“ We expect the competition to be fierce and exciting...”

Dear athletes, teams, members and sports fans,

Welcome to the 2019 International Blind Sports Federation (IBSA) Goalball and Judo International Qualifier in the wonderful city of Fort Wayne!

We, alongside the United States Association of Blind Athletes (USABA), the Turnstone Center, the Grand Wayne Convention Center and Indiana Tech, have a great week of competition lined-up for you.

More than 600 athletes from 40 countries, including the home teams, have made the journey to Fort Wayne in the hope of securing spots or qualification points for the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games.

We expect the competition to be fierce and exciting and I hope that you are entertained and inspired over the coming days by the incredible competitors.

On behalf of IBSA, I would like to thank USABA, the venues, the volunteers and the Fort Wayne 2019 partners for their support in bringing together what I am sure will be an excellent event.

Whether you are experiencing goalball and judo for the first time here or are a seasoned fan, I hope you enjoy your time and that we can count on you to support all the athletes in their quest for greatness.

Good luck to everyone competing this week!

IBSA President

Welcome to participants and guests of the 2019 International Blind Sports Federation Qualifying Competition:

As Mayor of this great city and on behalf of the residents of Fort Wayne, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all of the participants, delegates and guests who will take part in the 2019 International Blind Sports Federation Qualifying Competition.

I appreciate the work that's been done by Turnstone, Visit Fort Wayne and all of the organizations and volunteers who have helped make this unique event possible. It's an honor that Fort Wayne is the first city in the United States to host these spectacular competitions. This also represents the largest international event to ever be held in Fort Wayne. Through the efforts and leadership of Turnstone, Fort Wayne has become a point of destination for adaptive sports opportunities.

We're experiencing unprecedented momentum in the City of Fort Wayne. In addition, we offer the best in restaurants, hotels, shopping centers, family entertainment, and cultural arts. We're hopeful you'll be able to enjoy some of our unique attractions and amenities.

Enjoy your visit and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Henry

Mayor

City of Fort Wayne

Dear athletes, coaches, delegates, and officials of the IBSA Goalball & Judo International Qualifier,

On behalf of Visit Fort Wayne and our entire community, welcome to Fort Wayne. We hope you enjoy competing in Fort Wayne's world class facilities at Turnstone, the Grand Wayne Convention Center, and Indiana Tech.

The staffs at our local restaurants, hotels and attractions are ready to show you our world-famous "Hoosier Hospitality". I also encourage you to enjoy some of the festivals and events happening nearby during your visit. Events such as Buskerfest, TinCaps baseball games, and the Fort Wayne Farmers Market and more can be found at VisitFortWayne.com/Events. You can also find our accessibility resource guide at VisitFortWayne.com/Accessibility.

Learn more at VisitFortWayne.com or give us a call at 1-800-767-7752, if we can be of any assistance to you!

We're glad you're here and wish you the best of luck in the competition.

Sincerely,

July 1, 2019

Greetings!

On behalf of the Local Organizing Committee, volunteers and the city of Fort Wayne, Indiana, USA, we would like to welcome all participants and guests to the 2019 IBSA Goalball and Judo International Qualifier. We are pleased and honored to host this prestigious event in Fort Wayne, the second largest city in Indiana, and one that has been named an All-America City. Turnstone and the United States Association of Blind Athletes (USABA) are excited to partner in welcoming athletes from 48 different countries to this event.

This International Qualifier will play an integral role in developing and demonstrating the athletic skills of young men and women who dream of representing their country in the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games. While each participating athlete aspires to compete in the Paralympic Games, it is important to note competitive sports support positive lifestyle choices and education while demonstrating the importance of teamwork. We wish you the best of luck in your competitive endeavors, but also hope this event brings new accomplishments, friendships, and memories.

To keep up to date with events happening throughout your time in Fort Wayne, please like our event page on Facebook, 2019 IBSA Goalball & Judo International Qualifier. This program guide serves as both a memento and an event information packet. Please refer to this guide for any questions you may have, or visit the event page mentioned above. We hope you enjoy your time in Fort Wayne, feeling comfortable and welcome during this week of competition.

Best wishes,

Grande Page Theater Pipe Organ concert

July 5, 2019

7:30-8:30 PM

Organist Cletus Goens.

Open to the Public

Free

Built in 1928, the Embassy Theatre is the region's gem of venues, and the Grande Page theater pipe organ is one of its most popular features. During the concert, volunteer house organist Cletus Goens will surprise and delight patrons with a variety of musical selections and also provide historical and other fun facts about the Embassy and its world-famous Page pipe organ. Cletus is a dedicated member of the American Theatre Organ Society and has performed throughout the tri-state area. During the day, he can be found managing Sweetwater Music's acoustic and institutional piano department.

What traffic jam?

Sure, you might encounter a few ducks on the water at an Indiana State Park, but they'll get right out of your way. And if you feel like pulling over to park at the shore, there's no meter. Take all the time you want. Time to hike. Time to unwind. Time to reflect. Or time to let out a big "Woohoo" and hear it echo across a canyon. However you like to experience the great outdoors, it's always a getaway worth sharing.

THIS IS NORTHEAST INDIANA

How 11 Counties Make It Their Own

Northeast Indiana is in the middle of it all, has its own unique vibe and easygoing lifestyle and is just a three hour (or less) drive from Chicago, Cincinnati and Indianapolis. Northeast Indiana affords you the opportunity to realize your idea of the American dream, whether you're looking to grow your career, create a family or build your ultimate home.

Fort Wayne, the region's hub and Indiana's second largest city, consistently ranks as one of the best places to live in the US and offers one of the lowest cost of living regions in the country. This means throughout Northeast Indiana you can find housing to suit your budget or lifestyle—from trendy downtown lofts to lakeside cottages to small town living with larger homesteads.

With a legacy of makers, doers, creators and innovators, Northeast Indiana offers the opportunity to work in one of the region's various industries including medical-device manufacturing, specialty insurance sales and product development and design. The region's major employers include Sweetwater Sound, Zimmer Biomet, Parkview Health, Ash Brokerage, Fort Wayne Metals and General Motors. Through its various programs and initiatives, Northeast Indiana is also a great place to let your entrepreneurial spirit blossom.

No matter which direction you take with your career or personal life, Northeast Indiana is a vibrant region to work, live and play.

ADAMS COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Berne, Decatur, Geneva. What Makes It Special: Playing off of its artistic roots, being the birthplace of one of America's best 20th century sculptors David Smith and home to preeminent sculptor Ralph Hurst, Decatur focuses on art inspired innovation. Decatur's annual sculpture tour is a months-long event promoting its growing arts scene. Berne and Geneva have an artistic flair all their very own with their Swiss architecture.

ALLEN COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Fort Wayne, New Haven, Woodburn, Grabill, Leo-Cedarville, Monroeville, Huntertown. What Makes It Special: Allen County and its largest city Fort Wayne are the vibrant, bustling center of Northeast Indiana. Allen County also includes smaller towns like Grabill, known for its Country Fair that welcomes 100,000 visitors to the heart of Amish country for craft demonstrations, music and shopping.

DEKALB COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Auburn, Butler, Garrett, Waterloo. What Makes It Special: DeKalb County takes advantage of its history. Auburn hosts the largest event in the county with its annual Auburn Cord Duesenberg Festival and a multi-million dollar classic cars auction. The Downtown Butler Historic District encompasses most of the town's commercial resources; and The Garrett Historical Museum showcases the county's heritage, which dates back to the early 1800s.

HUNTINGTON COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Huntington, Roanoke, Warren, Markle. What Makes It Special: One of the many strengths of Huntington County is its passion for farm-to-fork food and locally crafted beverages. Roanoke boasts Joseph Decuis, a restaurant specializing in offering its homegrown Wagyu beef, a Japanese delicacy. And, just down the road from this award-winning restaurant is the award-winning Two EE's Winery. USA Today ranked its tasting room as number one in the nation.

KOSCIUSKO COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Warsaw, Winona Lake, Syracuse. What Makes It Special: Kosciusko County is known internationally as the Orthopedic Capitol of the World. Locally, however, Kosciusko County is renowned for its beautiful lakes and laidback lifestyle. With a fast-growing tourism industry, Kosciusko's charming lakeside towns not only feature the amenities required with lakeside living but also vibrant and thriving downtowns with locally prepared cuisine and an emphasis on the arts.

LAGRANGE COUNTY: Cities & Towns: LaGrange, Shippshewana. What Makes It Special: LaGrange County is home to Shippshewana, where simple living is the focus, and Amish culture is engrained in the community. From homemade goods to quality woodworking, Amish craftsmanship is on display. As one of the state's most visited communities, Shippshewana's culture complements its natural beauty with an abundance of parks, trails and lakes. LaGrange County is the place to turn moments into memories.

NOBLE COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Albion, Kendallville, Ligonier. What Makes It Special: With traversing waterways linking to eight connecting lakes at Chain O'Lakes State Park, outdoor recreation is the focal point for Noble County. Kendallville offers Bixler Lake, a 530-acre park and a 117-acre lake for fishing, boating and swimming, as well as trails for walking and biking. Noble County also features a few unusual museums including the Mid-America Windmill Museum, the largest windmill museum in the country.

STEBEN COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Angola, Fremont. What Makes It Special: With 101 natural lakes, Steuben County is a popular destination for lake living and communing with nature. Pokagon State Park, known for its crystal-blue glacial Lake James features camping, fishing and swimming. During the winter months it provides great boggan runs and other cold weather recreational activities. Downtown Angola is bustling thanks to local investment that has revitalized the area with new restaurants and shops; it is also home to the restored 88-year-old Art Deco-styled Brokaw Movie House.

WABASH COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Wabash, North Manchester. What Makes It Special: Named one of Indiana's Stellar Communities and a finalist in America's Best Communities contest, Wabash County is a lively and diverse locale. It has two college campuses, Ivy Tech Community College and Manchester University as well as the the Honeywell Center that provides artistic, recreational and cultural opportunities as well as the historic Eagles Theatre for movies and live entertainment; the 13-24 Drive In movie theater; and a state-of-the-art YMCA. In North Manchester, Salamonie and Mississinewa reservoirs are the perfect location for hiking, boating, camping and other outdoor activities.

WELLS COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Bluffton, Ossian. What Makes It Special: Nestled along the Wabash River, Bluffton is the heart of Wells County with over 100 acres of award-winning parkland. It is recognized as a beautiful and well-kept city. Just north is Ossian, a friendly community known for its local food offerings—including the popular Ossian smoked ham and bacon. Whether it's food or fun, Wells County offers affordable living and an abundance of amenities.

WHITLEY COUNTY: Cities & Towns: Columbia City, Churubusco, South Whitley. What Makes It Special: Whitley County is a peaceful rural community situated between Indiana's second largest city, Fort Wayne and Warsaw, the orthopedic capital of the world. Columbia City is the fastest-growing community in the county—experiencing a 20% population growth over the past 15 years. Churubusco has been nicknamed Turtle Town USA after a famous 1940s turtle hunt and is home to Indiana's oldest continually held festival, the Turtle Days Festival.

2019 IBSA GOALBALL & JUDO INTERNATIONAL QUALIFIER

Experience Fort Wayne, Indiana

Indiana's second largest city is excited to welcome the athletes, coaches and delegates of the 2019 IBSA Goalball & Judo International Qualifier for two weeks of elite level competition and enjoyment of our diverse arts, culture, dining and entertainment.

This is the first Paralympic qualifier of its kind to ever be held in the United States, and we have been anticipating your arrival! During the competition you will experience our Paralympic training site Turnstone as well as the facilities at the Grand Wayne Convention Center and Indiana Tech.

What to Enjoy During Your Stay

While you're in town, get out and explore Fort Wayne's numerous attractions, activities, and dining opportunities.

If you're looking to enjoy all of Fort Wayne's local flavors, pull up a seat at one of our favorite restaurants, including local favorites like 816 Pint & Slice, Cindy's Diner, and Coney Island. For a nice meal out, book a reservation at Club Soda, Ruth's Chris Steakhouse, Tolon, or Copper Spoon. No matter your interests, there are plenty of options for dining in the City of Restaurants.

In downtown Fort Wayne, you can discover numerous arts and entertainment venues including the historic Embassy Theatre and the Fort Wayne Museum of Art; test your imagination (and the rules of gravity!) at our hands-on science center; wander through lush indoor gardens at the Botanical Conservatory; or hop on the downtown Rivergreenway trail to discover Fort Wayne's three rivers

Events

Summer Nights at the Embassy

Enjoy an evening dedicated to relaxation and entertainment while taking in the Fort Wayne skyline with Summer Nights at the Embassy Theater July 3rd and 10th.

TinCaps Baseball Games

Enjoy “America’s favorite pass time” at the award-winning Parkview Field. During your stay, there are home games taking place June 28th-July 1st and July 4th and 5th. All games but June 30th and July 1st will feature a firework show.

Farmers Market

Enjoy fresh local produce, sweet treats, food trucks and live music every Saturday from 9 a.m.- 1 p.m. at Wayne & Barr St for the Fort Wayne Outdoor Farmers Market.

This is summer in Indiana.

We're so glad you're here!

Good luck to all the participating athletes, and we hope you take time to explore our city and celebrate!

USABA
UNITED STATES ASSOCIATION OF BLIND ATHLETES

Organizational Overview

The United States Association of Blind Athletes (USABA) is unique within the sports community. As a Colorado-based 501(c)(3) and member organization of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) and U.S. Soccer, USABA serves as the national governing body for the Paralympic sport of goalball and provides a spectrum of recreational and competitive sports for people who are blind and visually impaired.

We are athletes, coaches, volunteers and supporters who share a deep passion not only for competitive sport, but – more importantly – for access to opportunities that build healthy lifestyles. We have translated our commitment to leading active and healthy lives into our sport development programs, including physical activities, competitive athletic events and the development of elite athletes.

Our team members have unique roles and talents. But, we're here for the same reason: We're in the business of caring.

Every day, we show up and get to work — solving problems, supporting our clients and making Fort Wayne stronger.

Our work is personal. That's why we've been putting people first for more than 45 years. That's why we lead. That's why we take risks and do more than is expected. Every. Single. Time.
