TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

On behalf of the citizens of the Village of Tinley Park, I would like to welcome you to this dynamic, progressive community. Tinley Park is home to more than 45,000 people, attesting to its appeal as a great place to live, work and play.

Tinley Park schools maintain a reputation for excellence, demanding creativity and top performance from students at every grade level. In addition to St. Xavier University, which recently opened its south campus in Tinley Park, several other major universities and colleges are nearby to serve the community's growing academic and educational needs.

Thousands of acres of forest preserve border Tinley Park, enhancing outdoor recreation and family oriented fun. Residents enjoy well-developed and maintained community parks and a comprehensive program of sports, arts, special interest and educational activities for all ages. A variety of housing offers a number of options, including single-family homes, townhomes, condominiums and apartments.

Tinley Park is truly a world-class community. I, as well as the rest of us who happily call Tinley Park home, invite you to come see for yourself - both on the pages to follow and with a visit to the Village of Tinley Park!

Chamber Letter

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce, I am pleased to introduce the 1998 edition of the Village Profile. Twice the size of the previous edition, the Profile provides an impressive overview of the Village, showcasing more than a hundred area businesses.

In this medium of words and pictures, it is difficult to capture the spirit and energy that exists within this growing business community. It is a spirit shared by business owners, community leaders, employees, residents, village officials and associates. It is an energy that has fueled the growth and strength of this very viable village. For over 40 years, the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce has been the organization that unites these businesses, thrusting this energy and spirit into action.

Nearly 300 members strong, the Chamber exists to advance business and encourage the improvement of business methods. Monthly meetings with guest speakers, promotional business after hours, an annual business awards dinner, golf outing and other events demonstrate that the Chamber is "the place to be" for networking and business enhancement. Chamber members are committed to encouraging future leaders, as well, through the Youth in Business and Youth Scholarship programs.

If you are a business considering a Tinley Park location, we invite you to contact the Chamber office. You may just catch our spirit and, at best, share our energy.

Terry Guymon, President

A special health center for your special needs.

Medical miracles happen every day right in your own backyard.

Christ Hospital and Medical Center isn't just another hospital. We're a teaching hospital with over 750 doctors and 60 specialties and subspecialties. No wonder so many doctors and community hospitals refer patients to Christ Hospital heart specialists, cancer specialists, obstetricians and others.

And with the new 60-bed Hope Children's Hospital on our campus, Chicago's south suburbs now have a premier facility for the care of critically ill and injured children with a pediatric medical staff to match.

So for state-of-the-art care in a truly caring environment, you don't have to look any farther than here.

To find a primary care physician who can refer you to a Christ Hospital specialist, call HealthAdvisorSM at 1-800-3-ADVOCATE.

History

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

The Village of Tinley Park celebrated its centennial in 1992. It was established as Bremen (and later New Bremen) by primarily German immigrants in 1853; historic documents indicate that the first settlers may have arrived as early as the 1830's.

Bremen was situated on the route of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad. The Centennial Monument, Engine #1892, at Tinley Park's first train station, is a reminder of the important role the railroads played in the Village's early development and economic growth.

So, too, does the Village's name. In 1890, Postmaster Henry Vogt, Sr. requested that the post office change its name to Tinley Park in honor of Samuel Tinley, Sr., the community's first railroad station agent. The village became incorporated as Tinley Park in 1892.

The latest "modern conveniences" came to Tinley Park in the late 1800s and early 1900s. Telephone service was introduced in 1898, followed by construction of the Village's first municipal water system in 1899; local business owners established their own electric utility in 1909. A pop bottling plant (open from the 1890s until the mid-1950s) run by local residents, and the Diamond Spiral Washing Machine Company (whose factory opened in 1905) brought Tinley Park its earliest industry other than agriculture.

Transportation

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

Situated at the intersection of I-80 and I-57 and close to I-294 in Chicago's southwest suburbs, commuters to and from Tinley Park find easy access to the metro area's convenient expressway system. Drive time to the Loop is approximately 30 minutes; the state and interstate highway network can take you north to Wisconsin, east to Indiana, west to Iowa or south to downstate Illinois. The proposed I-355 extension will further strengthen Tinley Park's transportation assets building direct access to the western and northwestern suburbs.

Getting into and around Tinley Park is easy. U.S. Routes 6, running east and west, is the Village's north border; Route 45 (LaGrange Road) runs north and south along the western border. State Route 43 (Harlem Avenue) and Oak Park Avenue are main north-south thoroughfares through the Village. Several well-maintained, four-lane streets run both north-south and east-west throughout Tinley Park to deter traffic tie-ups.

LOCATION & TRANSPORTATION

Metra commuter rail service offers a full schedule of fast, comfortable trains that carry passengers into Chicago's Loop from two Tinley Park stations - one downtown on Oak Park Avenue and the other located off 80th Ave. on the far west side of the Village. RTA Pace buses run several routes throughout Tinley Park, carrying riders to and from Metra stations as well as neighboring communities.

Economic Development

STRONG AND GROWING IN TINLEY PARK

With 28 percent of its area zoned for commercial use, Tinley Park has an aggressive plan for economic growth and employs a number of incentives to attract commercial development.

The extraordinary increase of new business square footage in Tinley Park represents unprecedented growth in the I-80 Corridor. From 1994 to 1997, commercial square footage of new business increased from 366,000 to more than 690,000. Valuation from new construction within Village boundaries (including single- and multi-family residential construction and commercial construction) grew from $74.2 million in 1994 to $115 million in 1996.

Tinley Park Reaches Cyberspace

The Village's development efforts includes creation of its own homepage on the Internet, making information about Tinley Park accessible to more than 40 million people worldwide. The site - <http://www.ECNet.Net/users/gtinpark> - is maintained and updated regularly through Governor's State University, an internet hub for the south and southwest suburbs of Chicago.

The homepage was created as a service to members of the community, as well as an informational source to businesses and individuals considering relocation to Tinley Park. It allows residents to use the Internet as a link to their Village's services and officials and provides a wealth of information about all there is to see and do in their community. It gives "virtual visitors" to Tinley Park the grand tour of the Village, plus important information about construction, economic incentives and quality of life.

Small Business Assistance

The Village of Tinley Park recognizes the positive economic impact that small businesses have on a community such as ours. Small business is the cornerstone of the economy, and has been a significant catalyst in the economic growth of Tinley Park.

The Village has worked hard to create an atmosphere conducive to small business growth, establishing a number of programs to provide assistance to new, as well as existing, small businesses in Tinley Park:

- The Industrial/Commercial Commission, which promotes its "Shop Tinley" theme through various campaigns;
- The Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce works to promote its members through advertising, community involvement, and recognition of businesses and business people throughout the community at its annual awards dinner;

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

- The Historical Preservation Commission, which works to maintain the aesthetic and ambient appeal of the historic Oak Park Avenue area in the face of an ever-evolving economy;

- The Low Interest Business Development Loan Program is a public/private partnership between the Village and local participating banks. It is designed to enable local businesses to obtain advantageous financing for capital improvements to help grow their businesses. The project undertaken by the business must result in either an increase in local tax revenues or an increase in employment opportunities within the Village.

The Village's role in the loan process is to review the preliminary application to ensure it has a current year business license and is free of any complaints, tickets, code violations, etc. If accepted for the program after the review, the business is provided a list of participating banks. Each bank creates its own loan terms with loan amounts typically between $25,000 and $150,000.

Tinley Park residents enjoy a wide variety of cultural amenities and entertainment such as presentations and exhibitions offered through the Park District's Arts Alive! series, as well as those presented at nearby Moraine Valley and South Suburban Community colleges. The 65-piece Southwest Symphony Orchestra, South Suburban Opera, Chicago Heights Drama Group, American Dance Ballet Company, the Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra, Illinois Conservatory of Music and Dance, Freedom Hall and Illinois Theater Center all offer outstanding performances year 'round.

Tinley Park's annual Oktoberfest features four days of family entertainment with a parade, live music, carnival rides and games, an arts and crafts show and sale, business expo, car show - and plenty of hearty German and American food!

The New World Music Theater, which seats 27,500 in an outdoor setting, plays host to internationally renowned musical and comedy acts, concerts and performances: from the latest rock, country and pop headliners to appearances by such timeless performers stars as Frank Sinatra, Bette Midler, the Beach Boys and, in 1997, hosted the 10th annual national Farm Aid concert.

YOU'RE INVITED!

to a summer filled with exciting outdoor concerts

DIVERSIONS OF TINLEY PARK

Throughout the year, art and craft fairs, fashion shows and other events are sponsored by local social, civic and fraternal organizations. These groups, along with service clubs, social service agencies, school booster groups, special interest clubs, and other community organizations, offer residents "something for everyone" and the opportunity to take an active role in their community, lend a helping hand, explore new interests and meet new friends.

Working together, volunteers from both the private and business communities devote time and effort to support numerous programs and activities all year long.

The Bremen Historical Society, housed in the Old Zion "Landmark" Church, holds an extensive collection of archive documents and artifacts detailing the history of Tinley Park and surrounding areas. The church is also the setting for cultural events throughout the year, such as presentations by storytellers, musicians and local historians.

Education

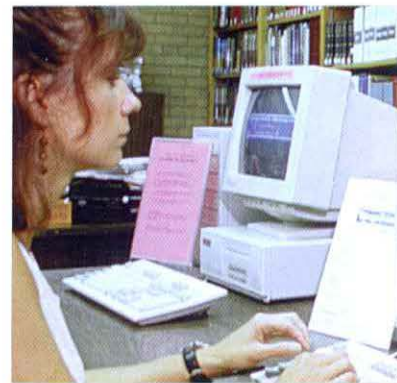

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

As a result of rapid expansion and population growth over the past two decades, Tinley Park residents are now served by five elementary school (grades K-8) districts and four high school (grades 9-12) districts. Within the boundaries of Tinley Park are 13 elementary schools, three junior highs, and two high schools, enrolling more than 10,000 students each year.

Most children in grades K-8 attend schools in Tinley Park Districts 140 and 146, or District 145 in Oak Forest. Two other districts - 159 in Matteson and 161 in Frankfort - serve families residing in the southern portions of Tinley Park. All districts place strong emphasis on the basics while providing a nurturing learning environment for students and encouraging parental involvement at all grade levels.

Augmenting the public education system are several private and parochial schools in Tinley Park, including St. George Catholic School, Trinity Lutheran School, Southwest Chicago Christian School and Villa Santa Maria Preschool and Kindergarten. Quality day-care, preschool and kindergarten facilities are available to families with younger children.

Tinley Park High School in District 228 and Victor J. Andrew High School in District 230 enroll most of Tinley Park's older students; others attend either Rich Township High School in Park Forest or Lincolnway High School in New Lenox. Area high schools offer college preparatory courses, general academic studies and comprehensive vocational education programs.

DISCOVER OUR SOUTH CAMPUS IN TINLEY PARK

Designed to serve residents in the south/southwest suburbs who want to earn their degrees from Saint Xavier University without traveling far from home, the 10,000 square-foot complex includes classrooms, a library and reference room, two state-of-the-art computer labs, five clinical suites, and a student lounge.

As an outreach facility, the South Campus houses three separate centers to service the community.

The Center for Professional Development serves your educational needs whether you're in a mid-career transition or seeking to complete baccalaureate work.

The Center for Community Development extends its knowledge and expertise to support the education, training and development needs of communities in the south/southwest metropolitan region.

The Center for Child and Family Development delivers diagnostic and education services to parents in the community with school-age children. Services range from tutorial instruction, to psychological and physiological testing, as well as diagnosis and treatment of communication disorders.

These services and programs are extensions of existing clinical services and expertise on the Main Campus of Saint Xavier in Chicago.

The South Campus offers the following degrees or credit-based certificate programs:

- ◆ Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies
- ◆ Bachelor of Arts in Speech-Language Pathology
- ◆ Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

Library

TINLEY PARK

The Tinley Park Public Library, on 171st St., serves nearly 48,000 residents in the Villages of Tinley Park and Orland Hills. The present structure was built in two phases, with the first level completed in 1974 and second in 1982. The library today employs 54 friendly, knowledgeable and helpful staff members. Its collection includes 111,000+ volumes, nearly 2,000 compact discs, over 2,500 video cassettes, 9,500+ pamphlets, and subscriptions to more than 400 periodicals and newspapers.

As a member of the Suburban Library System (SLS), the Tinley Park Public Library provides patrons access to collections of the other 85 public and 11 academic SLS-member libraries, with reciprocal borrowing and inter-library loan privileges available through SLS' integrated automation system. In addition, the Tinley Park Public Library offers inter-library loan access to all libraries throughout Illinois as well as across the U.S.

A modern, easy-to-use on-line catalog provides patrons with information on library holdings as well as current availability of materials, both in-house and throughout the SLS. The library also features a quiet study room, computer/typing room, microfilm and microfiche readers/printers. Programs hosted throughout the year include an adult book discussion group, home-bound delivery services, story times for 2-to-6-year-olds, young adult club, and summer reading programs for all ages.

A Smart Choice

Tinley Park is one of the southwest suburbs most dynamic and growing communities. Moraine Valley Community College is keeping pace with the needs of citizens in this thriving community.

Moraine Valley's 78 degree and certificate programs, as well as a wide range of continuing education and professional development courses, provide the area's finest and most affordable education and job training.

If you're looking for educational and occupation direction and development, look to Moraine Valley.

DINING & LODGING IN TINLEY PARK

Cozy cafes and friendly neighborhood taverns welcome diners along historic Oak Park Avenue in the Olde Towne district. National chain restaurants, sports bar-and-grills, and locally-owned eateries make up more than 15 dining establishments scattered throughout the Village, offering a complete menu of dining choices - whether an intimate evening for two, a business luncheon, or a night out with family and friends.

Tinley Park boasts three recently-built hotels, located in the North Creek Business Park in 183rd Street, just off I-80. The Fairfield Inn and Hampton Inn, each with 64 sleeping rooms, and Budgetel Inn with 106 rooms offer guests well-appointed accommodations: clean, spacious rooms, guest services, indoor pools and saunas, and plenty of parking near all rooms. All three also have a number of meeting rooms available for business conferences, training sessions, club/organization meetings and special events for private or business parties, both for those visiting from other areas as well as local residents and business owners. The hotels' convenient locale affords business and leisure travelers alike reasonably priced, comfortable lodging with easy access to all Tinley Park amenities, and a quick commute to Chicago, the downtown Loop area, and O'Hare and Midway airports via I-80 and/or I-57.

MainStreet

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

The "State Street of Tinley Park" or "Tinley Park's Magnificent Mile" are just two of the ways visitors have described historic Oak Park Avenue which forms the Village's Old Town shopping area. The nature of this thriving MainStreet environment has fostered the establishment of a host of outstanding restaurants, shops and professional offices.

Located in the heart of Tinley Park, Oak Park Avenue has emerged as one of the most popular MainStreets in Illinois, largely due to its proximity to Chicago and surrounding areas.

From contemporary, sophisticated stores to quaint boutiques which transport shoppers to a bygone era, merchants offer a variety of goods along with a friendly smile and helpful service. Oak Park Avenue restaurants offer a wide variety of cuisines and distinctive menus and a comfortable, hometown ambiance. As you'd expect to find in a small-town community, all businesses here cater to the community, helping support local youth programs through sponsorships and donations of their time, talent and monetary contributions.

Whatever impression you come away with after visiting - the "magnificent mile" of the south suburbs or "MainStreet, USA" - you will be impressed. . . so don't miss out on the shops, the eateries, the friendly hometown service - the adventure! - of historic Oak Park Avenue in Tinley Park.

Early in 1997, the Village of Tinley Park took steps to further enhance the Oak Park Avenue/Old Town area and help solidify the prosperity of the area for years to come. The village established it with a MainStreet Business Development District and combined it with a MainStreet trust fund in order to help keep the heart of Tinley Park on the right track for success!

In creating the Development District, the Village also created a MainStreet Development Commission. Members' efforts are directed toward:

- Developing an overall MainStreet Business District Development Plan
- Creating and helping fund various programs such as facade improvement, small business assistance, joint advertising, etc.
- Applying for and accepting capital grants and loans
- Expending allocated public funds as necessary for the planning, execution and implementation of the Business District Plan
- Working with Village officials who are charged with the direction of projects or improvements in the MainStreet Business District.

Government

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

The Village of Tinley Park operates under the council-manager form of government with a Mayor, Village Manager, Village Clerk and six-member Board of Trustees. In addition, numerous Village commissions, staffed by volunteers representing private citizens and businesses alike, focus on various aspects of economic development, residential issues and community projects/activities.

Village services are provided by a modern, well-managed municipality. Construction of an addition to the Village Hall, located on Oak Park Avenue south of 159th Street, was recently completed to allow for expansion of the Village's Building and Public Works Departments and the Village Clerk's office. A new water storage facility at 183rd Street and Ridgeland Avenue was also recently constructed to provide Village water services to Tinley Park's fast-growing population.

The Tinley Park Police Department employs 65 full-time and 30 part-time officers and maintains enhanced 911 services for an added measure of safety and assistance to private and business residents. The Department operates the state's largest Neighborhood Watch program.

The Police Department's brand new facility at 183rd Street and 80th Avenue was completed in 1997. It was built to handle the ever-growing demands for police protection as the Village looks to continued growth into the 21st century.

Tinley Park is home to Illinois' largest all-volunteer Fire Department. Its 95 members are all fully trained in fire fighting and emergency response and offer various programs to families, businesses and local schools in fire prevention, protection and safety. The Fire Department's fleet of equipment includes six engines, three trucks, and a rescue van; its fire rating is ISO Class 3.

The Tinley Park Emergency Services & Disaster Agency (ESDA) and Civil Defense Agency perform many roles: weather/storm spotting and tracking, medical and security services, traffic control, and water recovery. Paramedic and ambulance services also stand at the ready for emergency situations anywhere in the Village, 24 hours a day.

Sister City

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

Tinley Park is involved in the Sister Cities Program, initiated nationwide to exchange ideas, develop business ties, and establish friendships between communities here in the U.S. and those all over the world.

Tinley Park's sister is Budingén, Germany, located 30 miles northeast of Frankfurt. Budingén traces its origins to the mid-13th century-234 years before Columbus discovered America and over 600 years before Tinley Park's incorporation. Budingén's rich cultural history has been a fascinating study for the hundreds of Tinley Park residents, municipal officials and business people who have traveled to Budingén since 1989 - and local "natives" have proudly showed off the Village and related its history to more than 500 visitors from Budingén. A contingent of almost 80 people from Budingén recently spent two weeks here. In fact, Tinley Park has hosted one of the largest number of citizen "exchanges" of any Sister Cities participant in the U.S.

Open Spaces

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

The Village is developing an aggressive open space development plan, calling for the construction of greenway trails, bike paths, lakes, wetlands, storm water retention facilities, recreational amenities, and golf courses.

Village officials are working with and seeking the support of the Cook and Will County Forest Preserve Districts, local park districts, and neighboring communities to implement an extensive bikeway system. The Village has proposed a six-mile-long greenway/bikepath just east of the residential area of Tinley Park, connecting the existing bikeway system around George Dunn Forest Preserve National Golf Course and the trail to the north. The path will provide convenient, safe access from all parts of the Village, linking Tinley Park's residential neighborhoods, industrial and office parks, the historic downtown shopping area, nearby forest preserves, Panduit, Tinley Park High School, the New World Music Theater, and a major commercial office complex currently under development at I-80 and Harlem Avenue. The proposal also includes a bike path completely surrounding the forest preserve adjacent to the Village Hall. Plans also call for an extension to the existing system at Flossmoor Road and Cicero Avenue which will eventually connect to the Old Plank Road Trail.

Through careful planning, wetland areas can benefit development of surrounding land for residential, recreational or business park zones. In some cases, they can provide attractive areas for park and recreational activities and facilities. A proposed system of lakes and wetlands would add to the biodiversity of the area and residents' enjoyment of the natural environment. The Cook County Forest Preserve District has already set aside significant areas of wetlands, many of which have been incorporated into passive recreational use.

Parks & Recreation

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

The opportunities for recreational diversions in Tinley Park are varied and provide activities for residents of all ages.

The Village is bordered by vast forest preserves clustered along its eastern and western borders. Bicycle trails for riding, as well as hiking and cross-country skiing, fishing holes and ponds, an 18-hole golf course, picnic sites, nature trails and other amenities are here for all to enjoy.

Scattered throughout the Village are 36 parks and recreational facilities, each with a variety of equipment and amenities. Bicentennial Park, situated on 12.5 acres near the heart of the Village, is one of Tinley Park's newest recreational areas. It features a playground, ballfield, wetland nature area, paved walkway and basketball courts.

Tinley Park's active Park District oversees and maintains baseball diamonds, tennis courts, football fields, basketball courts, picnic and nature areas along with an 18-hole miniature golf course at the various community parks. It also offers residents of all ages a full schedule of programs: competitive sports, recreational activities, numerous classes and workshops, special events and trips year 'round.

Two facilities recently acquired and now maintained by the Park District are the Vogt Visual Art Center, located in the historic district of Tinley Park; and the Fitness Center, centrally located in the Village.

A third place winner of the 1997 Governor's Hometown Award competition, the Vogt Visual Art Center is housed in the beautiful Victorian former home of Henry Vogt, Sr., the first mayor of Tinley Park. It features a first-floor art gallery of various artists' works; the second floor has several rooms for various art workshops and classes offered. One can also shop for unique gifts of Victorian jewelry, stained glass, florals and hand-painted cards. The Center is staffed by volunteers from the South Region Visual Arts Guild.

The Fitness Center has strength training equipment, cardiovascular equipment, an indoor track, basketball and volleyball courts, five racquetball courts, a 25-yard lap pool and other amenities, and offers aqua and aerobics classes.

Nearby equestrian stables have indoor and outdoor arenas and provide ready access to forest preserve trails. Several athletic clubs in the area offer use of their facilities to Village residents.

The Odyssey, the Village's newest public golf course, was designed by PGA tour pro Curtis Strange and is located near the New World Music Theatre off Ridgeland and 183rd St. More than a dozen other public and private courses are within 10 miles of Tinley Park.

Worship

TINLEY PARK, ILLINOIS

Ever since pioneer settlers completed construction of Zion Lutheran Church in 1880, residents have continued to join in faith and fellowship. The Tinley Park Ministers Association is an ecumenical organization made up of Village's religious leaders. It supports community programs to meet the needs of citizens, and sponsors the annual Village-wide Thanksgiving service, and an old-fashioned, all-church family picnic held every summer.

Today, there are 20 centers of worship in Tinley Park representing most major denominations. The faith community has strongly influenced the development of the Village's renowned "helping hand" friendliness and outreach.
