Revised July 2025

The Minnesota Crime Victim Rights: Reference Guide for Criminal Justice Agencies and Professionals is a comprehensive compilation of the Minnesota statutes related to crime victims. In addition to the Crime Victim Bill of Rights delineated in Chapter 611A, the guide describes the many other Minnesota laws related to crime victims and the obligations of those in the criminal justice system toward victims. The guide begins with a list of the various definitions of “victim” that can be found in Minnesota statutes. The last section lists statutory rights or obligations to crime victims by non-criminal justice professionals, some of which may come into play in conjunction with a criminal proceeding.

The purpose of this guide is to assist criminal justice professionals in complying with their statutory responsibilities toward crime victims. For ease of use, the various laws related to crime victims are organized by the specific criminal justice professional involved.

This guide, originally produced in 2007, is continually updated. To ensure that this guide stays up-to-date, accurate, and useful, we ask that you forward any suggestions, comments, and additions you may have.
