

EULA (End User License Agreement)

Last updated: September 6, 2025

This agreement governs the use of The Artillery platform and its content.

1. Limited License
 - The user is granted a personal, non-transferable, and non-exclusive license to access program materials during the contracted period (six months).
2. Intellectual Property
 - All content, materials, guides, trainings, and documents are the exclusive property of The Artillery.
 - Unauthorized reproduction, distribution, or use of such material is prohibited.
3. Restrictions
 - Sharing access with third parties is not allowed.
 - Reselling, sublicensing, or redistributing the content is strictly forbidden.
4. Termination
 - Violation of the rules may result in immediate termination of access without refund.