

Celebrating 30 Years with 30 Days of Giving

CLEVELAND OHIO, (December 27) – Hospitality Restaurants celebrates 30 years in Northeast Ohio. To commemorate the upcoming January 30, 2022, anniversary, Hospitality Restaurants is donating $1,000 each day for 30 days to 30 local charities. Company founders and lifelong best friends Kay Ameen and George Schindler made short work deciding how to best highlight the organization’s milestone.

“We are so grateful for the support that the communities we serve have given us over the years,” says Schindler. “As we humbly look back on our success, we wanted to do something especially meaningful and knew that there was no better way to celebrate than to give back.”

Knowing that $1,000 would never be game-changing to most non-profit organizations, the company reached out to suburban mayors, community leaders, and philanthropist leaders to find 30 local charitable organizations that the donation would best impact.

“George, Kay, and Hospitality Restaurants have been giving back for years in so many ways, but it’s amazing to see them celebrating their 30-year achievement by helping others in need. We couldn’t be happier to call them partners and friends,” said Matt Kaulig, founder of Kaulig Charitable Giving Programs.

George Schindler said, “It’s all about how much you care about people. That’s been our motto at Hospitality Restaurants since the beginning. It’s that regard for our communities, its patrons, and our loyal staff that has gotten us here.”

For 30 years, Hospitality Restaurants has worked with various volunteer groups in Northeast Ohio and beyond to fill food pantry shelves and help provide clothing and smiles to those who need it most. Even though their restaurants have stacked up a treasure trove of fine dining awards since 1991, the company’s most significant achievements are the positive affirmations from longtime customers and the personal success stories of more than 300 staff members who have built long-standing careers at HR.

Hospitality Restaurants began as a dream of high school pals and college roommates Kay Ameen and George Schindler searching to fulfill a growing entrepreneurial spirit. Becoming best of friends in 1970, their friendship and commitment to growing the company never wavered and has truly stood the test of time.

Today, the Hospitality Restaurant team prepares its fourth decade of delivering the finest, upscale dining experiences to its loyal patrons.

About Hospitality Restaurants: Greater Cleveland’s Premier Restaurant group, Hospitality Restaurants, consists of eight award-winning restaurants and proudly boasts over 300 enthusiastic and loyal staff members in the Northeast Ohio community. Stretching between Westlake to Hudson, suburban Akron to downtown Cleveland; Hospitality Restaurants include Blue Point Grille, Rosewood Grill, Kingfish, Salmon Dave’s, Cabin Club, Delmonico’s, and Thirsty Parrot.

Media Contact: George Schindler | gschindler@HRcleveland.com