Wiesbaden Middle School Wiesbaden, Germany 1998-1999

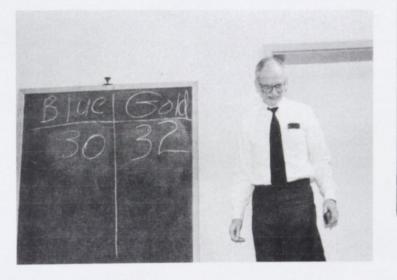

Dr. Scott Hendrick, principal of Wiesbaden American Middle School, and admin assistant, Ms. Tammy Martz, are the epitome of teamwork and spirit in this school---as defined by the doctor of spirit---Mr. Howard Bridgman who organized and directed the four days of spirit games and fun. To the right are but a few of the highlights of special spirit days!

Let's get into Spirit Day at WAMS!

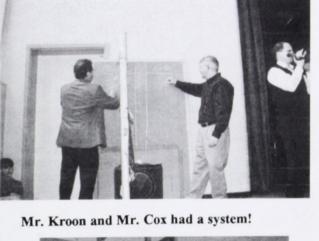

Dr. Hendrick got a chance to practice his 2's by keeping score.

The band was there!

Two great shots of the blue and gold. Let's not forget the positive energy teachers who strutted their stuff to the sound of the WAMS Band. Gosh, it was loud and fun. Mr. Bridgman had it all together for this day of fun!

Mr. Lambert Kroon Assistant Principal

Ms. Beverly Brinn Communications Specialist

We make things happen! Need equipment or supplies? Need discipline? Need help with communications? Need to talk and receive some advice! We're here for you.

Mr. Randy LaRose Supply Specialist Dr. Frankie Nielsen Counselor

Who is this Doctor Seuss? Why the hat? What does that have to do with reading? That's too much fun!

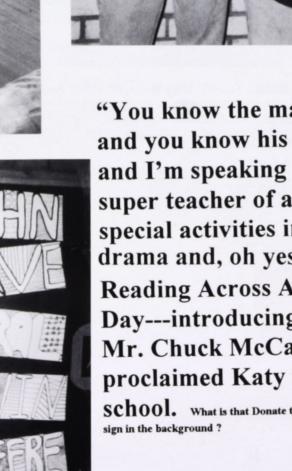

Community Commander, Lt. Col Irene
Mauss, was one of the great readers of the day.
To the left is Mr. Noel Tillman with Ms. Kathy Tillman in the background. Together, they captivated the young audience. Come back again!

"You know the man and you know his work, and I'm speaking of super teacher of art and special activities in drama and, oh yes, the Reading Across America Day---introducing Mr. Chuck McCarter," proclaimed Katy to the school. What is that Donate to the Homeless sign in the background?

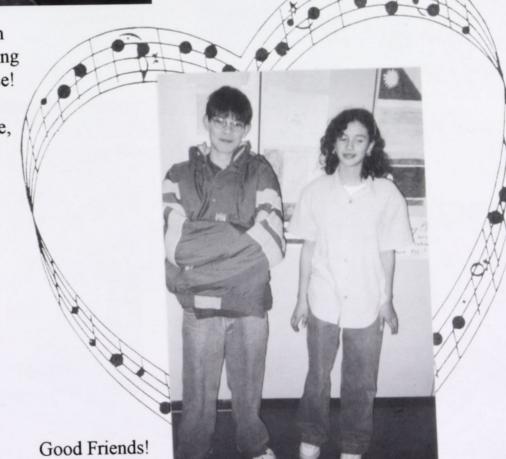

A fantasic science teacher, team leader, and fun person, Ms. Jan Thompson!

Dr. Hendrick is in a sixth grade classroom and trying on an Egyptian headpiece! Damaris, Natalia, Kourtney, Martha, Jessie, and Adam join in on the fun.

Well, it all started on Feb. 25, 1999, when a tearful Dr. Hendrick paused by our busses to bid us farewell on our field trip to Hanau Hessen Bowl and also the skating rink.

Ms. Pat Schiener, 6th grade social studies and math

We have a lot of 6th graders doing some interesting things. For example, Lalek is not too happy with the computer paper, Billy just learned the Dallas Cowboys got slaughtered, Renea got caught doing something, A.J. is upset, Geoffe tried three days to hang a storybook, Danita can't stand the lights, and she just fell asleep on a field trip bus! Wonderful words are often spoken in pictures!

Brandi is explaining her FBLA trip to Kasierslautern during the 6th grade....and I actually divided the room. I couldn't leave and she couldn't leave. Then Mr. Jude was pounding on the door at midnight to see if we were OK. I couldn't answer the door because I couldn't cross the other half of the room. He had to get the hotel staff to check on us. I'll never forget it.

CROSS COUNTRY

We ran mile after mile in rain, sleet, snow, and mud. All we got was our picture taken! No, that's not true; we had the excellent company of each other and the wonderful trainer, Ms. Lesley Walden. We thank her deeply for the extra time she spent with us.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The careful tutelage of the world's greatest orator, Mr. Tom Gothia, is all that is necessary to operate the WAMS Student Council. The Student Council meets twice a week to discuss important school matters and to make sure all students have a voice in school affairs. Mr. Gothia is an expert in introducing important issues, such as the student handbook, the school calendar, dances, or any other activity has to first be discussed and approved by students themselves. The WAMS Student Council is any important part of WAMS school life!

To the left is Mr. Gothia declaring the beginning of a general meeting. He takes the advisory role quite seriously as you can see from this photo. We're happy that you are one of us, with us, and working for us, Mr. Gothia!
