DRAKULICH

The philosophies of one age have become the absurdities of the next, and the foolishness of yesterday has become the wisdom of tomorrow.

Yesterday's . . .

Memories

Romances

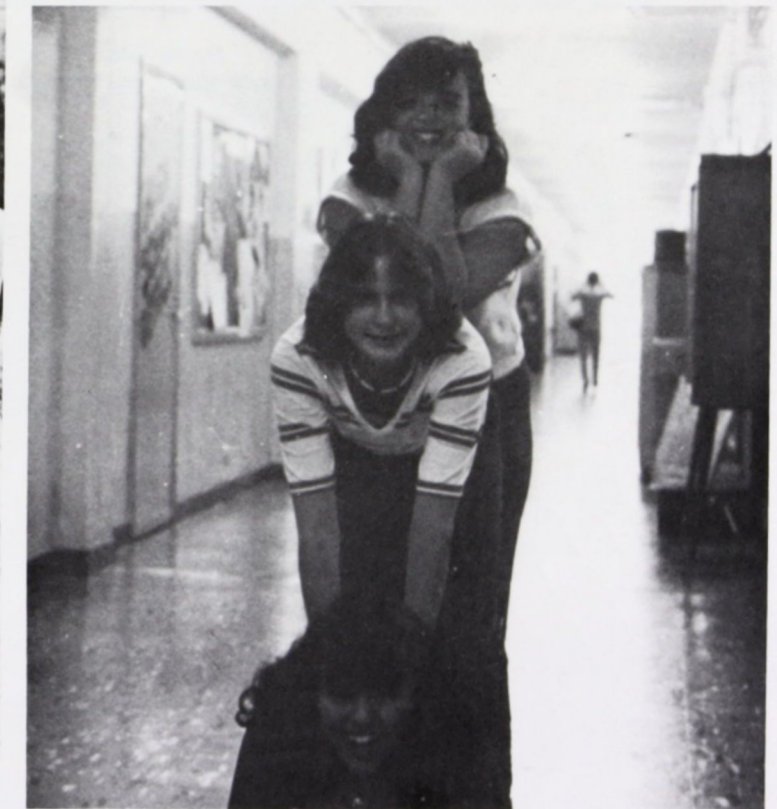

Hectic studies

Frequent disagreements

Constant flirting, but most of all . . .

Our Friends!

Social Gatherings

Play Day What A Memory!

From Clark Kent, to Superman!
School spirit and class participation were generated in the annual

Play Day sponsored by Student Council. Events such as the tug - o - war, the Bat Race, and the three - legged race allowed all the students to get involved. Highlighting Play Day was the pudding eating contest won by Junior Kelly Burnette, and Mass (confusion) Musical chairs, won by Junior James Greenwell. The Junior Class of 83, small but spirited, was declared the winner of 1982 Play Day.

Get off me!

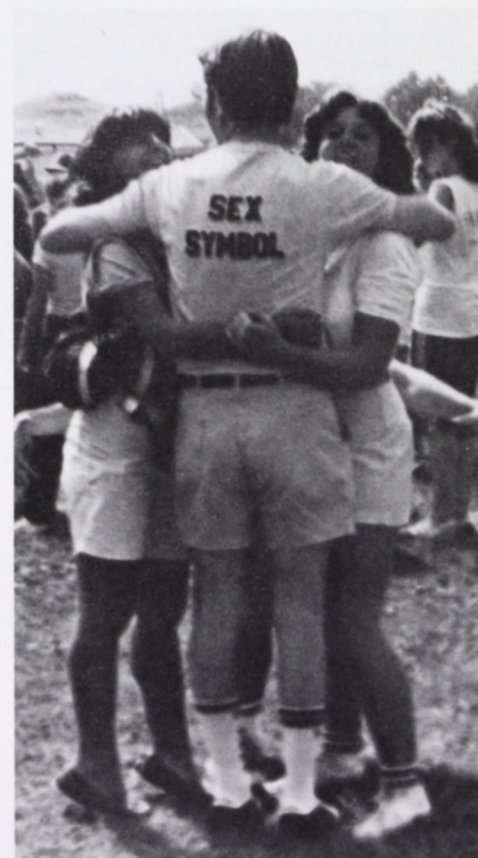

We're so BAD!

FIELD TRIPS

Remember those lo-o-ng bus rides and those never - ending boat rides?

Remember visiting the Basilica, Doges Palace and L'Accademia?

Remember feeding the pigeons and riding the gondolas?

Remember these always for these were the times we enriched ourselves with the art and culture of beautiful Italy.

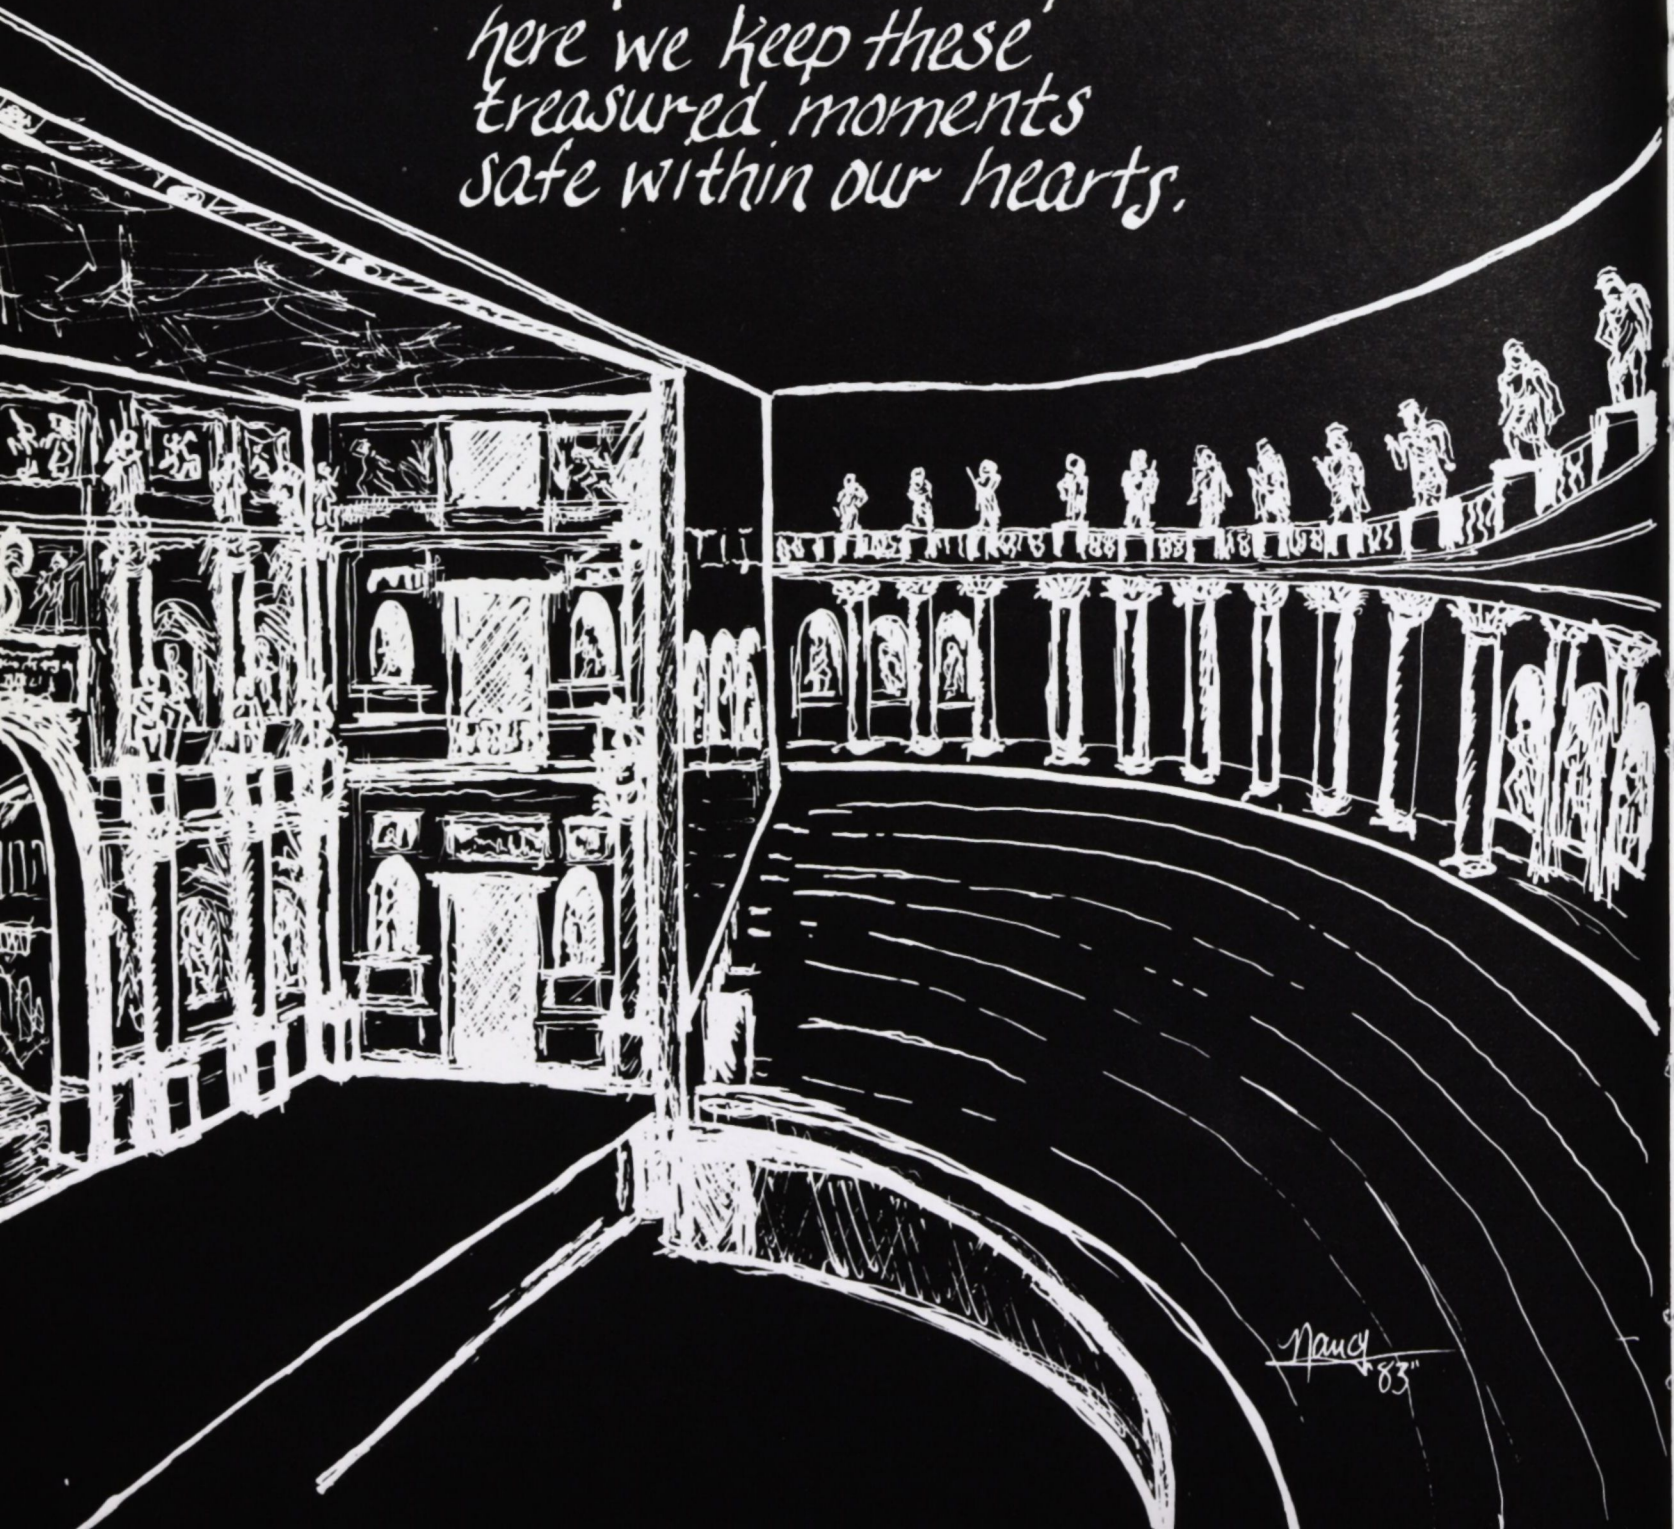

Who put Beethoven in my walkman?

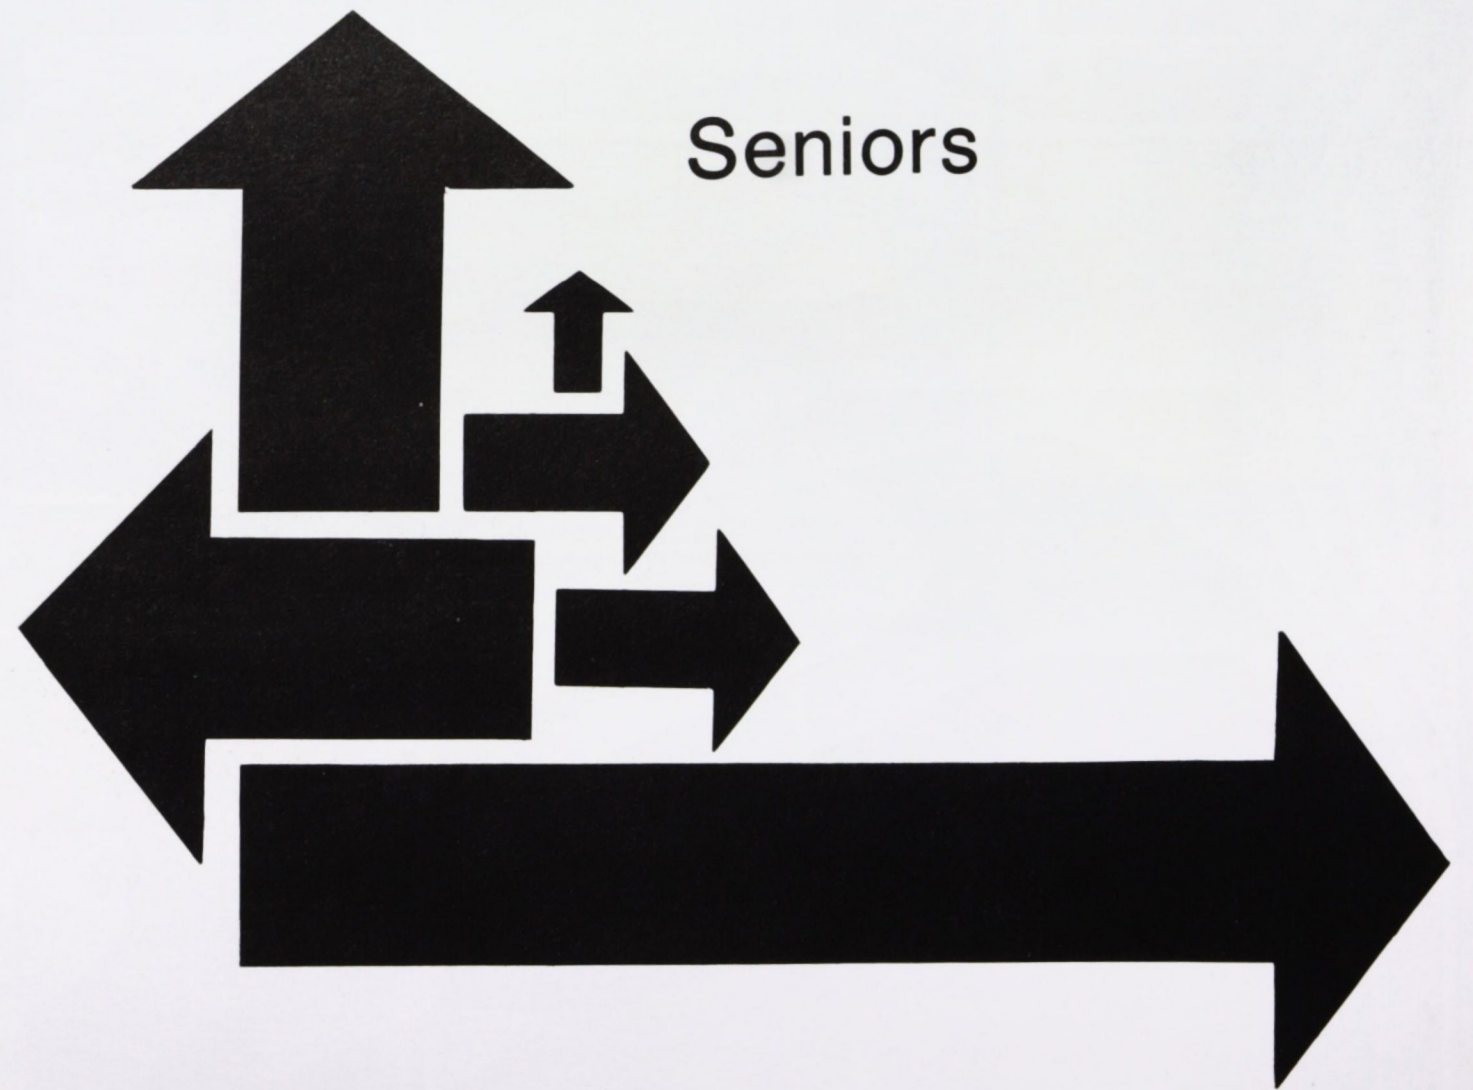

Alma Mater

Far across Atlantic waters
'neath Italian skies
here we found our Alma Mater
in Vicenza High,

Ne'er memories be forgotten
when we all must part here we keep these treasured moments safe within our hearts.

On My Own

Sometimes I wonder,
Where I've been,
Who I am, do I fit in.
Make believing is hard alone
Out here on my own.

We're always proving,
Who we are, always reaching,
For that rising star
To guide me far, and shine me home
Out here on my own.

When I'm down and feeling blue,
I close my eyes, so I can be with you.
Oh baby be strong for me
Baby belong to me
Help me through, help me need you.

Until the morning sun appears,
Making life of all my tears
I may not win but I can't be thrown
Out here, ON MY OWN.

The Senior class of 1983 would like to extend their thanks to Mrs. Ricci for all her support, time, and constant nagging, without which the year wouldn't have been quite as successful.

The success of school years is often measured by such statistics as athletic championships, test score results, number of disciplinary problems, improvements in school facilities, and the like. It is as if there is some magic relationship between what these figures stand for and our idea of what education is all about. I would like to offer you this alternative. Each reader of this annual needs to take a moment to think back on school year 1982-83. Bring to mind not only those events and friends pictured on these pages but also the many ways you individually grew during this academic year. The sum total of all that thought is what really made this school year a success. - LEO L. BROWNE

We felt it was appropriate to begin this section with the people who led us through a tremendously spirited year, undoubtedly full of enthusiasm.

The 1982-83 Student Council got an early start and kept up the good work all year long. Members included class presidents, representatives - number elected according to size of class - and Student Council officers. The previous year, representatives were from each second period class. The new system cut back on confusion, yet maintained communication between students, the faculty, and the Council.

The first major project was the 1982-83 Homecoming Dance, which was sponsored for the second year in a row by the Student Council. Thanks to fund-raiders, hard work, and cooperation, everyone enjoyed that special evening.

The Paper Drive, a White Basket Drive, bake sales, donations to charities, car washes, the P. T. S. A. carnival, and a Black History Month assembly added to the regular meetings and business to make for a productive and successful year.

Teen Club

The Teen Club re-opened the first week in September just in time for the beginning of the school year. Along with the new club came a new Director, Lisa Yenter, Assistant Director Priscilla Lugo, a Food Service Manager, Monkia Leonard and a Special Duty Soldier, sergeant Johnny Reyes. It kicked off it's new year putting together a Teen Council. The officers were:

|----------------|----------------|
| President | Mike Crenshaw |
| Vice President | Derrick Gould |
| Secretary | Mike Noel |
| Historian | Cinzia Iapaola |

Some of the events that took place this year consisted of: a Teen Forum in Berchtesgaden, Germany; a Lock-In with Munich; a trip to Munich and surrounding areas; a trip to Berlin; a 24-hour Dance Marathon; ski trips; Family Nights; a Variety Show; Parties; Dances; Group Talks; Cook-outs; Roller Discos; and other fun events.

Our lunch program has been successful thanks to our Food Service Manager Monika Leonard and assistant Johnny Reyes. They provided a good program, that provided an opportunity for the students to have lunch at their own club.

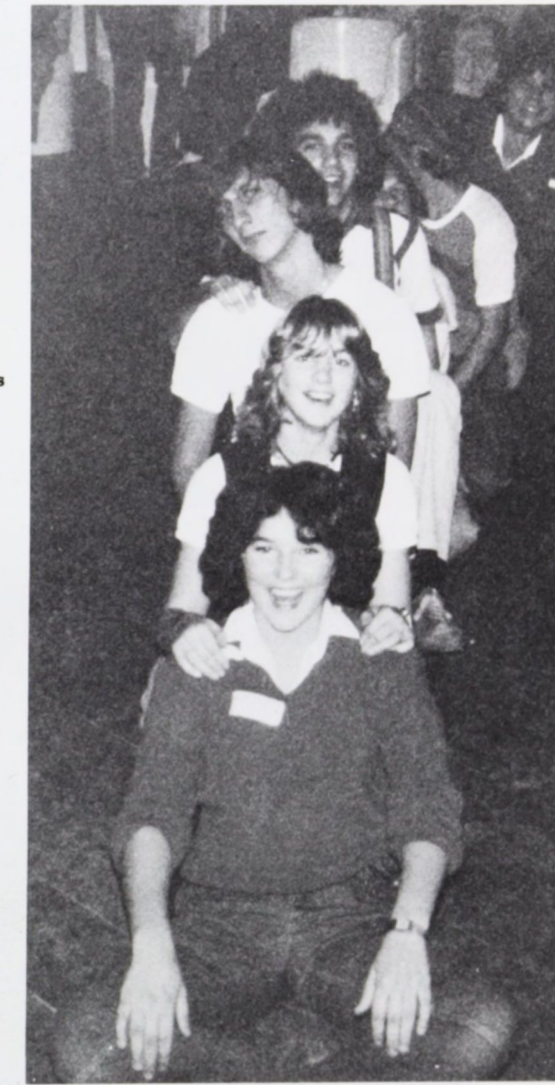

Some future events that the Teen Club has planned are: the Tour Contestant Trip; Backpacking Trip in the Alps; Camping in Livorno; and beach trips.

These activities, past and future, were made possible by the participation of our members totaling 181 students. Through their hard work and devotion towards the Teen Club, the year 1982-83 has been successful.

We would like to thank all the chaperones whose help and time made these events possible.

The Teen Club hopes that the following years will be as enjoyable as the past year.

Thank you,
Lisa Yenter

1982 PTSA Carnival

As usual, the PTSA Carnival was very successful. Among the many booths featured, there were a few that stood out. Pac - Man video, the Hautned House, Nerf - The - Nerd, and the dart throw were among the popular attractions. Teachers and sponsors were very pleased with how smoothly the carnival went this year. Congratulations to all who participated and to those who attended.

Homecoming

The 1982 Homecoming Court

October 23, 1982 holds an evening of sparkling memories for all those who attended the 1982 Homecoming. Dinner was held at the Officers' Club followed by a dance at the newly renovated Teen Club. Highlighting the evening was the announcement of the court. The attendants selected from their classes were as follows:

Freshman Attendants: Molly Solomon
John Rosario
Sophomore Attendants: Jana Alberghini
Chris Woolbright
Junior Attendants: Dawn Impola
Ron Tamura
Senior Attendants: Rosie Fanelli
Chris Cavoli

Dr. Brown then announced the Junior Princess and Prince as Kelly Burnette and Teddy Spittal, and 1982's Homecoming Queen and King as Cinzia Iapolo and Derrick Gould.

Overall, Homecoming proved to be a huge success that no doubt will be remembered for a long time to come.

NAPLES

That first night in Naples a couple of the Cougars noticed that one of the big homecoming signs had a couple of letters in the wrong place. Being polite cougars, James Greenwell, Steve Shinnick, Fred Mitchell, and Chuck Longhenry, arranged the words like they should have been "COUGARS CONQUER THE WILDCATS." While in Naples, the Cougars visited the ancient city of Herculanium. After the trip the coach took head count. One was missing, James Craig . . . when they finally found him, he said that he couldn't find his way out of the old bathroom . . . no one person was to blame for the mistakes made by the offense and the defense. The Cougars gave the Wildcats a real scare at the end of the half by being only 6 points down. At half time the score was 14-8. The Cougars just couldn't pull it together in the second half letting the score go to 28-8.

AVIANO

As in the past, the captains were named Saturday morning. Mike Crenshaw, Frank Rosario, and Teddy Spittal were chosen to lead the team. The offense just couldn't hold on to the ball due to the condition of the field; they fumbled 6 times in the first half. The big play of the game came when Art "Bullet" King stuck the saints Q.B. forcing him to cough the ball up and the swift moving Teddy Spittal grabbed it in mid-air and ran for a smooth 25 yard touchdown. In the second half, The Cougars started gang tackling, but the Saints proved to be just too much. The final score was 32-14.

SIGONELLA

The Cougars started the first half rather slow with Teddy Spittal scored from the one yard line. Peter West ran in the P.A.T., after Teddy's touchdown. At half time the score was 8-7, the Cougars. The game changed dramatically after the first half with Derrick Gould running a quick 5 yard touchdown. In the third quarter Derrick Gould made an 82 yard run to help raise the score. The final touchdown came when James Greenwell made an unbelievable interception and ran it back for 65 yards. The final score was 30-7 . . . the Cougars.

NAPLES

The Cougar offense just couldn't get the ball moving. They had several chances to score but either fumbled or got a pass intercepted. The game was a defensive game for the Cougars. Playing about 80% the defense held the Wildcats to only 14 points the whole game. The final score was 14-0.

AVIANO

The game was a disaster from the very first kick - off when Chuck Longhenry was hit by a line drive kick - off and Aviano gained position immediately. The Saints were having a field day by running back a kick - off, a punt, and forcing 2 fumbles within the 10 yard line. The Cougars only points came from a 25 yard field goal by Yung Su Nunn. The final score was 40-3.

SIGONELLA

While the Cougars were in Sigonella, Sicily, they decided to take a break and go swimming at the beach. While at the beach Massimo Yoshida thought that he would give the team lessons on how to avoid the bad rip - tides. The first touch down came when Mike Crenshaw made a 15 yard plunge for the first score. James Craig, the young and inexperienced Q. B., led the Cougars for the first half and a 8-6 lead. The Cougars had a rough time adjusting to the field conditions. Mike Crenshaw found it hard to run back his interception with only 40 yards of field. The Cougars second score came again from Mike Crenshaw on Q.B. keeper. The final score was 14-6 The Cougars . . .

The boys finished the 1982 Cross Country season with second place in the finals. The regional race was held on 29 October in Brindisi, Italy. Led by boys' captain Anthony Galindo, the boys captured a second place not far behind this year's champs, Brindisi. Team members were Anthony Galindo, Paul Ratcliffe, John Ratcliffe, Scott Merservey, Joel Rogers, Mike Cuddy, Marcus Rosenthal, Gary Duarte, and in the SETAF exhibition Sam Adams.

Undefeated and untied were the girls. The 1982 Cross Country Girls squad thrashed all teams from Italy, walking away with the championship with a score of 22. The girls in the regional race finished 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10, and 14, despite 3 runners getting lost on the course and one, Molly, losing her shoe! The girls can proudly proclaim they have accomplished much; this has been one of the strongest teams in Vicenza's history - the first champs in almost six years. Not only were they a squad, they were a "team". Team members were Kim Bannister, Shannon Christensen, Anne Emma, Ann Felker, Nancy Generelli, Dina Lehman, Franca Pilotta (captain), and Molly Solomon.

Both squads would like to express a very special thanks to Coach Hakim and Luke Bostian. Also our gratitude for all her rubdowns before the races and oranges following the victories to our noble manager, Michelle Rolik.

ANXIOUSLY awaiting the start!

The culmination of a fine season for the Cougars was the victory in the Championship match in Brindisi. After winning the Northern Division Title with an undefeated regular season, the Cougars were among the favorites to win the ASIL Championship. They won their first match, against Livorno, with no trouble, although they were tired from the long bus ride. Their second match, against Brindisi the next afternoon, was a disaster. Every Cougar was having a hard time "getting it together." Things began to look black as the defeat forced the Cougars to play Naples the next morning, Saturday. Realizing that this was their only chance, the Cougars began the match with determination. They put away the Wildcats in two games much to the relief and joy of the Cougar fans, and thus were qualified for the Championship match with Brindisi. Again, the Cougars were out to win, and win they did dropping only one game to a strong but outclassed Brindisi team.

The Cougars placed three girls on the All-Conference Team. They are Laurie Adams, Sue Cuddy, and Daniela DiCiccio, the three captains.

Vicenza also dominated the All-Tournament second team, with Laurie Adams, Sue Cuddy, Roxy Urner, and Donna White. Daniela DiCiccio was the only selection from Vicenza for the All-Tournament first team. Lisa Johnson, who did not make the All-Tournament team, was a strong player and is certainly very deserving of recognition.

The Cougars would like to thank Mr. Joe Pellerito and Johnny Kohut for their superb coaching and unending support.

The Vicenza Cougar team was successful this year with strong members filling all but two weight classes. The four returnees, Gary Duarte, Ron Tamura and John Hackett and Chris Cavoli, both all Italy Champions for 1982, brought about team spirit as well as provided skill and technique needed for a Cougar Victory. Among those teams pinned by the Cougars were O. S. R., Brindisi, Sigonella and Livorno. Regionals are to be held on February 24-26 in Naples, and, with their experience and training as well as such a great devotion, Vicenza is sure to come home winners.

We would like to thank Mr. Lou Vollero and Cpt. Tom Renton for their superb coaching, and Lisa Vollero and Patty Boudreau for mopping the mats. We love you!

"Cheerleaders Promote Spirit" Although most of this year's varsity cheerleaders were inexperienced, they generated a lot of Cougar enthusiasm by leading spirited cheers at the games and by putting signs up around the school.

Thanks to Coach Robin McClanahan and sponsors Ms. Oehmke and Ms. Elton for your support . . . (it would have been a very difficult year without you).

"All we're asking is to give us a chance. We're athletes; we practice just as long, just as hard as any other team and we deserve to be treated as such."

J. V. Cheerleaders

Pep Squad

This year, VAHS has something new to help promote school spirit: J. V. cheerleaders and a Pep Squad!

The J. V. Cheerleaders have come a long way from non-existence. Practicing after school, putting out their best effort, they have tried to encourage more from the school body. Being unexperienced, the team has had to work hard. The cheerleaders of 1982-83 are: Captain, Jennifer Ruff '86' Michele Dominguez '86; Tabatha Thomas '85; Maria Dilizio '85; Melanie Morgan '85' and Catreina Johnson '84.

Trying to get underway this year, the Pep Club has supported the cheerleaders during Pep assemblies and games. They practice after school learning the cheers and helping to make posters and sell spirit ribbons. They've been a welcome asset to VAHS in generating school spirit.

The sponsors, Suzy Elton and Rona Ohemke, put the club together just this year and thanks to all the girls, the club was successful.

1982-83 Ski Racers

The high points of the VAHS ski team's season are the two competitions in Garmish. The first, a preliminary qualifying race, takes place at the end of January and this year consisted of two runs through a Giant Slalom course set on the German Housberg. The team, despite its lack of junior members, did very well placing 2nd with 62 points in combined team standings. Main contributors were Laurie Adams who took first in the older girls division, and Marcus Rosenthal who placed third in younger boys.

In March the finals take place. Two runs through the Giant Slalom course are taken on Saturday, and on Sunday there are two runs through a Special Slalom course. Winners are determined in each of the categories as well as a combined champion for each of the four divisions: older and younger boys and girls. These second races are much tougher than the first but with additional members the VAHS team is planning on becoming #1 in Europe. Keiko Ratcliffe, Sam Adams and Christina Shinnick are all expected to do well, filling out the younger divisions, while the Veterans from the first race, experienced after training on ski club trips, should ensure a high placing in points for VAHS.

Veterans Laurie Adams and Kendall Pond made up the female half of the team at the first races. Because both were in the older division, the younger was left open to other teams to win points. In the competitive older guys division, veterans Brent Bendick and Scott Meservey, along with senior Steve Shinnick placed high while rookies Jim Hmmtt, Tony Cottrell and Charles Donaldson (despite a bad fall) also did well. Marcus Rosenthal dominated the younger division, winning a hard-earned bronze medal. The team, with new members and continued support from the Martins and Mr. Drakulich, hope to do equally well in the second and final races.

The team would like to thank Mr. Drakulich for his help in driving and organizing, Mrs. Martin for her excellent training and input, and Mr. Martin for all his support and help. Thank you!!

Despite a slow start because of a bad snow year, the VAHS ski club had a successful season under the dual sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Martin. Officers had been elected the previous year, making it easier to get things organized over the summer. Glen Gordon acted as treasurer, John Hackett as secretary, and the vice president and president were Scott Meservey and Laurie Adams.

Fund raising started early. More successful were weekends at the Booster Booth, a car wash, and a booth at the PTSA carnival under the expert sponsorship of Mr. Martin and Glen Gordon. At the 4th of July carnival, the club sponsored a not-too-profitable ping pong game constructed by John Hackett, Laurie and Steve Cavoli. Members had fun drinking and eating the prizes, but not too much money was made.

activities: a parent/member sign-up night with a ski-safety presentation by Mr. Pellerito. At the meeting members were able to take advantage of some excellent deals in ski equipment set up by Mrs. Martin. Pants, sweaters, and patches were available at good prices. Special deals on Dolomite boots were also obtained through a field trip to the factory in which members got a change to see how boots were made.

Interest in the club this year was very strong. Unfortunately, people had to be turned away from trips because of limited seating, but anyone who signed up early was eligible. Cortina, Arabba, Monte Bondone, Madonna di Compiglio and Marmolada were planned destinations of the ski club, but due to a lack of snow, many had to be cancelled and rescheduled.

Special thanks to our sponsors for all the time and effort put into making this year the best ever for our ski club!

National Honor Society

Prospective NJHS members and candy sellers

For the National Honor Society, it was an extremely productive and novel year. Although there were very few returning members, the NHS was able to enlist the help of some junior high students interested in selling candy and tutoring.

The NHS continued to use the money from candy sales for donations to charities, several trips to an Italian old folks home, and to pay the expenses for the induction ceremony in March.

Officers were: President: Daniela DiCiccio; Vice President: Sue Cuddy; Secretary: Franca Pilotta; Treasurer: David Austin

NHS Members: Kelly Burnette, David Austin, Franca Pilotta, sponsor Mr. Hakim, Chris Cavoli, Gisele Giorgi, John Ratcliffe, Daniela DiCiccio, and Sue Cuddy (not pictured: new members Lisa Scottorn and Glen Gordon)

The latest addition to the school is a charter for a National Junior Honor Society, open to students grades 8-9. Their induction was also in March, and was coordinated by the "old" NHS members; as this was the first charter of an NJHS at Vicenza.

Thanks goes to Mr. Hakim, the sponsor of both, and to the students who have worked so hard. May next year be as successful as this!

Italian Club

Members: Maria Scinicariello, Kitty Browne, Ruth Richardson, Lisa Scottorn, David Austin, Lisa Vollero, Gina Miller, Mauro Scottorn

This year has been quite an unusual one for the Italian Club: we have had about as many sponsors as members. Fortunately, all the adults concerned were more than willing to help in one way or another. They and their generosity will be missed . . .

There were few returnees to the club, all taking executive positions:

David Austin, president

Lisa Scottorn, vice president

Gisele Giorgi, treasurer

New to her job was Cinzia Iapaolo, who took Karen Bannister's place as secretary.

Our various sponsors were, in order of appearance: Ms. Lella Martin, a tremendous help in previous years and an ever greater one now; Mrs. Andriena Christianson, who brought all the charm of her personality to our various activities; Ms. Campesan, a novice to both our school and our club; and Ms. Marisa Refosco, and old hand, who, when not pregnant, has been our steadfast friend.

In addition to our fund raising activities (bake sales, faculty dinners, etc.) the Italian Club sponsored several memorable trips, one to downtown Vicenza, an Italian School, and a planned trip to Rome . . .

To next year's members: Buona Fortuna!!

The Bowling Club

The bowling club meets once a week after school at the bowling alley. The purpose of our club is to give participants a chance to improve their scores and have fun doing it. The club also competes against other schools, such as against Aviano last year in May.

Unfortunately, participation has been scarce, mostly because many students don't think that bowling can be fun. Only those who have participated know that that is not true. Many thanks to our sponsor, Mr. Chula, without whom our club would never have come to be.

Sponsor: Mr. Chula

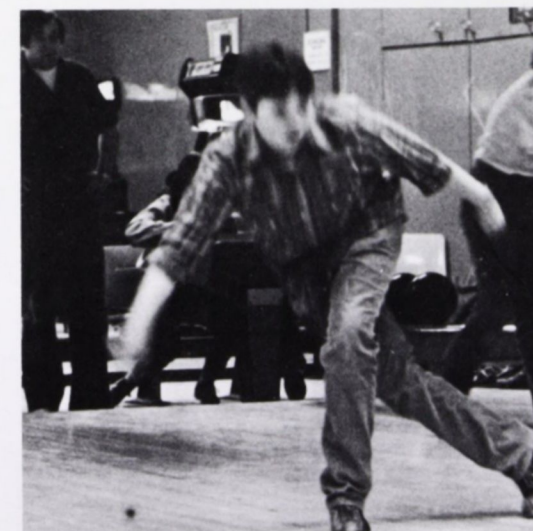

President: Denise Miller

Secretary: Eric Wawrzon

To help prepare students for the world of work, VAHS offers a career course elective called Cooperative Work Experience, also known in Cougar Country as COWEX. This course offers students a choice of three tracks: 1.) Exploratory: students try different jobs to find out what kind of work interests them; the student is permitted to change job sites each nine weeks. 2.) Vocational: the student finds a job that develops and trains skills that have been acquired in school such as business lab, auto mechanics, electronics, or computer science. 3.) Wage-earning: open to upper grades, these jobs pay wages in AAFES facilities and other places such as the NCO Club, Child Care Center, or Area Club Management Office. Consider getting into COWEX.

Visual Communications play an important part in our society; they link worlds that would otherwise be estranged. So, in order to comprehend and better use media, the Vicenza American High School, and Mr. Hakim, have set out to explain them in V. C.

In V. C., photography, journalism, moving picture and video techniques are studied extensively. The class publishes a bi-weekly newspaper, prints photographs, and tapes most important school events.

V. C., in conclusion, is a class in which students set out to find the secrets of visual expression, mostly through journalistic and photographic experience.

Yearbook Staff

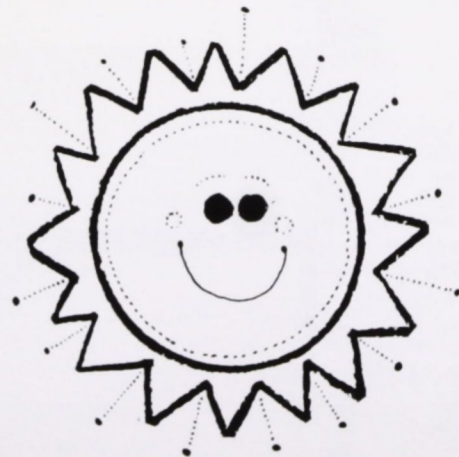

The yearbook staff of 1982-83 included Editor Kim Bannister, Karen Bannister, Sue Cuddy and Chuck Longhenry. This staff attempted to create a "different" look for this year's annual. A full spread senior page, more candid, a colorful cover and a theme of "Yesterday" gave diversity to the 1982-83 Nostra Italia.

Although having to tackle problems such as a reduction of the staff to two members, Sue Cuddy and Chuck Longhenry, and nonaccess to the Post Photolab, the staff succeeded in meeting its deadlines.

We would like to thank the following people for their help in contributing to the yearbook: Mr. Bruce Solomon, the yearbook sponsor, who never failed to listen to new ideas: Scott Meservey and Franca Pilotta who were always willing to develop pictures on their own time; Kim Pizzutti, Mike Cuddy, Bobby Whittaker, and Tom Colon, who took many of the pictures; all club presidents, sponsors and coaches who contributed with their writeups; all who bought yearbooks and patron ads.
