We are excited to kick off the 2022-2023 Academic Year and seventh year of the Pathways for Women in Supply Chain Program. We are pleased to welcome and thank four new sponsors: Johnson Controls Inc., Mattress Firm, Meijer and Nordstrom for supporting our Pathways Scholars. Thank you as well to our long-time sponsors: DHL, Encova (founding co-sponsor), JP Morgan/Chase, Nationwide, Sherwin Williams, Wendy's Quality Supply Chain Co-op, Inc. (founding co-sponsor) and Williams Sonoma, Inc.

We have two new University Advisors joining the team: Professor Whitney Mantonya and Professor Bonnie Schroeder. They join Dr. Ken Boyer (Program Founder), Dr. Mi Kyong Newsom, Professor Jill Treece and Molly Miller in supporting the Pathways Scholars. Additionally, five former Pathways Scholars will also be providing support as Peer Mentors to the scholars this year.
