

SweepFlow Return Policy

Effective Date: June 19, 2025

At SweepFlow, we stand by the quality and functionality of our software. Please read our Return Policy carefully before making a purchase.

1. All Sales Are Final

Due to the nature of digital products and license-based access, all sales are final. We do not offer refunds for software subscriptions once a license key has been delivered or activated.

2. Trial Access

To help you evaluate our product before purchasing, we may offer a limited-time free trial. We encourage users to take advantage of this trial to determine whether SweepFlow fits their needs.

3. Duplicate Payments

If you believe you have been charged more than once in error, please contact us immediately at sweepflowofficial@gmail.com. We will investigate and issue a refund for any confirmed duplicate payment.

4. Subscription Cancellations

You may cancel your subscription at any time. Cancellation will prevent future charges, but no partial refunds will be issued for unused time within your billing period.

5. Disputed Payments & Chargebacks

Initiating a chargeback without contacting us first may result in a permanent ban from SweepFlow services. If you experience any issues, please email our team -- we're here to help.

6. Contact Us

For billing questions or refund-related concerns, email: sweepflowofficial@gmail.com

By purchasing SweepFlow, you agree to this Return Policy.
