GALYBINA

Welcome to my creative world!

I'm Maria Galybina, a surface pattern designer based in Lisbon, working with textile brands worldwide.

For 17 years I've been creating botanical prints — plants, animals, and the abstract motifs I find in Lisbon's gardens and greenhouses.

Over the years I've developed a recognizable visual language of my own: a sense of color, composition, and detail that runs through everything I make.

My work has reached brands in fashion, home textiles, and stationery.

I follow what's happening in fashion and interiors, and adapt what resonates into my own visual language. I work in collections. A typical project brings together a coordinated set of repeat patterns with supporting illustrations and lettering — a cohesive visual world ready for an entire product line. I release a new collection roughly every quarter, and my existing library is extensive, so brands I work with can choose between something ready and something built for them.

Brand concept

MY SIGNATURE STYLE:

ANIMALS AND FLOWERS PATTERNS
VIBRANT AND COLORFUL PALETTE
DELICATE AND GENTLE PRINTS

YOU CAN CONTACT ME FOR:

LYCENSING PRINTS & PATTERNS
CREATING EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS
CUSTOMIZING PATTERNS

I'm open to two formats: licensing from my portfolio, and custom collections developed for a specific brand or season. What I value most is working with brands over time — watching a collection grow season after season, and bringing my prints into the world through the brands that wear them best.

Daniel Defoe

Nato a Londra nel 1660, si dedica inizialmente al commercio e compie diversi viaggi in Europa. Purtroppo gli affari vanno male e Defoe va in bancarotta più volte, ritrovandosi pieno di debiti. La sua situazione si complica per questioni politiche, tanto che finisce in carcere e viene messo pure alla gogna. Negli ultimi anni del Seicento inizia la sua attività di giornalista e romanziere, fondando nel 1704 il giornale "The Review". Ottiene un enorme successo con il romanzo La vita e le strane e sorprendenti avventure di Robinson Crusoe, pubblicato nel 1719, a cui seguono, tra gli altri, Memorie di un cavaliere (1720), Fortune e sfortune della famosa Moll Flanders (1722) e Lady Roxana (1724). Defoe muore in miseria a Londra nel 1731.
