I want to thank the church for the flowers I received when I was in the hospital! I very much appreciated them! Also I appreciated the visit from Pastor Alex and the prayers of the church.

– Harry Bollinger

A special thank you to all of you who prayed for Jim during his illness. His passing away was peaceful and I don't think he felt any pain. I appreciate each one who made the effort to visit us during his hospital stay. Thank you to all who helped with the funeral dinner.

– Freda Brackett

Dear CWC family - Thank you so much for all the good wishes, cards, flowers, meals, and visits during my recovery time from my fall and shoulder replacement surgery. I have been overwhelmed with the outpouring of your love.

– Linda Kelly

Dear College Wesleyan Church friends & fellow members - Sending our love and thanks to you for all your prayers, calls, cards and visits during this time of shut-ins because of illness and surgery. God bless all of you. We miss being there to fellowship in person! A special thanks to Terry Backs (and Vanessa Dean) for their leadership of the group who made the beautiful blanket to give to us.

Lovingly, Phil & Martha Pearson

Visible Disabilities

Picture someone you know with a disability. Often we think of visible disabilities - those easily identifiable when meeting the person. Stereotypes, intentional or not, often frustrate these individuals. When encountering this person, you may have thoughts like, “People with disabilities are different from most of us,” or, “The burden of disability is heavy and other people stand under a obligation to help them,” or, “A disability is a sickness, something to be fixed or cured.” While these pictures of disability are not intentionally misaligned, they can limit the humanity of those who are affected by them and devalue the person. It is highly probable that the person with a disability is quite capable of ministering the Gospel to you in powerful ways.

At CWC, we strive to empower and be empowered by our brothers and sisters with special needs.

Opportunities

ELEVATE 5: ENGAGING MARION • FEB. 23 • 10:00AM
Most of us wonder how to approach our city as good neighbors: loving, learning from, and serving alongside the people God’s given us to love. On Saturday, February 23rd at 10 AM in The Great Room, Pastor Beau Hamner will facilitate a panel including Victoria Herring, Jeff Hahn, Andrew Sprock, Dan Walker, Cathy Weatherspoon, and Roger Younce around how we can love, serve, and partner with Marion and all God’s doing here. Poppy’s Donuts and Abbey Coffee will be provided!
DISTRICT ALL-NIGHTER
The annual district all-nighter in Fort Wayne will be held on Friday, February 22nd. All 7th-12th graders are welcome to attend this event. OUR MISSION

Making More & Better Disciples
We are blessed to be adjacent to the campus of Indiana Wesleyan University and consider it a gift to be part of raising up students for leadership in the world. We are excited by the numbers of students from both IWU and Taylor University who worship with us each Sunday, who serve in ministry with us and are part of Spiritual Formation groups. As a sending church, our Ministry Development Program (MDP) continues to equip and send out leaders into youth ministry, denominational headquarters, church revitalization and other ministry areas.

Transforming the Community
With more than 300 commissioned “shepherds,” we are committed to influencing our neighborhoods, workplaces, and homes with the transforming power of Jesus Christ. We seek to develop strong and healthy families which aid in the revitalization of our community.

Resourcing the Church
In building partnerships with other churches, we have opportunity to influence, serve, and lead beyond our own congregation. These partnerships inspire and produce events, curriculum, and services that promote a nurturing ministry and revitalization of smaller local churches.
