great to have in this school!

Above Ms. Beverly Brinn seems to be pointing to the excellent speech communication article recently received.

Dr. Frankie Nielsen, our school counselor, can fix any problem you have.
To the left above is Ms. Eileen Perreault and below her is Ms. Helene Bergmann, our "Sprechen Sie Deutsch?" teacher!

Teachers and teachers!

Above Ms. Phyllis Scott keeps the typewriters and business program in excellent order. To the right is Ms. Phyllis Bruhacs, our media specialist. Bottom right is Mr. Tom Snyder explaining to Ms. Durrett that in his day it was called an AVID, uh, library. Below is Ms. Jena Hancock who proudly boasts that she has the most students on a daily basis at WAMS!

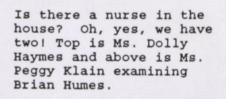

Mr. Charles McCarter and Ms. Bernie Steele discuss art and computers on a teacher workday!

Look Mom!
We made these in Tech Ed!

To the left is Mr. Barry Cox somewhere. Joe, Danielle, and Alesha are happy to be in Tech Ed.!

To know Ms. Lisa Pearson and Ms. Jennifer Stradley is a pleasure to all students!

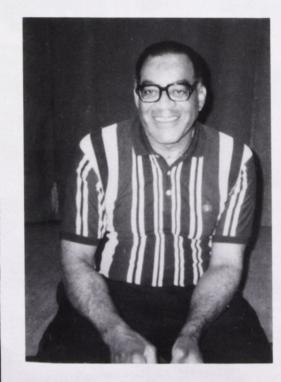

Mr. Kroon wonders if he's a natural lefty! Play ball!

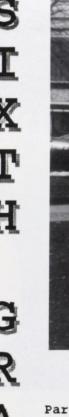

To the left Mr. Bill Chaffin welcomes two new ESL students.

Below is Mr. Bob Jenkins, the ultimate PE teacher. WOWS!

We're not teachers, but we want to be. Welcome to WAMS!

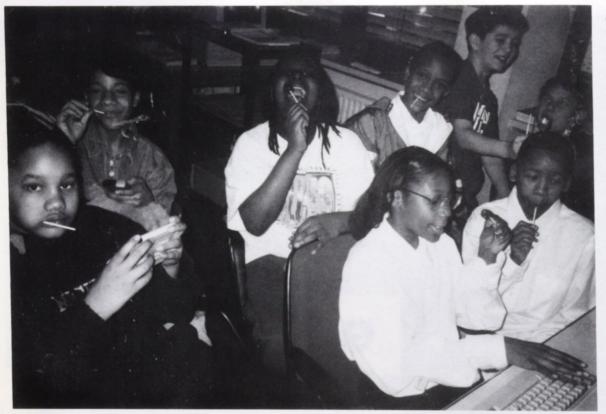

Part of the sixth grade team is posing for the camera. From left to right are Ms. Synder, Ms. Moser, Ms. Klain, Ms. McGinn, Mr. Jude, and Ms. Pearson. Supervising the outside activities during prime time is not only work but a great deal of fun also. Below is Ms. Synder and Ms. Thompson giving Gavin some directions.

Maria and Anaya !

So here you have the fabulous 8th grade. WAMS says good-bye and good luck as you continue to high school.

Student Council members Danny, Jai-Sun, Sabrina, Lace, Maria, Matt, Ariana, Nicole, Chris, Travis, and Kim have a friendly smile for you. Some you can't see. The student council discusses issues of the school with the great tutelage and oratorical skills of Mr. Tom Gothia.

DA BAND...

Of course, we owe a big debt of gratitude to Ms. Hancock whose efforts took the intermediate band to Prague. We couldn't have gone if we didn't have such wonderful adults to keep tabs on us.

Ms. Stradley shows Jamal, Greg, and Katie some pointers on the WAMS newspaper, a big hit with all students.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

AVID GOES TRIPPING! Said Teamwork Towers builds confidence. I'

FBLA sponsor Ms. Scott selling what Mr. Scott cooked. The proceeds go for the fall and spring FBLA conferences.

Shannon Brantley: ...and Mr. Synder confidence. I'm just thrilled!

Above FBLA members Danielle, Bria, Nicole, and Dominique take a break from business. They helped sell many days to raise money to offset the high cost of travelling to conferences. See you there!

Above right are Sabrina and Ana thinking twice about the outdoor education trip to Hinterbrand Lodge. We actually had to use a broom! Below the guys don't look too happy cleaning their own mess. Of course Amy and Tina seem easily pleased. By the way, why was Mr. Gothia living the life of Riley while we were roughing it? Well, we want to do it again and again and again. THE GREAT OUTDOORS!

We wonder if they're gonna throw us in that icy river again!

OUTDOOR EDUCATION

The greatest group that a yearbook advisor could ever want to work with. Well, Dwayne is certainly enjoying it! Below is Abby and Monica thinking of Mr. Gothia, er, excuse us, the deadline. Then, Heather is always a happy student. Many thanks to Serwah, Angela and Lauren who were absent for this photo.

Alexis and Amelia were super helpers!
