

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: December 1, 2018

At Search Firm Software LLC (“SFS”), we understand that your personal information is important, valuable, and private to you. Whenever you use SFS’s products or services, we are committed to protecting your data.

This Cookie Policy, applies to all SFS products and services by incorporation or reference, and should be considered an addendum to our Privacy Policy to further enhance our security practice and your personal data protection.

As explained in this policy, when you visit the SFS website “RockstarFinder.com,” or any other sites controlling, controlled by, or under common control with our Company (collectively the “Site”) or use our other services offered by SFS (collectively the “Services”), SFS may set cookies to support functionality and collect information about your use of our Site and Services.

1. What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small text file (up to 4KB) created by a website that is stored in the user's computer either temporarily for that session only or permanently on the hard disk (persistent cookie). Cookies provide a way for the website to recognize you and keep track of your preferences.

As explained below, you do not have to accept cookies, you can set your browser to restrict their use, and you can delete them after they have been placed on your hard drive or device. If you do not accept cookies, some areas of our Site or Services may take more time to work, or may not function properly. If you delete cookies set by our Site, our Site will not remember your settings and you may have to log in again.

BY CONTINUING TO USE THE SITE OR SERVICES, YOU CONSENT TO THE PLACEMENT OF COOKIES ON ANY DEVICE USED TO ACCESS OUR SITE OR USE THE SERVICES.

2. First Party Cookies

First party cookies are cookies set by SFS and through the SFS website domains you are visiting - such as RockstarFinder.com. These cookies are necessary cookies and are essential in order to enable you to move around the Site and use its features that you have requested, such as logging in to your account, or filling out forms. These cookies can also be used to remember preferences or choices for services you requested and detect the suspicious use.

3. Controlling Your Cookie Preferences
