2010-2011

What? Me worry? I'm ready for a great year!

THINK WELL
DO WELL
BE WELL

FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

There is a purpose to all this confusion, trust us! What do you expect for the first day of school, meeting new students, greeting friends, and just having a social life?

Newly appointed principal Chuck Fannin is wishing he had a whistle or an assistant, but appreciating that he does have a schedule for all these students. Now, how did I do this in Alaska?

WILDCATS

Hi, yes, we are back and want to do awesome things this school year.

The Wiesbaden High School Color Guard regularly helps our school with posting of the colors at our ceremonies. A great group of young adults.

No, no, see, today is serious. I am also an actress and I know these things. When I hold up 3 fingers, you read these lines. I'll take it from there. Well, we think that is what organizer Dr. Hill is saying to Mr. Fannin, our principal.

Our very own, Ms. Dixon, and veteran, spoke about her remembrances of 9/11.

Col. Dill, the Wiesbaden Garrison Commander, sent chills down all the veterans' backs with his patriotic words.

PATRIOTS DAY, REMEMBERING 9/11

Each year since 9/11, our school body assembles outside near the flagpole area to acknowledge the horrible events of 9/11 and to show our gratitude to those who have served or are serving in the military. While it's not a pleasant remembrance, it is defininitely patriotic!

Part of our student body pays their respects to the flag. All in all, our student body fully understand the significance of 9/11 in our history and why we care!

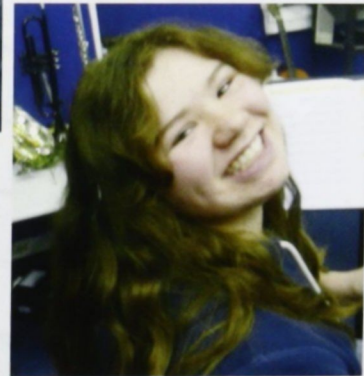

STROLLING AROUND THE SCHOOL!

.....who knows what you will see!

The "take a baby home"
program is a favorite part of Ms. Willman's FCS classes.

Mr. Fannin is always in the background admiring good things from teachers and students. The school is like a bulletin board! Now cross his path and he'll be in the foreground very quickly.

Now let's play.....Mary had a little lamb, little lamb, and its fleece was white as snow.

John Carter says that his mom used to teach at WMS but now at the high school. He does not want anyone to know
that his mom is a teacher. He'll watch this baby! FCS rocks!

Renee, Renee, back
from a vacation in Guam. Let's hope
this baby keeps her awake.

Mr. Lee, Mr. Lee, look at me when I talk! I really love teachers and especially the way they cooperate when the subject of education comes up. Look on the next pages and you'll see some of the best.

Well, I'll hve to ask Mr. Jude where you will find the Alamo. Now I know the car rental agency but the old Alamo fort is in Texas somewhere.

My mama said to just smile and nod, no, that was Mr. Lawrence who said that, explains Jasmine.

THE WMS STAFF

Sam has his hands full!

Friends forever and we will both buy this yearbook!

Holland and Elle, two 8th grade scholars and soon-to-be Warriors. Right now, they're proud to be WILDCATS.

I'm Maresa Laxa, the school nurse, and I like this yearbook. I endorse it

I'm Chuck Fannin, principal of Wiesbaden Middle School. This has been my first year at this school and my first year in Germany. I just want to tell you that I am so impressed with this school, the students, and the community that I have decided to stay for the rest of my tour. To that end, I have decided to change the look of the doors to our main building so bear with us during the repairs this summer.

MS. PEGGY BAIRD IS RETIRING!

After 32 years of federal service as a science teacher, Ms. Peggy Baird has decided to hang it up, that is, hang her hat in her new home in Trustville, Alabama, where she hope to enjoy the life after retirement. Peggy stated that she has had a great career and thanks all her present and former colleagues, the FEA, and our present principal, Mr. Chuck Fannin, who have supported her and admired her science teaching. She also stated that she has made many friends within the DODDS family and will always cherish her years of federal service.

The school staff and students are saddened to lose such a pleasant and talented teacher and a great friend to all, but we are happy that Ms. Baird will continue to bring happiness to those in her "new world."

WILDCAT TERRITORY

Bestowed by WMS 2006-2007 Students

Lots of exciting things happen in the 6th grade hallway; Drama comedy, and romance, but most likely, friendship!

6th graders are hardworking and dedicated to their work. They set goals and try to achieve them.

The best part about 6th grade is lunch. This is because you are able to spend time with your friends.

Mr. Jude gives Makayla some pointers on how to work the yearbook website.

Mrs. Schiener is the best social studies teacher in the school!! We do lots of fun projects in her class. My favorite was the Egyptian Tomb Project. That was very fun to study about.

GO WILDCATS!!

There is much more to school than just going to class. In spare time, if there is such a thing, 6th graders like to share a laugh and spend some time with their friends. Here is Mariam getting in her locker, Amber giving the staredown, Katie reading a book, Grace enjoying a moment, and the others, well, they're just happy to have their picture taken.

Teachers should have to pay them just to have them in class.

SPELLING BEE CHAMP Katie Peters

Mr. Lawrence could not spell "feverishly" but Katie could when it counted. That's right, Katie represented the school in a spelling bee contest sponsored by the PTSO. About 20 contestants spelled their hearts out, but Katie, a 6th grader, came out on top! The event was held at the high school auditorum. Next, she goes to the Europeans, probably to be held in mid March in Ramstein. We're sure she will win or at the very least place near the top because Katie is all heart and has that competitive fever.

Yes, yes, the gang is all here! It makes no difference if you're looking for Daniel, Alex, River, Sebastian, Tiaunte, James, Anthony, Justus, or Ricardo, hopefully you will find him on this page!

MATH COUNTS AND MR. BRUCE GO HAND IN HAND

They went to Heidelberg about mid-February to participate in the Europe wide math event in Heidelberg. They were winners and placed well representing the Wildcats. Oh, Mr. Dave Bruce is the sponsor. Pictured are Aidan McIntyre, Michael Ross, Kyra Fullam, Isaiah Bednash in the back and Jacob Rodriguez, Nicholas Dellacroce, and Marcus Ross in the front.

Front row: Lauren Brashear, Renee Pickard, Makayla Brown, Ayanna Ervin, Samantha Wieman, Christine Arnold, Joleen Aulger

STUDENT COUNCIL

Megan Jarrell was elected president of the WMS student council. In an interview, she stated that the student council is all about student government, service projects, set up at the dances, arranging spirit week and the soon to be once a month spirit day, and any other service projects that come their way. According to Mr. Lawrence, the sponsor, Megan has far exceeded any expectations of the SC president. As for Megan, she hopes to continue with her participation in WAHOOS, the community YS swim team, and possibility pursue a career as an athlete. Her personal favorite event is the 50M freestyle. The school is proud to have such a leader and we are sure we will hear more of Megan in the future.

Ms. Cindy Fry

It is indeed a great honor to be in NJHS. According to Ms. Jones, faculty sponsor, not pictured but her trusted assistant, Ms. Fry was present, the next induction will probably be in April and that is when several more members will be added to this illustrious organization. The honor is passed on year to year with constantly budding youngsters being inducted. This school is served well with Ms. Jones and Ms Fry. We love them to pieces!

NJHS

Here they are: the leaders of the school, those who excel in all classes, GPA, standardized tests, leading others by example. They don't wear a badge, they lead by example. Below is Will Watkins, president, keeping a close eye on things, particularly the baked items and candy grams, fund raisers for their exclusive club.

.....and let's not forget the customers. It's lunch, hungry people are ready for the baked goodies, and they are cheap. Moans and groans of yummiie, oh, my goodness, and delicious filled the air.

O U T D O O R E D U C A T I O N

THE DEEP WOODS, HIKING, ROCK CLIMBING, AND THE FITNESS TRAIL ARE VERY DEMANDING AND GREAT FOR OUR STUDENTS.

Supervisory Management Support Specialist involved with Outdoor Education? No doubt Scott Haines is dedicated to physical fitness and the enjoyment of our middle school children as proven by all the time he spends as a volunteer on outdoor trips almost weekly. Above, he is pictured with Katie at an outing. A great contribution, Scott's Christmas markets, bowling, ice skating, swimming, visit to Red Baron's park, Keltterwald, Hiking, fitness trails, fasanerie, rock climbing and even canoeing are some events attributed to Scott's arrangements, a lot of work, preparation, and logistics. We are grateful and he has lots of activities planned for the spring.

OUTDOOR EDUCATION

On this page, mostly 6th graders enjoy the Christmas Market, swimming and ice skating.

I walk about a mile a day, make 10 phone calls, collect money, collect and correct permission forms, arrange transportation, meet with participants, contact parents, and many other related duties to organize just one trip. I do it for the kids of WMS.

.....Scott Haines

.....and, don't rock the boat, Mr. Fannin does not like water and can't swim.

WIESBADEN

DODDS-Europe Junior Leadership Seminar

Junior Leadership Seminar (JLS) is a DODDS-Europe sponsored event for 7th and 8th grade students. The vision of JLS is to foster students' strengths and skills to prepare students to be leaders in an interdependent global community. Wildcats who attended the JLS this year are Frank Whalen, Nick Whalen, Jack Whalen, Abigail Zellmer, Brianna Drew, Nadia Hernandez-Lopez, and Allyssa Williams. The school sponsor of this event was Dr. Frankie Nielsen, school counselor.

A ROCKING BAND AMONG WMS WILDCATS

No, this not the school band, just a group that meets in room 156 every day under the careful tutelage of Mr. Bruce to rock up the room and hallway to the tunes of hard rock. They sound great and looking for places to perform. Pictured are Jason, Sara, Mitch and Jeffrey. We wish them luck!

Nobody does art appreciation better than Ms. Schiener. Just look at her room decorations and ask to see some of the work and projects she does with students. Pictured are Dante, Savannah, Wednesday, Jeremiah, and Alyson.

ART CLUB

We were lucky to find Ms. Schiener just getting ready to explain the after school activity to her art club

WMS RECYCLING CLUB

So, you want to know what we do besides make noise doing seminar time. Well, we have lots of fun under the direction of Mr. Thomas. We persuade teachers to have a box of paper in the hallway each week and then we come around with our huge trash bags, collect that trash, return the box, and then see if we can fill up a bin back behind the school. We do this for our environment because recycling of all is trash, especially paper, can make our earth a better place and preserve a future for all mankind. Better still, we have a friendship unmatched by any other club. We are proud of what we do.

Below right are recipients of honor certificates in Feb. Then there's Mr. D. getting ready to sing. Can you find an 8th grader on this page? And yes, Ms. Del Rio, you will be missed.

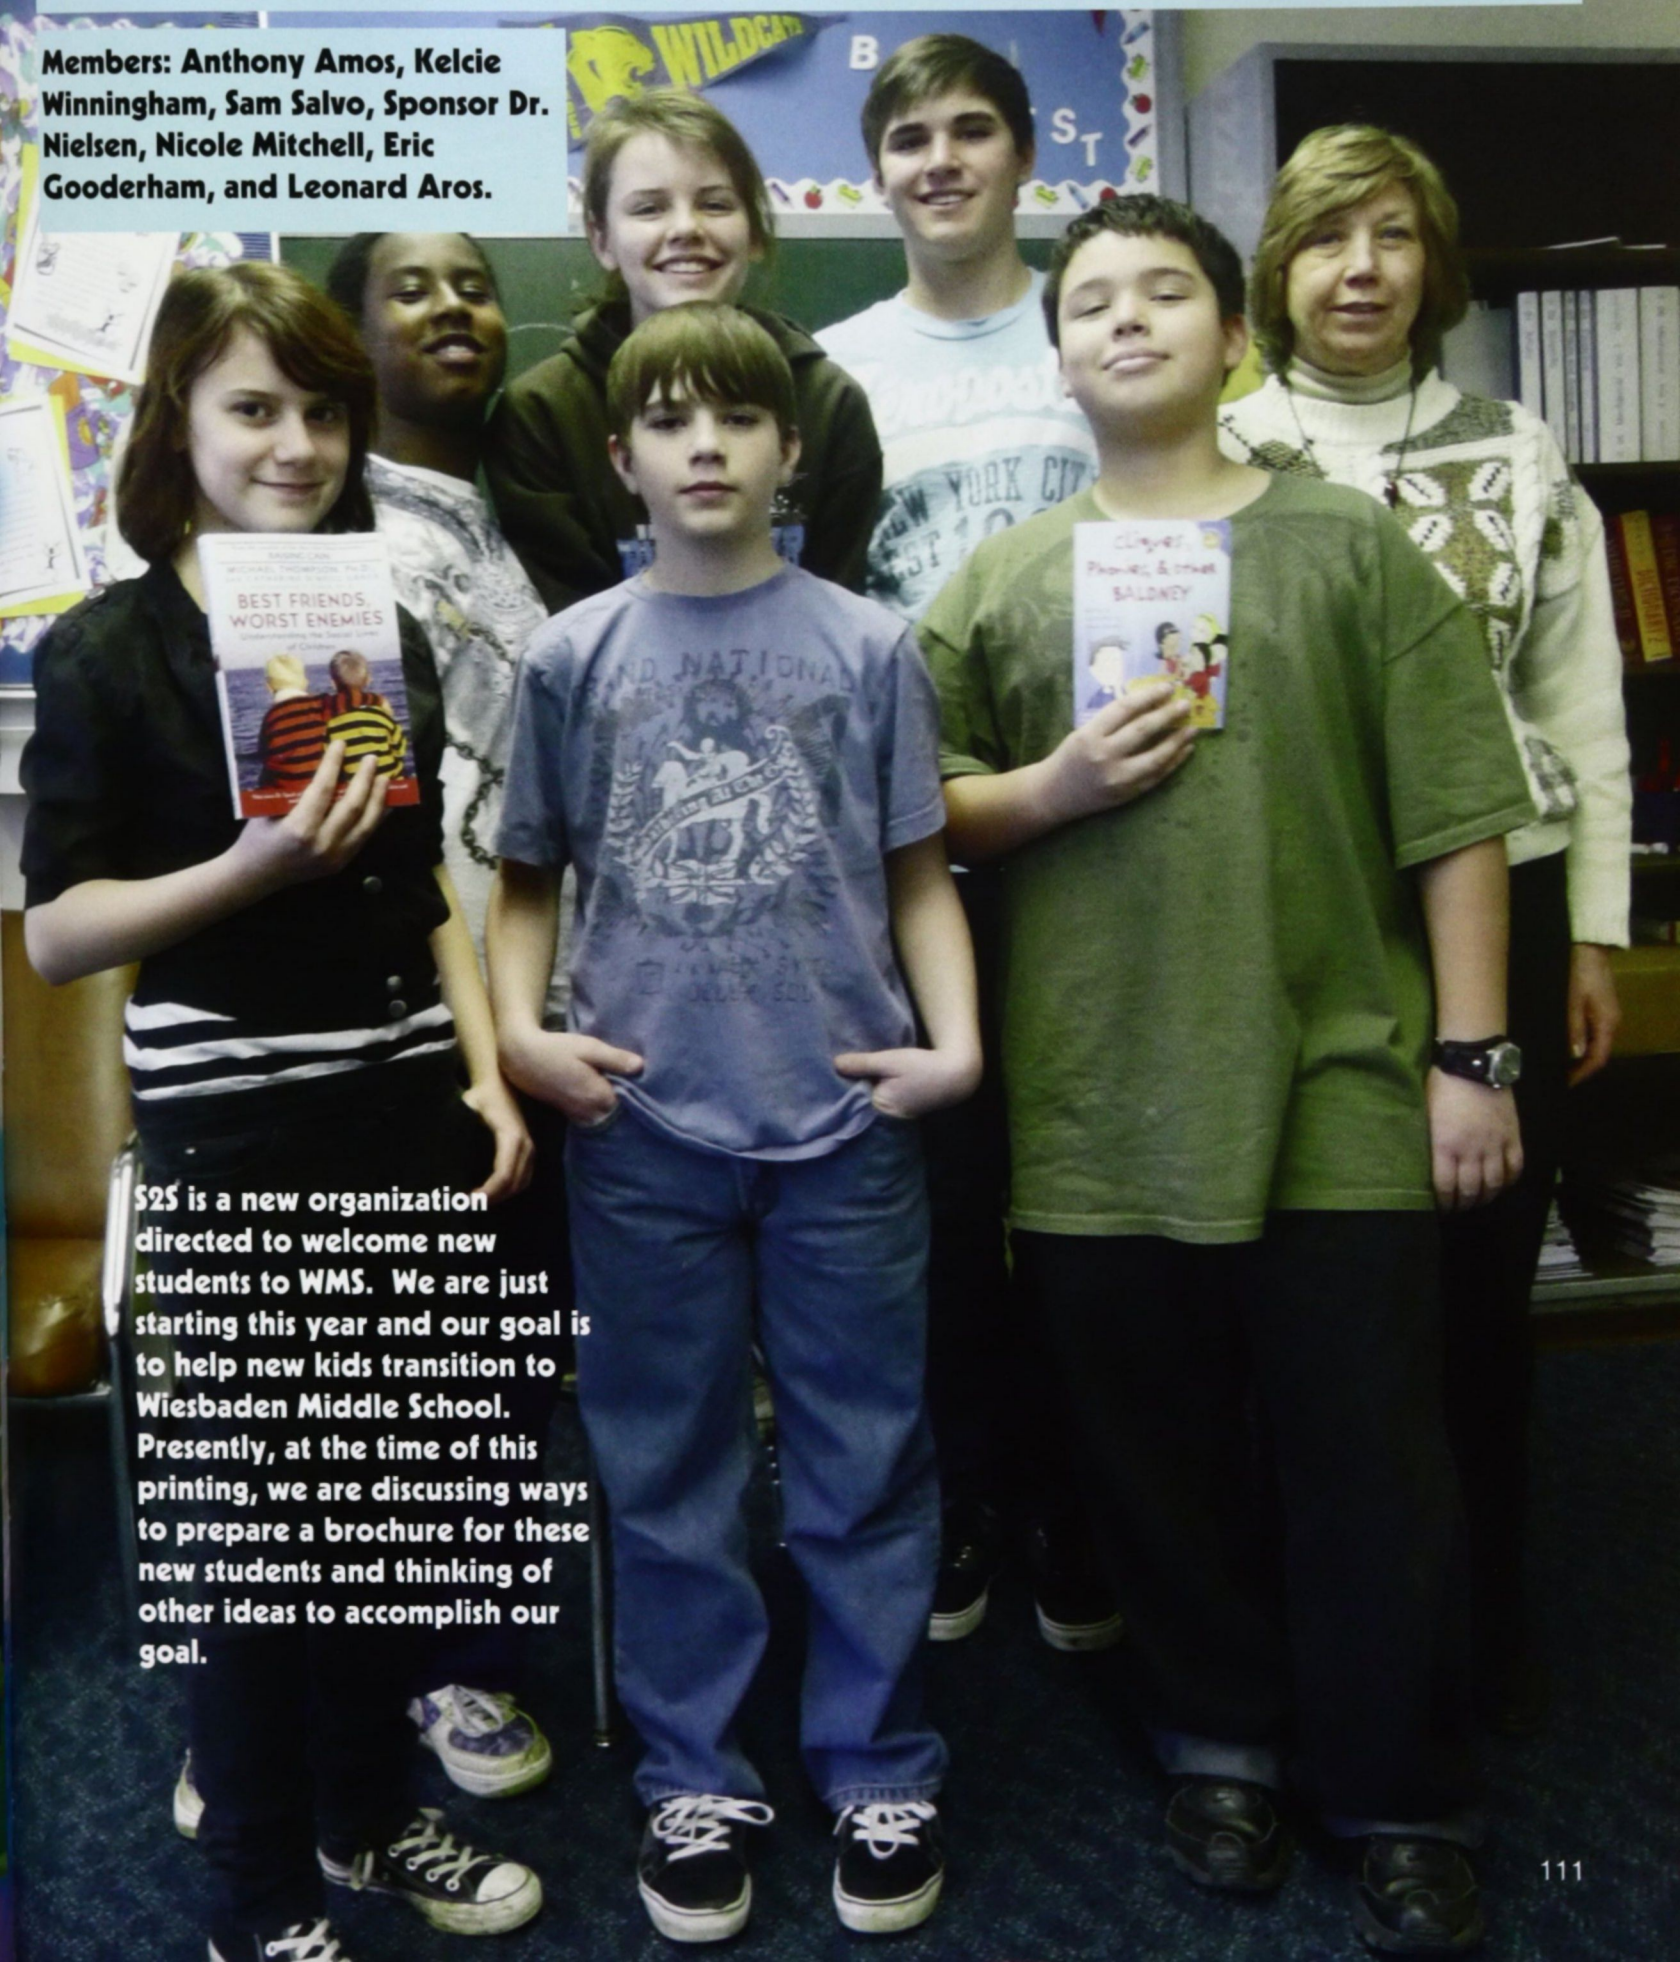

We don't give the 7th grade teachers anything to complain about and we have no complaints about them.

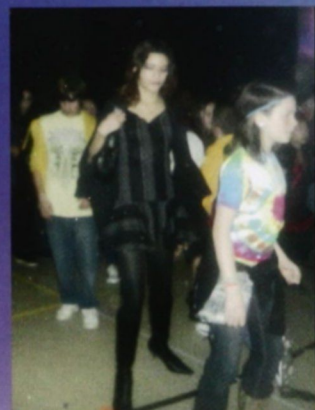

S2S or STUDENT TO STUDENT

Members: Anthony Amos, Kelcie Winningham, Sam Salvo, Sponsor Dr. Nielsen, Nicole Mitchell, Eric Gooderham, and Leonard Aros.

S2S is a new organization directed to welcome new students to WMS. We are just starting this year and our goal is to help new kids transition to Wiesbaden Middle School. Presently, at the time of this printing, we are discussing ways to prepare a brochure for these new students and thinking of other ideas to accomplish our goal.

HALLOWEEN

DANCE

Nicely dressed students, costumes, food, lots of music and fun, magnificently organized by the student council and the PTSO, this dance was DA Greatest!

Little information can be forthcoming from Dr. Hill on the big dramatic play scheduled for May. Maybe by the time you get this yearbook, you'll know. Cast members above are Dominique Huff, Ashley Buzbee, Kyra Fullam, Kaitlyn Kelly, Maria Williams, Monique Tankersly, Anthony Williams, and Dr. Vivla Hill at the very front. Below left and right are cast members who stuck around for one more smile. In the middle is Dr. Hill and Mr. Gerry in one of their play productions from the Amelia Playhouse. We feel our school is lucky to have a multitasking teacher such as Dr. Hill involved with our activities.

YEARBOOK STAFF

7th graders Maddie Carr and Jordan Robinson

HEART OF THE YEARBOOK STAFF

Makayla Brown, Jasmine Fleming, and Kambria Price are three talented 6th graders who were instrumental in making this yearbook. Always coming through with layouts, taking pictures, and always ready to take any assignment. Just absolutely terrific students to whom a great deal of gratitude is owed. They were the heart of the yearbook staff. Dominique Huff and Samantha Wieman joined late and were very helpful.

On behalf of the school, all students, and the community, I thank all of you "youngsters" on this page so much for your work! It was really a great pleasure to work with you, push you, criticize your work, make you do it over, but the results are incomparable! There was input from other students not mentioned and also Ms. Fry, Ms. Kimelman, and Mr. Gerritson for some of their photos.

Ed Jude, Advisor

SURVIVORS

These 8th graders have been prepared for high school in science and math because they survived Mr. Bruce's classes. Yes, Mr. Bruce runs them hard through all the loops, but he offers love as well.
