HOME OF THE WILDCATS

WE ROCK

Nothing less than a smile and a friendly greeting await you as you enter WMS!

WMS OFFICE STAFF

Above left is Ms. Angela Ayers, our attendance clerk, and to the right is Ms. Jaime Fuller, our school registrar. Ms. Donna Pendzich is our school secretary and admin assistant. Below left is Mr. Walt Lee, our supply specialist and soon to leave to greener pastures so he says and below right is Mr. Scott Haines, our admin officer.

WMS TEAM WORK

REMEMBERING 9/11

Each year, our entire school gathers at the middle school flag pole to commemorate the events of 9/11 and to do our part to the world that we will not forget. Above, Principal Chuck Fannin, Dr. Vivla Hill, the coordinator of this event, and Assistant Principal Jeff Pond start the ceremony.

To the right are Mr. Buce and Mr., Haines, both veterans and valuable members of the WMS staff.

Mr. Pond with our guest speaker, Col Hemsley.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE.....

Left: Mr. Fannin to Dr. Hill, "Did you get your lines right this year?" Right: Dr. Nielsen to Col. Hemsley, "If I can join up, I'll counsel soldiers."

Above is Tristan Mann on his way to the ceremony. Center is Ms. Cindy Fry who has consistently given her heart and soul to our middle schoolers and if she leaves, we will miss her tremendously! Far right are Mr. Davatelis and Mr. Ibarra. Mr. Walt Lee, veteran, just smiles, wanting to know why he is leaving WMS.

Aaigh, aaigh, don't worry, Mr. Bruce, she's not back! Emily is part of the high school honor guard.. She's back in HS after the ceremony. And yes, we think of you Emily.

Anthony and Sierra watching carefully and feeling very patriotic.

SCHOOL DRAMA WITH DR. HILL

Dr. Hill presents this play, The Christmas Carol, and the cast is below. Do you realize the number of extra hours she spends getting this play and props into production. Dr. Hill is also planning another play production for late spring.

Dr. Hill is heavily involved in drama and play participation in the community. What a teacher! Doctor of law, actress, teacher, mother, grandmother and that's not all. She is very involved in extra school activities such as constitution day, the encore team leader, just a magnificent person. When you get a chance, congratulate her.

Nick Malacasta has the lead role of the play, The Christmas Carol. He is playing as Ebenzer Scrooge. Congrats Nick!

Outdoor Club

Mr. Cantu went with the kids. He said he is used to the hard work from his Texas oil rig days.

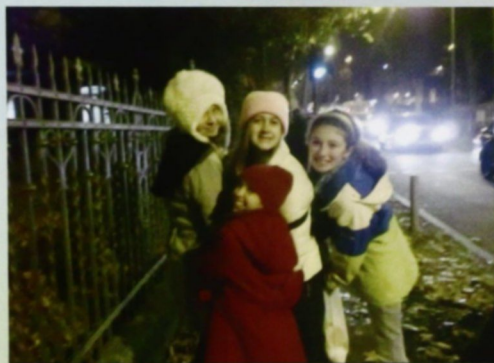

Mr. Scott Haines has many plans for the Outdoor Club as the school year goes by. You can see him above as he views the students and wonders that if he could go back a few years (actually many years) he would wish for such an activity. In this photo are the group members as they pose at the end of the activity, tired, and ready to go home. You can also see many of the other participating students above.

GUITAR CLASS ROCKS

Michael plays and also sings, Alex seems self confident, and then there is Daniel just knowing he will someday play in a big band.

LUNCH TIME!

Everyday at 10:55 WMS students walk over to the cafeteria to enjoy lunch. Lunch is the time when we all get with our friends! We sit together as we eat and talk about what happened during class or what our after school plans are! Lunch is also a time that we can forget about school work for a short 35 minutes and enjoy spending time with our friends. We can go outside and hang out and create memories that could last a life time! We can act as crazy as we want without any naggin' from the teachers for bein' too loud! :)

Geometry

Just a small part of the reason WMS functions so well!

Here at Wiesbaden Middle School, the teachers work very hard at teaching the students skills that will help them not only with their school work, but in life as well. They help the students achieve their goals. The teachers at WMS care about the students and help them in every way to help the students succeed.

To the left, Ms. Ponte is hard at work as she teaches her 6th graders some math. Below, Dr. Jerez teaches the 7th graders about health.

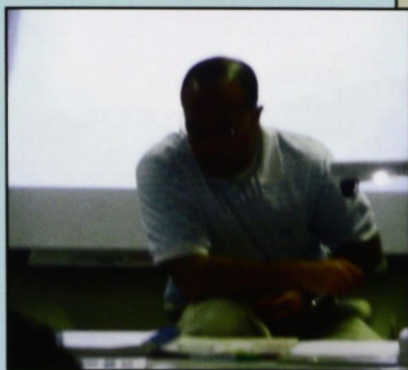

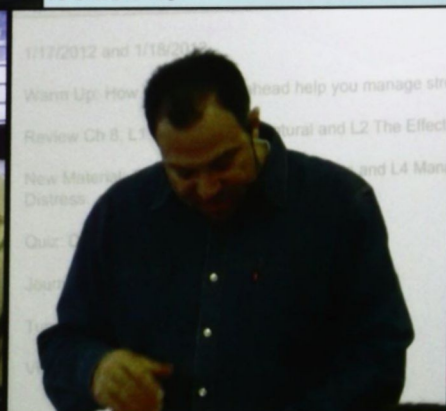

Mr. Thomas takes the time to stop and pose for a pic!

Ms. Scheiner is very good at multi-tasking.

Above, Mr. Lawrence takes the time to grade papers during his free period. To the right, Mrs. Morrison watches her student perform a lab.

Mr. Davatelis loves teaching his 7th graders a new math lesson.

Ms. Arnold takes time from her busy schedule to grade 8th grade math papers!

YOU WOULD NOT UNDERSTAND, IT'S A GIRL YEARBOOK THANG!

Left are the awesome 7th graders who completely designed and laid out the 7th grade yearbook section. Led by the legendary Tiaunte and Kambria, these young ladies did a fantastic job. They are Tiaunte, Jasmine, Timmarie, Zaria, Kambria, Xoe and Xanthu.

What? Us worry, not on your life. We are the 6th grade yearbook students and we had loads of fun. We want more. Ashley, Rian, and Isabela were great year-book staffers and everyone should be proud of them.

And this is Amanda Ravensbergen who came out of nowhere to help out with the finishing touches, editing, and creating layouts particularly the YS sports pages, dances, and AVID. At the end I could not have done without her and we owe her and all our other yearbook staffers a big thank you. All of you were wonderful.
