MEET THE ARTIST

Amy Hall

Amy is a fine artist who is inspired by nature and the beauty of the landscape surrounding her. She works with soft colors and creates timeless art to bring comfort and a feel-good ambience to your home.

Amy studied at the School of Visual Arts in New York City and graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology, NYC. where she received her degree in Fine Art/Surface Pattern Design.

After working in the textile design industry for over 20 years, she pivoted to freelancing which created more freedom to spend with her family. Based out of North Carolina, you can find Amy in her home studio surrounded by art supplies while sketching, painting and getting lost in creative ideas.

Greeting cards that soothe and nurture the soul.

Celebrate

Praise, Honor and Cheer

Soft florals and landscapes that brighten the day.

Festive

Jolly, Spirited and Merry

Art that radiates nostalgia

DISCOVER

Amy Hall has always been drawn to nature. Vibrant skies, lush multicolored green fields, rich florals and the kaleidoscope of blues reflecting off the ocean challenge Amy to capture each memory by using strokes of color.

Collaborations are welcome.
