A vertical strip of a red and white patterned fabric. The pattern consists of several horizontal bands of repeating motifs. The top band features large, stylized white stars with radiating lines on a red background. Below this is a band of smaller, simpler white stars. The next band shows a repeating pattern of white geometric shapes, possibly stylized snowflakes or stars, with radiating lines. This is followed by a band of small, solid white dots. The pattern then repeats the large stylized stars, followed by the smaller stars, and the geometric shapes. The bottom of the strip shows a band of small, solid white dots. The overall design is a classic, festive holiday pattern.
