Mr. Milton G. Boock

DEDICATION

When choosing a person to dedicate our year-book to, many things are taken into consideration.

First of all, the person chosen must be outstanding in his field, in his personality, and in his consideration of others. He must be well-liked by students and faculty alike. His opinions and decisions should be highly regarded by all.

For these reasons and many more, we, the staff, dedicate the 1965 Ambassador to Mr. Milton G. Boock

ROLL CALL

Representatives actively participate.

Mr. Boock, adviser

The Band accompanies the Chorus in a practice for the Christmas program.

Ah . . . One . . .
Ah . . . Two . . .
Ah . . . Three . . .

Practice begins and every moment seems to bring about noticeable improvements throughout.

"Man, that's not a beer tent!" exclaimed Bill Ainsworth disgustedly.

MUSIC BAND CHORUS

Donald Fleck prepares to "Blast" out a tune as David Partido seems to be saying, "Man, what's this thing?"

WILLY'S WELCOME

"Caught you . . ."

"Only cokes, Mr. Nicolai?"

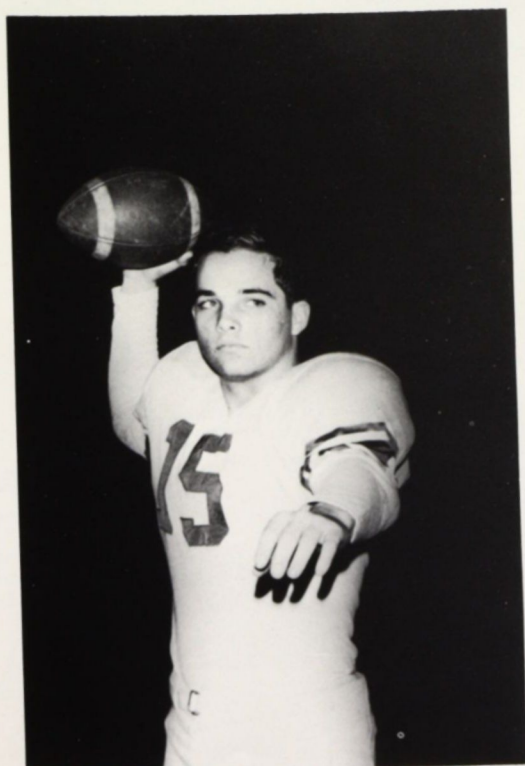

"Blow those horns, men!"

Wurzburg smears an unknown runner during the 26-6 victory over Mannheim.

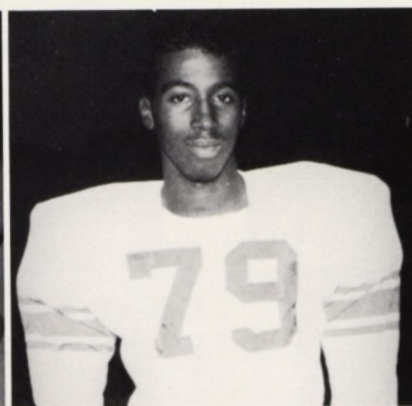

Wade attempts an extra point.

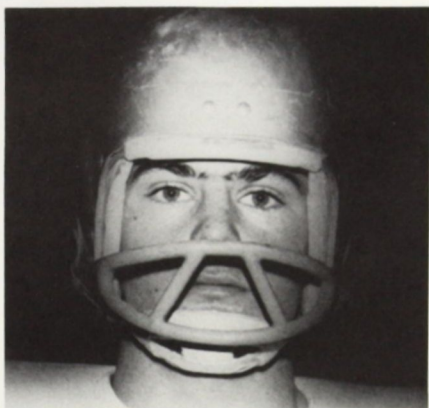

Don Lindsey drives towards the goal during the Wurzburg-Bitburg game, Lindsey, a freshman, continuously ground out yardage for the Wolves and proved to be a big asset to the team. A TD by Rick Ward and a safety by Greg Farmer proved to be too much for the Bitburg eleven. As the gun sounded, Wurzburg boasted a 4-0 record, by driving Bitburg "in the mud" 14-0.

Leon Preston grinds out yardage against Augsburg.

Wurzburg once again proved might by downing their ancient rival, Augsburg, 13-12. The Wolves fought valiantly throughout the game, its defense and offense displaying the fine form of the champion Wolves. T.D's by Dean Anthony and Leon Preston, and an extra point by John Wade completed the victory over Augsburg, its first defeat over Augsburg in 3 years.

Wade and Preston close in for the "KILL."

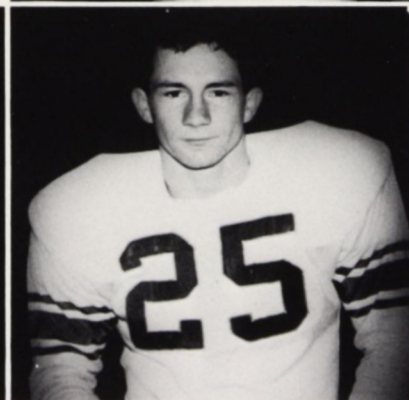

The Wolves sparkled on both offense and defense. The team compiled 117 points on offense while holding the opponents to a measly 59, almost half the total points of Wurzburg. Top scorers for the Wolves were Leon Preston with 36, John Wade with 31, and Rick Jones adding 24.

As the team breaks through the Wolf, the pep squad starts cheering them on to victory.

HOME COM

"Mangle Mannheim" is the battle cry!

The team is on the field and ready to win this game.

ING

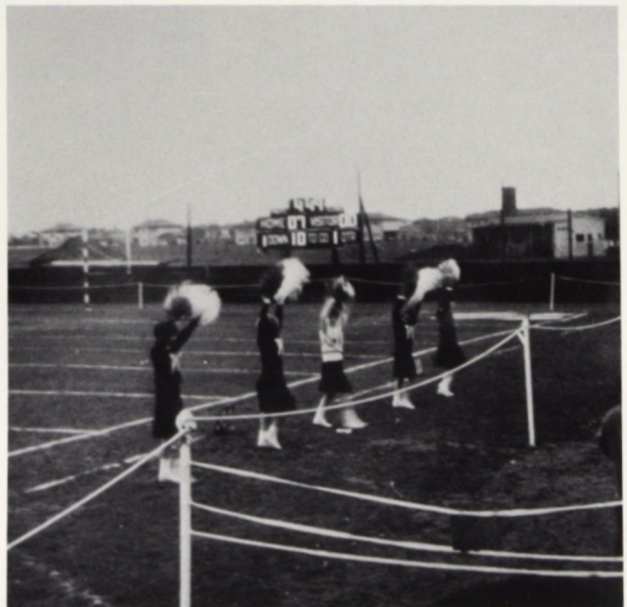

School spirit runs high as the excitement mounts.

"We're gonna win this game -- we'll do or die." The first touchdown of the game and the fight song rings throughout the stands.

For the 1964 Homecoming queen the Wolves chose Kris Bersch; her escort -- you guessed it -- Greg Farmer.

The two attendants in Miss Bersch's court were crowned -- Princess Nancy Gudgel by John Wade and Princess Nellie Aguilar by Mike Brown.

Princess Nancy Gudgel and her escort John Wade sit this dance out, as Princess Nellie Aguilar appears to be deep in conversation.

WOLF CALL 1965

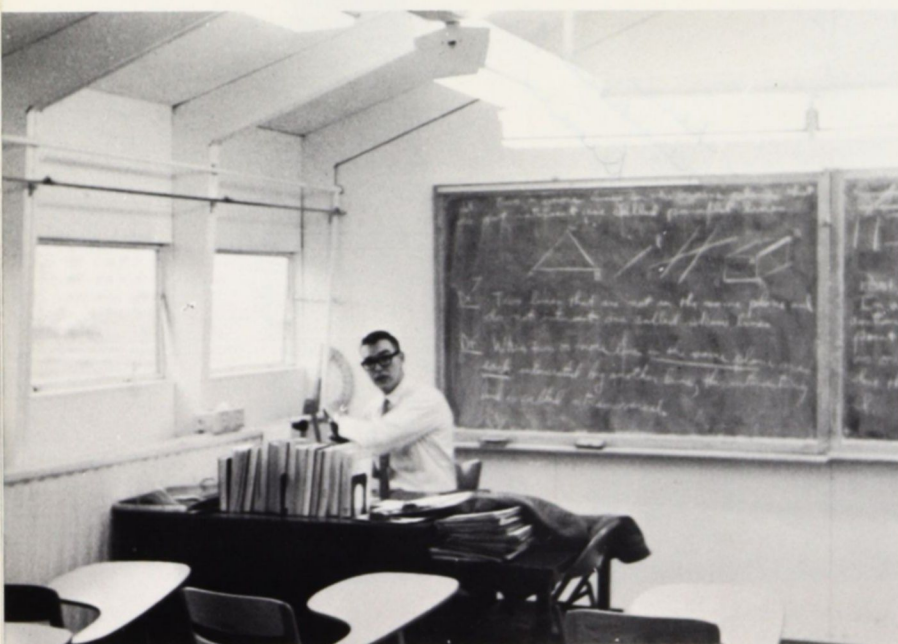

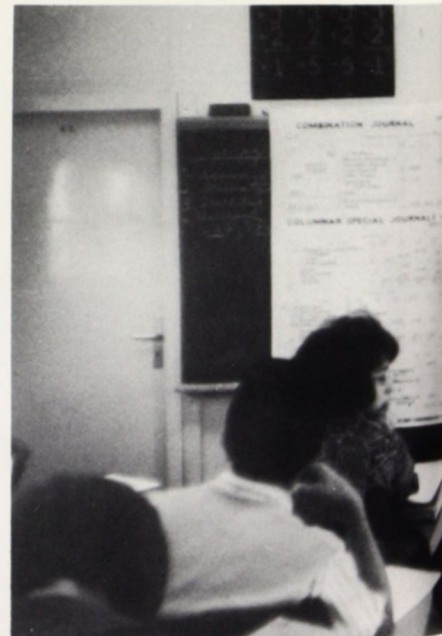

"Once upon a time."

"Attendance is rising"

"What! Me worry?"

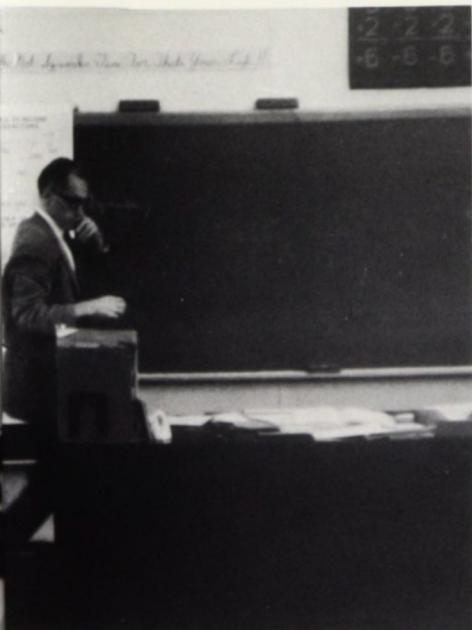

"Well"

"Only our class knows for sure"

"Hm-m. Four parts left over and it still works"

"Dear Mother . . ."

"Say cheese. "

The annual staff has the difficult responsibility of publishing the school yearbook. This year we've attempted to capture the highlights of the 1964-65 school year.

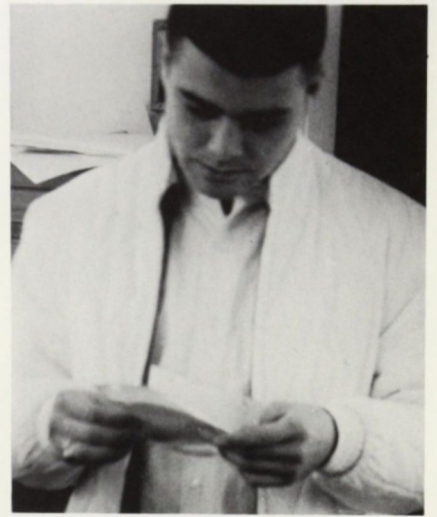

"Altogether now . . . "

Mr. Dodd,

To the best Journalism teacher in Germany. I've really enjoyed being in your 5th class this year. Stay as you are, and all your future students will love you as we, your present students do. Don't forget your '65' Journalism class. Best of luck always.

Carltha
'65'

Mr. Dodd,

This 5th hour is one class we never forget. It's not everyone who is lucky enough to get a handsome, cool, and sexy teacher wrapped up in one. We sure miss your singing, screaming, and running around when we're trying to meet that deadline. Someday I'll get that picture of you and then when I'm old and grey I'll say, "And the good-lookin' guy was my teacher in Journalism class." I have to stop for now because Fred is jimping down my throat so he can sign it too. Remember me and the rest of this crazy class as we will remember you. Stay cool and try to keep that temper down. Love ya!

Glynn

P.S. You're a dirty rotten FINK!!!

Mr. Dodd, through trial and hardships you have pulled through like a Champ to lead you never came down to Kitzinger we could have given the guys and had a blast. In truth I plan on being a teacher, and I only hope
I can be as good as you.

Mr. Dodd,

Joining your journalism class was certainly an improvement over U.S. History. I didn't turn out to many great things, but maybe I'll have another chance next year. If you stay as well as you are, you may end up married, so take it easy. Hope to see you next year.

Jay

P.S. I appreciate your wonderful understanding of 5th per. hunger, and thank you for trying to help, when the school gave me a vacation.

Mr. Dodd,

I hope 5th hour hasn't ruined your image of journalism. I'm really not as lazy as you think and I'm sure the rest of the class isn't either. Thanks for the wonderful guidance you have given us and for staying after school to help us get the paper out when it should have been entirely our responsibility.

If no one ever lets you know, remember that your enthusiasm has been something for us all to remember. We appreciate everything you have done this year.

God bless,
Nancy Griffen

Mr. Dodd,

In your World Geography class I had the most fun I ever had so, better luck in the future.

The hard work and long hours of toil & put in your class were extremely exhilarating and great for my lungs.

Big Vince

Mr. Dodd.

It's really hard to put on paper what I'd like to say. As to how much I've enjoyed journalism and working on the "Wofcall".

I know we went through a lot of hard times, but it was fun, "wasn't it?"

I wish I had of been able to contribute more to the "Wofcall". Maybe next year??

Good Luck in the Long Future!!

- As Always -
Kathy Lottis

Mrs. Dodd,

I can't tell you how much I've enjoyed your class.
You really make it interesting. Even though we spent a lot of after hours working on the newspaper I've enjoyed every minute of it. I'll always remember this class and your screeching.
You're one of the coolest teachers
I've ever known. It's people like you who make school interesting. Good luck in your future.

Luck always,
Kris

Stay Sweet & don't go mad. (Only kidding)

Mr. Dadd -

To start out with - I never deserved to remain in your class because let's face it I'm really not that talented.

It's been a real experience in your class because I know that you have taught me more about people than anyone could ever hope.

Mr. Dadd you're really the most understanding and practical teacher around here. It's a shame there aren't more teachers with your fun-loving personality and understanding nature.

Every member of the staff I'm sure will always remember you and all the memories you've given us.

I wish you all the best in the future because you deserve it!

Good Luck in your search for the woman with the "Geld"

Take Care - Sir
Will Miss Your Class p.s. I'll always remember your fatherly instinct for bellying!

Love and Wishes
Respectfully
