CELEBRATING 100 YEARS

CINCINNATI
OPERA

100

YEARS

2020 Season

Music Hall

THE BARBER OF SEVILLE

Gioachino Rossini
June 18 & 20

Our 100th anniversary season opens with Rossini's charming comedy The Barber of Seville—the prequel to The Marriage of Figaro—with Grammy-winning mezzo-soprano Isabel Leonard as Rosina.

Company premiere!

RUSALKA

Antonín Dvořák
July 9 & 11

For the first time in Cincinnati Opera's 100-year history, we present Dvořák's beautiful and tragic tale of a love-struck mermaid who pins her heart and her future on a mortal prince.

AIDA

Giuseppe Verdi
July 25, 28, 30 & August 1

The grandest of all operatic masterpieces tells the story of an Ethiopian princess, held captive in Egypt, who finds herself in love with her captor. Presented in a stunning production by British fashion designer Zandra Rhodes.

SCPA Corbett

CASTOR AND PATIENCE

Gregory Spears & Tracy K. Smith
July 16, 18, 21, 24 & 26m

With music by Gregory Spears (Fellow Travelers) and a libretto by Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Tracy K. Smith, this world premiere centers on two members of an African American family who find themselves at odds over the fate of a historic parcel of land they have inherited in the American South.

SCPA Mayerson

World premiere!
FIERCE
William Menefield & Sheila Williams
June 24, 25, 26, 27 & 28m

A collaboration with WordPlay Cincy, The Music Resource Center—Cincinnati (MRC), and i.imagine, Fierce tells stories inspired by the lives of the teenage girls who helped create it.
