1. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing, enrolling in, or using any services provided by HalalHustle.io (“we,” “our,” or the “Company”), including those delivered through platforms such as Whop.com or any other distribution channel authorized by the Company, you (“User,” “Client,” or “You”) agree, without reservation, to comply with and be legally bound by the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, together with any applicable policies, supplemental guidelines, disclaimers, or modifications issued by the Company from time to time. This Agreement constitutes a binding contract between you and the Company and applies universally, regardless of whether your access is granted under a free trial, a limited promotional offer, or through a paid subscription or one-time purchase. You represent and warrant that you have carefully read, fully understood, and voluntarily accepted all terms and conditions contained herein prior to accessing or using the Platform or any services associated with it. If you do not agree with any provision of this Agreement, you are expressly prohibited from using or continuing to use the Platform, its services, or any affiliated resources.

Your continued use of HalalHustle.io following the implementation of updates or modifications to this document shall constitute binding acceptance of those revisions. The Company expressly reserves the right to modify, amend, or replace these Terms and Conditions, in whole or in part, at its sole discretion, with or without specific notification to users. While the Company may, but is not obligated to, notify users of significant changes by means such as email announcements, platform notifications, or banners within community portals, it is ultimately and solely your responsibility to periodically review the most current version of these Terms and Conditions. All modifications shall take immediate effect upon publication to the Company’s official website, platform, or designated communication channels, and your continued use of services thereafter shall serve as explicit confirmation of your acceptance of the most recent version of this Agreement. Should you object to any amendments or find yourself unable to comply with the updated provisions, your sole and exclusive recourse is to immediately cease use of the services and to terminate your account. The Company maintains the absolute right to deny, restrict, suspend, or terminate your access, with or without notice, in the event of your breach of any provision herein, misuse of services, violation of community standards, or any behavior that undermines the intended purpose, ethical foundation, or operational integrity of the platform.

2. Scope of Services

HalalHustle.io provides a broad, multi-layered, and evolving ecosystem of Halal-compliant digital commerce education, mentorship, and entrepreneurial support programs that are designed to empower individuals, business owners, and subject matter experts to establish, scale, and ethically monetize online businesses. Our programs cover a full range of e-commerce training services, including but not limited to self-paced digital courses, structured modular video lessons, resource materials, and strategic frameworks designed to assist users at every stage of development, from beginner to advanced. The Company offers live mentorship components, including group coaching calls, question-and-answer sessions, strategy recalibration clinics, and implementation feedback reviews, all structured to provide accountability, guidance, and correction of business execution.

In addition to live and recorded instruction, the Company makes available a proprietary library of digital assets, frameworks, calculators, advertising structures, and commercial templates intended to accelerate implementation and support the rapid building of compliant and sustainable e-commerce infrastructures. The services extend to exclusive community networking access through online platforms such as Discord, Telegram, or similar, where users are encouraged to collaborate, share progress, celebrate milestones, and engage in collective learning experiences. The Company may, from time to time, recommend or integrate with third-party platforms such as payment processors, email service providers, customer relationship management tools, advertising accounts, and store builders, all of which operate under their own terms of service and policies outside of the Company's control.

We expressly reserve the right to introduce, expand, restrict, discontinue, or otherwise alter any component of our offerings at any time without prior notice, explanation, or liability. These alterations may include the introduction of new service tiers, premium programs, high-ticket offerings, or performance packages such as the "$10K Success Package," which is governed under specific terms outlined herein. Users acknowledge that the scope of services is dynamic, subject to continuous development, and that access to any given feature does not constitute a guarantee of its indefinite availability.

3. Eligibility and Legal Capacity

By enrolling in or using HalalHustle.io services, you represent, warrant, and covenant that you are at least eighteen (18) years of age or the age of majority in your jurisdiction, whichever is greater, that you have full legal capacity and authority to enter into this Agreement, and that you are not prohibited from receiving services under the laws of the United Arab Emirates or your country of residence. You further confirm that you are not subject to international trade embargoes, sanctions, restrictions, or prohibitions that would make your participation unlawful. Individuals who have been previously suspended, banned, or otherwise restricted from accessing Company services due to misconduct, fraud, non-payment, or any breach of prior agreements are explicitly prohibited from creating new accounts or attempting to re-engage with the services. The Company reserves the unrestricted right to verify your identity, conduct due diligence, or perform background checks at its sole discretion and without notice. Any misrepresentation of eligibility shall result in immediate suspension or permanent revocation of access, along with potential legal action to recover damages or costs incurred by the Company.

4. Account Responsibilities

Users may be required to establish an account in order to access certain features, resources, or mentorship opportunities. By creating such an account, you accept full and unconditional responsibility for all actions, transactions, data submissions, and communications conducted through your account, regardless of whether they were authorized by you. You must maintain the confidentiality and security of your login credentials at all times, employ strong and unique passwords, and promptly notify the Company in writing in the event of any suspected or actual unauthorized access or security breach. You must not impersonate another person or entity, misrepresent your affiliation, or provide false information under any circumstances. Sharing your account, credentials, or content access with any third party—including but not limited to family members, assistants, or business partners—without express written consent of the Company is strictly prohibited and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. The Company reserves the right to monitor account activity, investigate anomalies, and restrict or revoke access where evidence of misconduct, unauthorized sharing, or suspicious activity arises.

5. Payment Terms and Financial Obligations

All financial transactions must be processed through authorized channels, specifically Whop.com or such other payment gateways as may be designated by the Company. Payment is required in full upfront unless otherwise expressly stated through a Company-approved installment plan. Where installment plans are available, you are legally obligated to complete all scheduled payments in full, and any failure to do so will result in restricted access, late fees, debt collection proceedings, and potential legal recovery of costs. By purchasing or enrolling, you authorize the Company and its processors to automatically charge your selected payment method for recurring fees or installment obligations until your commitments are satisfied. You are solely responsible for any additional charges imposed by your bank, card issuer, or payment processor, including foreign exchange fees, cross-border surcharges, and account handling costs. Payments are final, non-transferable, and non-assignable. Pricing is subject to change without prior notice, and promotional or discounted rates may be offered at the Company's discretion but shall not retroactively apply to prior purchases.

6. No Refund Policy

Halal Hustle operates under a strict no-refund policy. All payments made for courses, mentorship programs, community access, or digital resources are final and non-refundable under any circumstances. Dissatisfaction, non-usage, inability to participate, personal hardship, change of mind, or business redirection do not constitute grounds for refunds. Refund policies offered by third-party platforms such as Whop.com or payment processors do not override the Company's no-refund policy. Any attempt to initiate a chargeback without prior written authorization shall be deemed fraudulent, will result in immediate account termination, and may expose the User to legal consequences under applicable UAE and international commercial laws.

7. Results Disclaimer

The Company makes no express or implied promises, representations, or guarantees regarding income, success, or specific business outcomes. All statements regarding potential earnings, testimonials, or performance case studies are provided solely as illustrative examples. Results depend on numerous external and personal factors including effort, work ethic, compliance with instructions, market conditions, and timing. You acknowledge that your business success is entirely your responsibility and that the Company, its staff, or affiliates shall not be held liable for your performance, results, or lack thereof.

8. Conditional Success Guarantee (High-Ticket $10K Package)

For clients enrolled in the $10K Success Package, the Company provides a limited performance guarantee. Specifically, if your e-commerce store fails to achieve one hundred (100) verifiable customer orders, the Company will continue to work with you at no additional cost until such milestone is achieved. This guarantee constitutes an extension of service delivery and does not represent or imply any right to a monetary refund. To qualify, you must fully complete all program modules, attend mentorship calls, implement strategies as instructed, and provide documented proof of execution. Failure to comply with these requirements voids the guarantee.

9. Use of Third-Party Platforms and Services

You acknowledge and accept that the services of Halal Hustle may involve integration with or reliance on third-party platforms including Whop.com, Shopify, Stripe, PayPal, and other digital tools. These platforms are governed by their own terms and policies, and the Company bears no responsibility for outages, suspensions, feature removals, compliance issues, or failures attributable to such third parties. You remain solely responsible for costs, compliance, and risks associated with the use of third-party services.

10. Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights

All content, branding, videos, templates, designs, frameworks, and proprietary materials provided through Halal Hustle are the sole intellectual property of HC Portal CO. L.L.C. and are protected under UAE and international copyright laws. Users are granted a limited, revocable, non-transferable license for personal educational use only. Unauthorized reproduction, distribution, or resale shall result in legal enforcement, including civil and criminal remedies.

11. User Conduct

Users must conduct themselves with integrity and professionalism, refraining from unlawful activity, harassment, fraud, or misuse of Company intellectual property. The Company may suspend or terminate accounts for any misconduct, including attempts to circumvent platform systems, unauthorized promotion, or disruptive behavior in community spaces.

12. Community Code of Conduct

Community participation is an extension of the services, and users must adhere to respectful communication, confidentiality, and non-solicitation standards. Spamming, offensive speech, divisive commentary, or impersonation will result in disciplinary action including removal and permanent bans.

13. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless HC Portal CO. L.L.C., its officers, employees, contractors, and affiliates against all claims, liabilities, damages, and costs arising from your use of the services, breach of this Agreement, or violation of third-party rights.

14. Legal Independence

Halal Hustle is an independent brand wholly owned and operated by HC Portal CO. L.L.C. It bears no legal, operational, or financial connection to Hustler Ecom or Digital Monetisation. Any claims or disputes based on assumptions of such connections are invalid.

15. Termination

The Company reserves the right to suspend, restrict, or terminate your access immediately upon breach of these Terms, non-payment, chargeback initiation, misconduct, or fraudulent behavior. Termination is final and may be accompanied by legal recovery of outstanding obligations.

16. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United Arab Emirates. All disputes shall be subject exclusively to the jurisdiction of the Dubai Courts, without prejudice to the Company's right to seek injunctive relief or remedies in other competent jurisdictions.

17. Amendments

The Company may amend these Terms at any time without prior notice. Amendments take effect immediately upon publication on HalalHustle.io, and your continued use constitutes binding acceptance of the updated terms.

18. Entire Agreement

This document represents the full and final agreement between you and the Company. No prior discussions, representations, or promises shall be binding unless expressly incorporated herein. If any provision is found unenforceable, the remainder shall remain in effect.
