Students will also learn how allegations of fraud should be investigated and resolved.

Prerequisite:

MBA 6211 or enrollment in the MAcc program. Course is not open to students who have taken ACCTMIS 4510.

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- Recognize how occupational fraud is committed
- Recognize risk factors for occupational fraud occurring
- Be able to identify methods that can be used to deter occupational fraud
- Be able to identify methods that can be used to prevent occupational fraud
- Understand how allegations of occupational fraud should be investigated

How This Course Works:

Credit hours and work expectations: This is a 1.5-credit-hour course. According to Ohio State policy, students should expect around an average of 1.5 hours per week of time spent on direct instruction (instructor content and Carmen activities, for example) in addition to 3 hours of homework (reading and assignment preparation, for example).

Attendance and participation requirements: Students will need to join a live Zoom meeting on Monday, January 10, 2022, at 10:15 am. In this session, we will discuss course expectations and deliverables. All other class sessions will be conducted in-person.

AMIS 7520 will be conducted using class lectures/discussions and case studies. Lecture time is intended to help you focus on the details and technicalities needed to do well on the quizzes and exam. You are encouraged to ask questions and be actively involved in class discussions. In order to utilize our time together most effectively, it is imperative that you do the assigned reading BEFORE the assigned class meeting. You are responsible for everything said in class (in addition to the required reading). If you miss class, be sure to get the notes from a classmate.

Regular class attendance will also improve your chances of meeting the course objectives, doing well on exams, and being a useful and productive member of society.

- Independent Work (↑): Strictly non-collaborative, original-individual work. You may discuss this assignment only with your instructor. Discussions with other individuals, either in person or electronically, are strictly prohibited.
- Collaboration Required (↑↑↑): An explicit expectation for collaboration among students either in-class or outside (i.e. group work).

Cases	30 points	↑
Financial Statement Fraud Presentations	15 points	↑↑↑
Final Exam	40 points	↑
TOTAL COURSE POINTS	100 points

THERE WILL BE NO EXTRA CREDIT WORK.

Course Assignments:

- Quizzes ↑: You will complete three quizzes on Carmen by the dates and times indicated on the assignment schedule. The deadline is 11:59pm EST on the date listed on the schedule (generally Mondays). The quizzes will be available at 12:00pm EST the Wednesday before the scheduled date. The quizzes are timed and may consist of multiple choice, true/false, and/or essay questions. The quizzes will test the application of knowledge acquired from class lectures, related reading assignments, and case assignments from assigned chapter(s)/topic(s). The allotted time for the quizzes will be set in a way that will allow minimal time for consulting the textbook or the notes, so you should study for these as you would for an exam. The quizzes must be completed individually, without any external help or communication.

There will be no make-up quizzes. If you miss a quiz for a university-excused reason, a make-up assignment may be given at the instructor's discretion. Make-up assignments will be similar in nature to the cases assigned in this class and will require you to spend more time than taking the assigned quiz.

- Cases ↑, 🎥: You will be assigned 3 cases during the semester. These cases will involve watching a video (and in one instance, a documentary) and completing supplemental readings. The videos are between 15 and 35 minutes long, and the movie is one hour and 10 minutes in length. The graded components of each case will include: an end of case assessment (quiz) and an individual written assignment. Details for each case assignment will be provided to you on the dates listed on the class schedule. You should plan to view the case and complete the case assessment on (or before) the assigned date. You will have at least one week from the date the case was assigned to complete the individual written component of the assignment.
- Financial Statement Fraud Presentations ↑↑↑: You will research a major financial statement fraud and be required to give a presentation to the class about that fraud at the end of the semester via Zoom conference on one of the dates listed on the assignment schedule. Details about the assignment, as well as group assignments, will be given at the beginning of February. All groups will be required to submit final copies of their slides on February 13, 2022, regardless of their assigned presentation day.

- Exams † : You will take an in-class final exam on the date indicated on the assignment schedule. The exam may consist of multiple choice, short-answer, and/or essay questions. The exam will test the application of knowledge acquired from class lectures, reading assignments, and cases.

If you miss the exam for a university-excused absence (e.g., sickness, death in immediate family) and provide sufficient documentation to support your situation, you will receive an excused absence. Any other arrangements for alternate exam dates/times must be approved by me in advance, in writing in order to be considered an excused “absence. Unexcused absences from exams will result in a grade of zero. You will not be permitted to take the exam early for any reason.

Grading Scale:

Your final grade in this course will be determined by the total points you earn and will be determined based upon a student’s relative performance to his or her peer group and without regard to the percentage of total points earned. Any student who fails to complete any assignment for unexcused reasons may receive a final grade of “E,” regardless of the student’s performance on other graded materials.

Course Engagement:

Continuous engagement with this course is essential to learning the material. Students are expected to attend class and engage with assignments and discussion prompts for every scheduled meeting, participating at least once per week for courses with fully remote participation. Students who need to miss class or who are not able to participate due to illness (COVID-19 or other illnesses), exposure to COVID-19, care for family members exposed to COVID-19 or other reasons are expected to contact the instructor as soon as possible to arrange for accommodation. Students in special situations or those requiring specific, long-term or other accommodation should seek support from appropriate university offices including but not limited to: Student Advocacy, Student Life Disability Services and the Office of Institutional Equity.

Makeup Policy:

Makeup assignments will generally not be given in this course. Refer to the “Course Assignments” section of the syllabus for the course policy on credit for missed quizzes. Refer to the “Course Engagement” section of this syllabus for information on the policy for requesting accommodations due to COVID-19 and other illnesses.

Late Assignment Submissions:

Late submissions will generally not be accepted. Refer to the “Course Engagement” section of this syllabus for information on the policy for requesting accommodations due to COVID-19 and other illnesses. You can refer to the course syllabus and Carmen for due dates.

I am providing the following list to give you an idea of my intended availability throughout the course. (Remember that you can call 614-688-HELP at any time if you have a technical problem.)

- Grading and feedback: Quiz scores will generally be available within 24 hours of the quiz deadline. Academic Integrity:

SPECIFIC POLICIES FOR ACCTMIS 7520

- Quizzes/Final Exam: You must complete the quizzes and final exam yourself, without any external help or communication.

RESTRICTED AND PERMITTED COURSE MATERIALS

Use of inappropriate study materials, including previously prepared solutions and copies of (or files containing) homework, project, and/or quiz questions used during previous terms or not provided by the instructor compromises the concept of equal opportunity for all students and therefore are prohibited. You may use materials that generally are available to all students provided that they maintain the spirit of the learning objectives.

Materials distributed to students via Carmen or in class may be used only by students enrolled in ACCTMIS 7520 this semester. You may not distribute any of these materials to any others at any time or be subject to disciplinary actions.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Thus, The Ohio State University and the Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM) expect that all students have read and understand the University's Code of Student Conduct, and that all students will complete all academic and scholarly assignments with fairness and honesty. Students must recognize that failure to follow the rules and guidelines established in the University's Code of Student Conduct (<https://trustees.osu.edu/bylaws-and-rules/code>) and this syllabus may constitute Academic Misconduct (<https://oaa.osu.edu/academic-integrity-and-misconduct>)

The Ohio State University's Code of Student Conduct (Section 3335-23-04) defines academic misconduct as: Any activity that tends to compromise the academic integrity of the University, or subvert the educational process. Examples of academic misconduct include (but are not limited to) plagiarism, collusion (unauthorized collaboration), copying the work of another student, and possession of unauthorized materials during an examination. Ignorance of the University's Code of Student Conduct is never considered an excuse for academic misconduct, so I recommend that you review the Code of Student Conduct and, specifically, the sections dealing with academic misconduct.

If I suspect that a student has committed academic misconduct in this course, I am obligated by University Rules to report my suspicions to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. If COAM determines that you have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct (i.e., committed academic misconduct), the sanctions for the misconduct could include a failing grade in this course and suspension or dismissal from the University.

If you have any questions about the above policy or what constitutes academic misconduct in this course, please contact me.

FISHER COLLEGE OF BUSINESS HONOR STATEMENT

It is also expected that each student will behave in a manner that is consistent with the Fisher Honor Statement, which reads as follows:

As a member of the Fisher College of Business community, I am personally committed to the highest standards of behavior. Honesty and integrity are the foundations from which I will measure my actions. I will hold myself accountable to adhere to these standards. As a future leader in the community and business environment, I pledge to live by these principles and celebrate those who share these ideals.

Safety and Health Requirements:

All teaching staff and students are required to comply with and stay up to date on all University safety and health guidance, which includes wearing a face mask in any indoor. Non-compliance will be warned first and disciplinary actions will be taken for repeated offenses.

Disability Services:

The university strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. In light of the current pandemic, students seeking to request COVID-related accommodations may do so through the university's request process, managed by Student Life Disability Services. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic, or temporary medical conditions), please let me know immediately so that we can privately discuss options. To establish reasonable accommodations, I may request that you register with Student Life Disability Services. After registration, make arrangements with me as soon as possible to discuss your accommodations so that they may be implemented in a timely fashion. SLDS contact information: slds@osu.edu; 614-292-3307; slds.osu.edu; 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Avenue.

Grievances and Solving Problems:

According to University Policies, if you have a problem with this class, you should seek to resolve the grievance concerning a grade or academic practice by speaking first with the instructor or professor. Then, if necessary, take your case to the department chairperson, associate dean for programs in the college, and to the provost, in that order. Specific procedures are outlined in Faculty Rule 3335-7-23. Grievances against graduate, research, and teaching assistants should be submitted first to the supervising instructor, then to the chairperson of the assistant's department.

Statement on Title IX:

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories (e.g., race). If you or someone you know has been sexually harassed or assaulted, you may find the appropriate resources at <http://titleix.osu.edu> or by contacting the Ohio State Title IX Coordinator, Kellie Brennan, at titleix@osu.edu

Your Mental Health:

A recent American College Health Survey found stress, sleep problems, anxiety, depression, interpersonal concerns, death of a significant other, and alcohol use among the top ten health impediments to academic performance. Students experiencing personal problems or situational crises during the quarter are encouraged to contact Ohio State University Counseling and Consultation Service (614-292-5766; www.ccs.osu.edu) for assistance, support and advocacy.
