

GABRIELLE NEIL

About Gabby

A lover of all things artistic, Gabrielle's collections explore both tactile and digital mediums, showcasing her obsession with pattern and passion for colour.

She's always enjoyed the arts - as a child it was drawing and painting, and after majoring in Graphic Design, she finally discovered her calling as a surface designer. An introvert at heart, she expresses her voice through colour and pattern.

Gabrielle embraces the ever-changing nature of her creativity to design prints suited to a variety of industries. Whether its detailed florals or fun novelties, her studies and in-house textile design experience result in a versatile and extensive portfolio of coordinating collections.

The Process

Handpainting, digital painting, vector drawing - Gabrielle works across multiple mediums when creating a new collection.

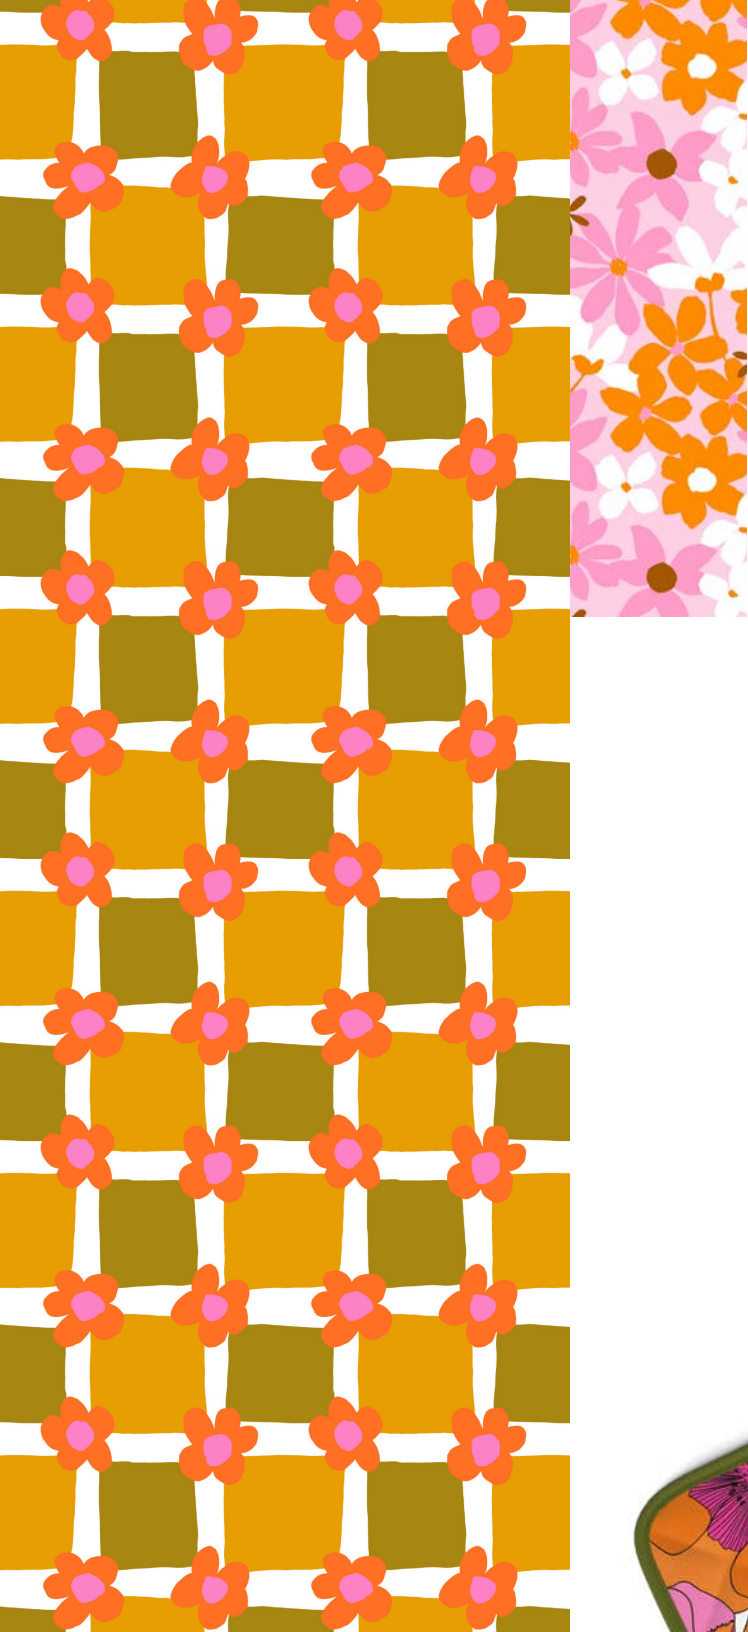

Her work is constantly evolving and changing in line with trends, her love for florals, nature and all things creative.

She favours both hand and digital painting to develop motifs, with extensive post-editing and digital compositing to produce exceptional print-ready layered artwork.

Gabrielle often combines unexpected patterns to create engaging collections, hamonised by her intuitive use of colour.
