DID YOU KNOW...

This past May, Ladue Chapel observed Pentecost and Trinity Sunday but the Ladue Chapel Deacons also hosted our annual Red Cross Blood Drive on Thursday, May 17, 2018. Over 20 members and non-member donors shared their gift of life by giving their blood to keep others alive. This small act can make a giant impact in someone else's life. If you were a donor, thank you for donating blood!

But now in Christ Jesus, you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

~Ephesians 2:13

It was Mark Twain, of Hannibal, Missouri fame, who once said, "When in doubt tell the truth. It will confound your enemies and astound your friends." Apparently truth-telling was in short supply back then, even as it seems to be now.

In our Brief Statement of Faith we admit that we "accept lies as truth." We've been doing it for a very long time. When Jesus was interrogated by Pontius Pilate, he said, "For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Then Pilate asked him, "What is truth?" It was a rhetorical question. Pilate already knew that in his world, truth was rarely based in fact, and often shifted with the wind.

Sadly, though Jesus invites us to live in his kingdom of love, truth, and justice, we still live in Pilate's kingdom of deceit, lies, and dissembling. I've had to contend with liars, and it's both difficult and vexing. Difficult because it's hard to convince others of the truth, and vexing because the only way to stop a liar is to catch them red-handed in it, and they aren't easily caught. Habitual liars are good at it.

I don't lie because I learned as a kid that it's easier to remember the truth. Mark Twain agreed, who also said, "If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything." Besides, the truth makes for enduring relationships of faith, hope, and love—the three great Christian virtues—and those are the relationships I want to have.

I also want to have a relationship with our public servants of faith, hope, and love, and that's becoming increasingly difficult for me to do. It's hard to tell which are telling the truth and which aren't. As we approach the mid-term elections, the political ads try to convince us that none of them are honest. What I hear is an echo of Pontius Pilate's cynical question to Jesus, "What is truth?"

I am certain of only one thing. That Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. That's why I listen to him, believe in him, trust in him, and follow him. And his truth fills me with hope and peace. And you?

Faithfully yours,

Ladue Chapel 75th Anniversary

Save the date! We will formally celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Ladue Chapel Presbyterian Church on Sunday, November 4, 2018 with a single worship service at 10:00 a.m., followed by a catered celebration lunch in Fellowship Hall, Fireside Room, and Gathering Place. Please mark your calendar and plan to join us on this historic Sunday.

Interfaith Partnership Open House

After worship on Sunday, August 12, you are invited to take a look at the newly renovated cottage. Ladue Chapel is now leasing the cottage to Interfaith Partnership of Greater St. Louis to use as their office.

The staff at Interfaith Partnership want to thank the congregation by welcoming you to take a look inside of the cottage and see the fruits of your labor and contributions. Light refreshments will be provided. If you would like to know more about Interfaith Partnership, you may access their website at www.interfaithstl.org.

Calling for Food Bank Drivers

I just sent our food bank drivers' schedule for July and August. We were short a couple of drivers due to vacation and illness. But, we have a strong, cohesive team that works closely together to accomplish our mission, and sometimes that means taking more than the usual number (four) of assignments in a two-month schedule. If anyone is interested in helping with this vital ministry of God's church, call or email me to find out more details. Perhaps there is a husband/wife team that could make the food pick-ups together—or a couple of friends. Jesus didn't send out his disciples alone, but two by two.

Recently Hospitalized or Recovering at Home: We are not aware of anyone in the hospital.

We offer our Christian love and sympathy to Julie (Donnell) Peak and her family for the death of her husband, Brian Peak, who died and entered the Church Triumphant on August 4. A memorial service will be held at Ladue Chapel on Friday, August 17 at 11:00 a.m. with reception to follow. We have established a memorial in Brian's name. Gifts may be made to the Ladue Chapel Brian Peak Memorial.

If you are aware of a member in the hospital or anticipating a hospitalization, please call the church office at 993-4771 ext 0 or speak to one of the pastors. We are available to offer a ministry of care, compassion, and prayer in times of need.

Children's Choirs

I enjoyed working with and getting to know the students who participated in VBS last week. As you are planning your family's schedule for the fall, I hope you are considering participation in one of our children's choirs. We will begin on Monday September 10 with Chorister Choir (Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grade) meeting from 4:00 until 5:00 p.m. and Carol Choir (Grades 3-6) meeting from 5:00 until 5:45 p.m.

Membership in a choir enriches your child's life in multiple ways. Here are just a few:

- ♪ Musical experiences create neural pathways throughout the brain.
- ♪ Singing combines text, melody, harmony, rhythm and movement, activating the higher learning centers of the brain.
- ♪ Choir offers movement activities that cross the midline, stimulating communication between left and right brain.
- ♪ Choir encourages concentration and discipline, which carry over into other areas.
- ♪ Choir involves reading, anticipating, listening and memorization: all skills which enhance academic pursuits.
- ♪ Choir encourages children to be cooperative with leaders and peers, more self-confident, and better able to express their ideas.

Singing is a gift your child will use his/her entire lifetime! --David Erwin
