

Terms of Service

These Terms of Service ("Terms") oversee your access to and utilization of the services, websites, and applications offered by Polar Chefs LTD (collectively referred to as the "Services"). By accessing or using the Services, you consent to be governed by these Terms.

1. Age Restriction for Use of Services

To utilize the Services, you must be a minimum of 14 years of age. By consenting to these Terms, you are hereby asserting that you meet or exceed this age requirement. Furthermore, you unequivocally represent and guarantee that you possess the requisite rights, authority, and capability to bind yourself to this agreement. Non-compliance or misrepresentation will be treated with utmost seriousness.

2. Membership Commitments and Obligations

2.1. Non-Refundable Membership

Upon committing to a subscription with Polar Chefs LTD, you enter into a binding obligation. You consent to assume the role of a member and bear the responsibility for the membership fees delineated on our website or application.

All membership fees, once transacted, stand as irrevocably non-refundable. This remains absolute whether you independently cancel your membership or refrain from using the Services.

2.2. Binding Billing and Payment

Your commitment extends to providing unerringly accurate and exhaustive billing data, inclusive of credit card or other payment details. By adhering to these terms, you empower us with the express authority to levy charges on your designated payment medium, encompassing membership fees and any supplementary expenses in correlation with your use of the Services.

2.3. Automatic Membership Renewal

In the absence of an explicit cancellation action on your part, it's essential to understand that your membership with Polar Chefs LTD will renew automatically at the close of each billing period. This acts as a continuation of your financial commitment, ensuring the deduction of membership fees for every new term.

2.4. Procedure for Membership Termination

Should you choose to conclude your affiliation with Polar Chefs, you may enact this decision either through your Dashboard at <https://whop.com/orders/products/> or by directly engaging with our support team at support@polarchefs.com. It's paramount to note that any cancellation becomes effective only upon the expiration of the ongoing billing cycle, and restitution for any prior membership fees is not permissible.
