About Megan Cash

Megan Cash is joyous, savvy, and a quintessential Midwesterner. A lifelong resident of charming Canton, Ohio, home of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, she resides with her husband (they met in middle school) and youngsters, analytical Miles, and tiny tornado Madelyn. She grew up in a family of successful entrepreneurs, always inspiring her to consider turning passions into business ventures. Megan loves crafting – from 3d printing cookie cutters to hand quilting English paper piecing and is a passionate collector of vintage Christmas ornaments.
