GOOD MORNING, LIZ!

Good morning, Liz! A beautiful day
To watch the leaves as they fall away
And drift to earth in their natural way

I watch the children left in our care
And think how much I wish you were there
Not a moment wasted, none to spare

The day goes by as so many do
With much to teach, how the hours flew
Do you know how much we are missing you

The afternoon has come at last
It wasn't too slow and surely not fast
See the shadows are lengthening very fast

Good evening, Liz, home safe and sound
These token goods that lie around
Seem smaller now as tears abound

Good night, Dear Friend, a fond farewell
My heart to yours, I'll sit a spell
And of your life and goodness tell

Forever, Liz, you're in our hearts
A part of us that thrives and starts
To blossom and grow and never departs

TRUSTED COUNSELOR, & CHERISHED FRIEND
