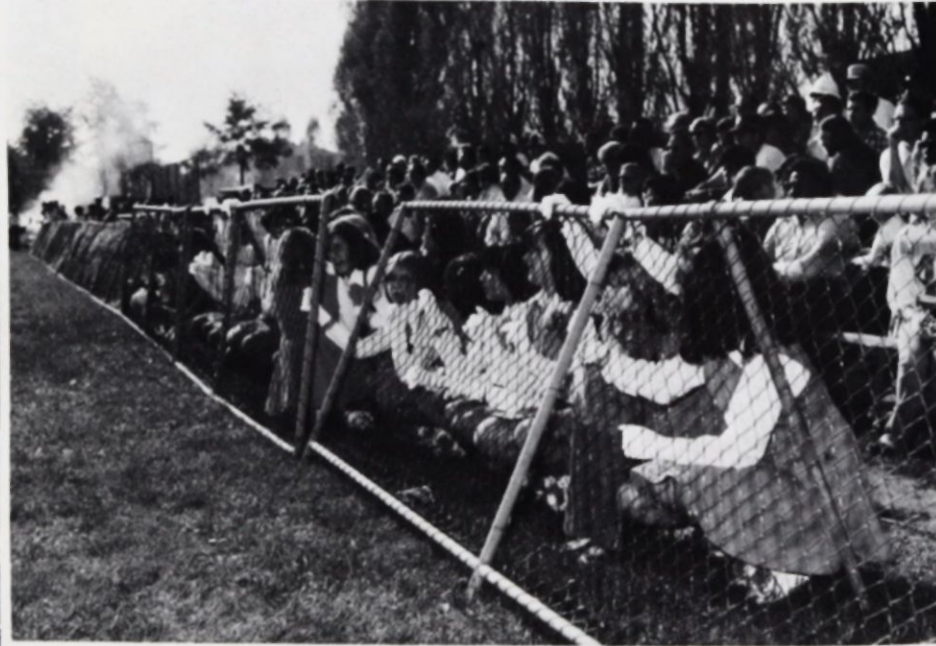

ENTHUSIASM!!!

Homecoming

. . . Homecoming!

The word has a certain magic to it. It's an exciting time. The biggest football game is played, the dance of the year, next to the Prom is held.

Even though very few graduates came back to Vicenza, Homecoming was still exciting. We played Aviano and beat them 34-12. There were floats, cheerleaders and the Drill Team performed. Then at half-time the Homecoming court was announced . . .

BOW DOWN

Homecoming

That night . . .

. . . The theme of this year's dance was "Do You Know Where You're Going To?" The Senior class spent the day decorating the gym and fixing dinner. That night after everyone ate, the theme song was sung by Bubblin' Brown Sugar; Benita Adams, Tracee Greenwell and Theresa Clay. All in all the day was a great success . . .
