MORE OF EVERYONE

"ATTITUDE
Is Everything"

In Memoriam

Remembering Karen Kroseman and Roosevelt Bradley

During 1988, two Wiesbaden Middle School teachers lost their battles against the ravages of cancer. Karen Kroseman, who taught typing and business skills, and Roosevelt Bradley, who taught mathematics, were two dedicated teachers who personified caring, competence, and quiet dignity. Together they influenced and enriched the lives of thousands of students.

In remembrance of their unflagging commitments to excellence, to learning, and to youngsters, we have planted two trees on our campus, one which begins the school year with the rich, vibrant colors of fall and one which ends the school year with the bright blossoms and bouquet of spring. As the trees grow, they will serve as ever more powerful reminders of Karen and Brad, two who made a difference.
