WARNING: Wandering Wildcats

Be on the lookout for Wiesbaden
Middle School's Wandering
Wildcats.
They could be anywhere . . .

In the hall-
ways, by their lockers, under their desks,
behind stair-
cases, lurking
in any shadow.

They're on the loose!

What they do
is worth watching

Observe their behavior. Some are loners, but most travel in packs. They are purposeful or playful, by turn.

They
could be anywhere!

You'll find them
with cold noses
in books, sniffing
out answers
to obscure
questions right before class.

Nothing is more ferocious than a grouchy Wildcat. How
you approach
one makes a difference.

Approach with an open mind

Wildcats can be tamed!

Usually loyal,
often helpful,
almost always
considerate, Wildcats are eager to try,
learn, succeed,
and progress.
and they do.

Each year it becomes easier to get students to participate in making the yearbook more of what they want it to be. This year's book is especially gratifying. A number of enthusiastic students dedicated many hours coping meticulously with the many pieces necessary to a yearbook. A small group of students, including Kim Disney, Amy Johnson, Cherish Mitchell, and Stephanie Pater, developed the theme and wrote the text. However, our biggest treat was finding, through the recommendation of art teacher Cal Bohner, two bright and talented artists whose drawings give life to our cover, introduction, and various sections throughout the book. We are honored to publish the illustrations of Erika Taguchi and Brandi Ellis.
