Drive sales to meet and exceed sales goals

- Assist clients in lighting selections to ensure optimal sales through an exceptional customer experience
- Accurately and efficiently administer sales process to ensure timely and accurate completion of sales
- Provide high quality customer service to scheduled appointments and walk-in clients
- Minimize returns through customer assistance, thoughtful selections, and excellent follow-up with vendors and customers

Develop repeat business and new relationships

- Execute structured outreach plan: Minimum of 20 client visits per week focused on educating the interior design community on Circa Lighting's core value propositions
- Market to clients conducting sales calls 60% of the time outside the showroom (3 days/week)
- Source and follow up on leads to develop new business; work collaboratively with the Business Development Specialist
- Network with architects, builders and designers through involvement in meetings and events

Maintain the showroom's organization and aesthetics

- Assist in merchandising product
- Independently open and close showroom at the manager's request
- Maintain a clean, attractive and organized showroom appearance

Position Requirements:

- 3+ years sales experience, 1+ years of outside sales experience preferred
- Experience in interior design, custom home building products, luxury home furnishings and/or lighting industry a plus
- College graduate preferred or equivalent experience
- Superior communication and organization skills with excellent attention to detail
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to prioritize and handle multiple tasks and changing priorities
- Keen eye for design and creativity
- Ability to achieve results both independently and through others by fostering a spirit of teamwork and cooperation
- Available to work a flexible schedule including weekends
- Ability to use tools, climb ladders, and safely lift up to 50 lbs.
- Ability to follow safety and security standards.
