

Payment, Refund, and Chargeback Policy Agreement

At Arieous Invest, we strive to provide the best services and resources to our valued customers. Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with our payment, refund, and chargeback policy, as outlined below:

1. Acceptance of Terms: By proceeding with your payment, you affirm that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by our Terms and Conditions, Privacy Policy, and any other applicable guidelines or rules. These documents constitute a legal agreement between you and Arieous Invest, governing your use of our products or services.
2. Chargebacks: You agree to contact Arieous Invest first to resolve any issues or disputes before initiating a chargeback with your payment provider. Unjustified chargebacks may result in immediate termination of your access to our products or services and may subject you to legal action. Any fees or costs associated with wrongful chargebacks will be your responsibility.
3. Refunds and Credits: It is within our sole discretion whether to offer a refund or credit. We are not obligated to provide refunds or credits, even if they have been issued previously. Please note that eBooks, courses, in-class sessions, and subscriptions are non-refundable.
4. Subscriptions: If you decide to cancel a recurring monthly subscription, you will no longer be charged for that service. Cancellations can be made at any time, and the cancellation will take effect at the end of your current payment cycle. Please be aware that there will be no prorated refund, but you will continue to have access to the service for the remainder of the current payment cycle, along with all the benefits of being a subscriber.
5. One-Time 5-Day Access Fee: For one-time 5-day access fees, you will be charged only once, and there will be no subsequent charges. Please note that refunds are not available for this type of fee.
6. Membership Cancellation: If you choose to cancel your membership before the end of your billing cycle, you will not be eligible for a refund. To avoid being charged for the next membership month, ensure that you cancel your subscription at least three days before the end of your current subscription period.
7. Order Cancellation and Error Correction: We reserve the right to either cancel your order and issue a refund for any already charged amount or rectify any errors in your order and resubmit it with the correct information, including the accurate price.
8. Final Payments: Unless mandated by law, all payments made to Arieous Invest are considered final and non-refundable. However, under certain circumstances and at our sole discretion, we may offer a refund or discount. Please note that previous charges will not be reimbursed if a refund is issued.
