Career Coaching and Mentoring Agreement

1. I will make the students' success in school, independent living, and social interactions my goal.
2. I will remember to use my listening and reflecting skills when meeting with the student.
3. I will not impose my personal or religious views upon my assigned student.
4. I will maintain a nonjudgmental attitude
5. I will keep all student information confidential. This includes the student's name, progress in school, past history, any stories I may hear and their affiliation with Bridges.
6. My conversations with the student will focus on the present and future. I will respect the student's privacy and allow the student to define the parameters of our relationship. I will respect their boundaries.
7. I will maintain communication with the career coach coordinator regarding my relationship and activities with the student.
8. I will attend as many career coaching and mentoring events as I am able.
