

WEST POINT SCHOOL

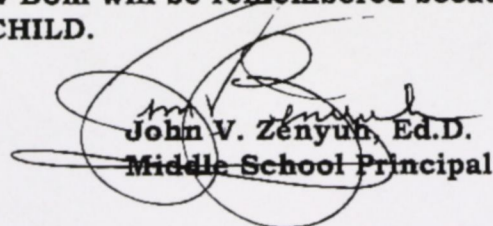

2003-2004

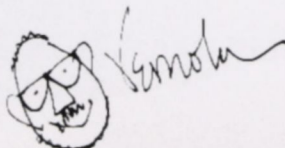

The 2003-2004
West Point School Yearbook is dedicated in memory of Dominic Vernola
West Point Middle School Teacher
1978-2003

Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote in 'Self Reliance' that "no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground that was provided him".

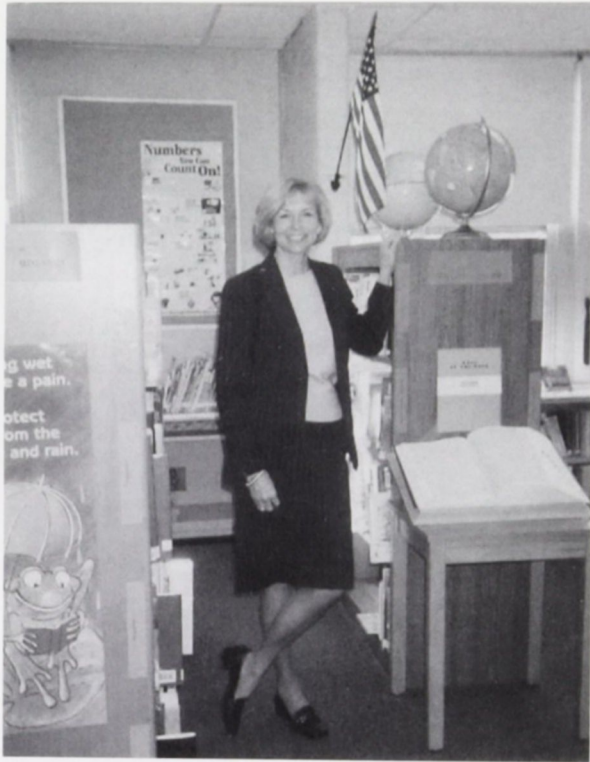

Dom Vernola was the consummate teacher with a passion for teaching children art as a form of communication. As a result of his daily toil, his students responded as if they were inoculated with his 'art passion serum'! Their art work, displayed in our main hall, serves as unequivocal proof of his effective teaching.

George Eliot wrote, 'Blessed is the influence of one true, loving human soul on another'. Dom's influence touched all of us. His caring, selfless love and great sense of humor touched our hearts every day. Years from now Dom will be remembered because he was important in the life of a CHILD.
