

Privacy Policy

Information Collection

We may collect personal information from you when you become a member, such as your name, email address, and payment information. We will use this information only for the purposes outlined in this policy.

Use of Information

We may use your information for community administration, communication, and to provide you with access to our features and resources. We will not sell or share your personal information with third parties unless required by law.